LAST PERFORMANCE

BRINGING TV CHARACTERS BACK FROM THE DEAD TO SELL LIFE INSURANCE

Goal

When it comes to life insurance, New Zealand is one of the most underinsured in the world. Life insurance provider, Partners Life, wanted to change that and challenge the nation's mindset by using New Zealanders' underinsured and how important life insurance is.

Plan

Partners Life teamed up with the country's most popular "horror movies" to create "The Beloved Dead" and created a horror concept, media planning and product placement across the campaign.

In partnership with the film, but as a result, they set up in the biggest office that causes a death, underinsured. So, at the end of every episode, before the credits, we brought these murdered characters back from the dead in a campaign called "Last Performance".

The dead characters would appear to remind that insurance, as well as to stress the importance of having life insurance, as they appeared in their lives and deaths. And in many ways this reminded New Zealand that life isn't a number, it's a life. It's a life that you should live and "Last Performance" is the movie's premiere.

This message seamlessly integrated into the show for the entire season, as we used the same actors, same director, same crew and same sets.
