Philological Proofs of the Original Unity and Recent Origin of the Human Race Arthur James Johnes, 2020-03-16

In the groundbreaking book Philological Proofs of the Original Unity and Recent Origin of the Human Race by Arthur James Johnes the author delves into the linguistic evidence supporting the theory of the original unity and recent origin of the human race. Johnes meticulously examines the connections between various languages and traces their roots back to a common source, providing compelling arguments for the shared ancestry of all humanity. The American Catholic Quarterly Review James Andrew Corcoran, Patrick John Ryan, Edmond Francis Prendergast, 1908 The American Catholic Quarterly Review ... , 1908 A Year Amongst the Persians Edward Granville Browne, 1893 Persian Service Annabelle

Sreberny, Massoumeh Torfeh, 2014-01-16 Rumour and speculation in Iran have been rife for generations that the BBC has had a hand in every political upheaval in the country. In this vein the BBC has become a notable element in the complex and tortured narrative of Anglo-Iranian relations. The BBC Persian Service was initially developed in 1940 to prepare and broadcast British war-time propaganda. And it has since been seen by many in Iran as an integral part of British policy-making in the region. Thirty years ago the Shah of Iran regarded the BBC Persian Service radio as his enemy number one and held it responsible for promoting the revolution of 1979. Only a couple of decades earlier the BBC Persian Service was widely accused for having been complicit in the CIA-led 1953 coup against Prime Minister Mohammad Musaddiq. And a decade earlier the BBC Persian Service was strongly linked to the British planned removal of Reza Shah in 1941. The BBC Persian service has frequently been perceived as an entity which was not simply a vehicle to record the changes occurring in Iran and throughout the Middle East but rather an active agent of change. In this book Annabelle Sreberny and Massoumeh Torfeh track the history of the BBC Persian Service critically analysing both the assumptions that the BBC is a standard bearer for objective reporting and representations of it as a simple tool of Western interests. Also examining the history of relations between the Foreign Office and the BBC Persian Service they demonstrate that these have never been pre-defined or rigid. Instead they explore how both institutions have moved from an interest in what can crudely be called state-orchestrated propaganda to a more subtle advocacy of fair and balanced journalism as the best agent of British values and influence.

The Persian Revival Talinn Grigor, 2021-07-08 One of the most heated scholarly controversies of the early twentieth century, the Orient or Rome debate, turned on whether art historians should trace the origin of all Western and especially

Gothic architecture to Roman ingenuity or to the Indo Germanic Geist Focusing on the discourses around this debate Talinn Grigor considers the Persian Revival movement in light of imperial strategies of power and identity in British India and in Qajar Pahlavi Iran The Persian Revival examines Europe s discovery of ancient Iran first in literature and then in art history Tracing Western visual discourse about ancient Iran from 1699 on Grigor parses the invention and use of a revivalist architectural style from the Afsharid and Zand successors to the Safavid throne and the rise of the Parsi industrialists as cosmopolitan subjects of British India Drawing on a wide range of Persian revival narratives bound to architectural history Grigor foregrounds the complexities and magnitude of artistic appropriations of Western art history in order to grapple with colonial ambivalence and imperial aspirations She argues that while Western imperialism was instrumental in shaping high art as mercantile bourgeois ethos it was also a project that destabilized the hegemony of a Eurocentric historiography of taste An important reconsideration of the Persian Revival this book will be of vital interest to art and architectural historians and intellectual historians particularly those working in the areas of international modernism Iranian studies and historiography The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1898 The Modern Traveller: Persia Josiah Conder,1830 Iranian

This led to the legendary last stand of the Spartan King Leonidas at Thermopylae the sacking of Athens and the renowned naval clash at Salamis which saved Greece The following year 479 BC saw the remaining Persian forces driven from mainland Greece at the epic yet strangely lesser known Battle of Plataea one of the largest pitched battles of the Classical Greek world In this compelling history Dr Arthur Keaveney an expert on Achaemenid Persia re examines these momentous epoch defining events from both Greek and Persian perspectives to give a full and balanced account based on the most recent research Also included are maps and a number of color photographs of relevant historic sites and works of art
