Lighten Up: The Life-Changing Magic of Letting Go Gaurav Garg, First off let me start by saying congratulations. By picking up this book you've already taken the first step on an incredible journey. A journey that I promise you is more exciting than finding money in your old coat pocket and more rewarding than finally mastering the art of parallel parking. Now I know what you might be thinking. Another self-help book. Isn't this just going to tell me to do yoga, drink green smoothies and journal my feelings? Well, hold onto your skepticism, my friend, because this isn't your average run-of-the-mill cookie-cutter guide to inner peace. This book is a rollercoaster ride through the landscape of human emotions, but don't worry, it's the kind of rollercoaster that's more exhilarating than terrifying, and you won't need a barf bag, though keep some tissues handy because we might hit you in the feels a few times.

What's In Store for You In the pages that follow, we're going to embark on a grand adventure. We'll traverse the peaks of joy, wade through the valleys of sorrow, and navigate the winding paths of everything in between. Along the way, we'll explore the art of letting go. Spoiler alert: it's not just about decluttering your closet. Learn how to embrace change without feeling like you're free-falling without a parachute. Discover how to love yourself, flaws and all, yes, even that weird thing you do when you're nervous. Master the ninja-like skills of emotional resilience. And ultimately, find a path to true emotional freedom. No, this doesn't mean you'll never feel sad again; we're aiming for freedom, not robotic indifference.

Who is This Book For? This book is for you if you've ever felt stuck, like you're running on a hamster wheel of emotions. You find yourself replaying arguments in your head, coming up with perfect comebacks weeks too late. Your emotional baggage is so heavy you'd have to pay extra if emotions were airlines. You want to feel more in control of your reactions instead of feeling like a puppet to your feelings. You're ready for a change, but the idea of change also makes you want to hide under your blanket. You're curious about this whole emotional freedom thing, but you're pretty sure it's just for monks and people who do yoga at 5am. In other words, this book is for humans. Imperfect, messy, beautiful humans who are doing their best to navigate this wild ride we call life.

A Word of Warning Now I feel it's my duty to warn you: this journey isn't always going to be easy. There will be moments when you'll want to throw this book across the room. Please, don't, unless you're reading the e-book version, in which case, throw away. There will be times when you'll face uncomfortable truths about yourself. You might cry. You might laugh. You might do both at the same time and worry about your sanity. But here's the thing: that's all part of the process. Growth isn't always comfortable, but it's always worth it. And I promise you: the view from the other side is spectacular.

My Promise to You As we embark on this journey together, here's what I promise you: I will be honest with you, even when it's uncomfortable. I will challenge you, but I will never leave you hanging. I will share real, practical strategies that you can apply in your everyday life. I will respect your intelligence and won't sugar-coat things. I will do my best to make this journey not just enlightening but also enjoyable. Prepare for dad jokes and pop culture references.

Are You Ready? So, dear reader, are you ready to embark on this adventure? Are you ready to laugh, to cry, to grow, and to discover a version of yourself that is freer and more authentically you than you ever thought possible

Human Sacrifice and the Supernatural in African History Mbogoni, Lawrence E.Y., 2013-11-03 Since time immemorial human beings the world over have sought answers to the vexing questions of their origins sickness death and after death the meaning of natural phenomena such as earthquakes eclipses of the sun and moon birth of twins etc and how to protect themselves from such mysterious events They invented God and gods and the occult sciences witch craft divination and soothsaying in order to seek the protection of supernatural powers while individuals used them to gain power to dominate others and to accumulate wealth Human sacrifice was one way in which they sought to expiate the gods for what they believed were punishments for their transgressions One example the Ghana Asante Kingdom's very origins are associated with human sacrifice On the eve of war against Denkyira individuals volunteered themselves to be sacrificed in order to guarantee victory Later human sacrifice in Asante was mainly politically motivated as kings and religious leaders offered human sacrifice in remembrance of their ancestral spirits and to seek their protection against their enemies The Asante Kingdom is one of several examples included in this study of human sacrifice and ritual killing on the African continent Case studies include practices in Sierra Leone Tanzania Mainland Zanzibar Uganda and Swaziland Advertisements relating to the occult was a common feature of Drum magazine the popular South African magazine in Southern Eastern and Central Africa in late years of colonial and early years of postcolonial periods indicating a wide belief in these practices among the people in these countries Each case examined is introduced by an expose of folklore that puts in perspective beliefs in the supernatural and how folklore continues to perpetuate them Through careful study of these select cases this book highlights general features of human sacrifice which recur with striking uniformity in all parts of sub Saharan Africa and why they persist until today He draws upon extensive written sources to expose these practices in other cultures including those in Western societies

Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic David Frankfurter, 2019-03-19 In the midst of academic debates about the utility of the term magic and the cultural meaning of ancient words like mageia or khesheph this Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic seeks to advance the discussion by separating out three topics essential to the very idea of magic The three major sections of this volume address 1 indigenous terminologies for ambiguous or illicit ritual in antiquity 2 the ancient texts manuals and artifacts commonly designated magical or used to represent ancient magic and 3 a series of contexts from the written word to materiality itself to which the term magic might usefully pertain The individual essays in this volume cover most of Mediterranean and Near Eastern antiquity with essays by both established and emergent scholars of ancient religions In a burgeoning field of magic studies trying both to preserve and to justify critically the category itself this volume brings new clarity and provocative insights This will be an indispensable resource to all interested in magic in the Bible and the Ancient Near East ancient Greece and Rome Early Christianity and Judaism Egypt through the Christian period and also comparative and critical theory Contributors are Magali Bailliot Gideon Bohak Veronique Dasen Albert de Jong Jacco Dieleman Esther
