Road From Sharpeville:

The Vaal Uprising of 1984 & the Struggle for Freedom in South Africa Franziska Rueedi, 2021 Offers new insights into the struggle against Apartheid and the poverty and inequality that instigated political resistance The Road to Democracy in South Africa South African Democracy Education Trust, 2024-12-02 This book examines the contributions made by the governments organisations and African people on the ground throughout the continent towards the realisation of the South African dream in 1994 The chapters provide detailed insight into the roots of the continent's liberation from colonialism The subject matter in this book also discusses The anti apartheid struggle Caribbean solidarity with the South African struggle Botswana's role in South African liberation Black internationalism The involvement of the ANC Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge's co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges

The Road to Sharpeville Bernard Sachs, 1961

Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela Hlongwane, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976 Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day

One Hundred Years of the ANC Arianna Lissoni, Jon Soske, 2012-11-01 An examination of the ANC in its centennial year On 8 January 2012 the African National Congress ANC of South Africa the oldest African nationalist organisation on the continent celebrated its one hundredth anniversary This historic event has generated significant public debate within both the ANC and South African society at large There is no better time to critically reflect on the ANC's historical trajectory and struggle against colonialism and apartheid than in its centennial year One Hundred Years of the ANC is a collection of new work by renowned South African and international scholars Covering a broad chronological and geographical spectrum and using a diverse range of sources the contributors build upon but also extend the historiography of the ANC by tapping into marginal spaces in ANC history By moving away from the celebratory mode that has characterised much of the contemporary discussions on the centenary the contributors suggest that the relationship between the histories of earlier struggles and the present needs to be rethought in more complex terms Collectively the book chapters challenge hegemonic narratives that have become an established part of South Africa's national discourse since 1994 By opening up debate around controversial or obscured aspects of the ANC's century-long history. One hundred years of the ANC sets out an agenda for future research. The book is directed at a wide readership with an interest in understanding the historical roots of South Africa's current politics will find this volume informative. This book is based on a selection of papers presented at the One Hundred Years of the ANC Debating Liberation Histories and Democracy Today Conference held at the University of Witwatersrand Johannesburg from 20-23 September 2011. Rainbow Nation My Zulu Arse Sihle Khumalo, 2018-10-12. After exploring more than twenty other African nations using only public transport, Sihle Khumalo this time roams within the borders of his own country. The familiarity of his own car is a luxury, but what he finds on his journey through South Africa ranges from the puzzling to the downright bizarre. Voyaging from the northernmost part of South Africa right to the south, the author noses his car down freeways and back roads into small towns, townships and villages, some of which you'll have trouble finding on a map. But this is no clichéd description of beautiful landscapes and blue skies. Khumalo is out to investigate the state of the nation from its highest successes to its most depressing failures. Whether or not he's baffled, surprised or sometimes plain angry, Sihle Khumalo will always find warmth in his fellow South Africans: security guards, religious visionaries, drunks, political activists and the many other colourful personalities that come alive in his riveting account. The Roads to Hillbrow Ron Nerio, Jean Halley, 2022-06-07. This highly accessible portrayal of a post-apartheid neighborhood in transition analyzes the relationship between identity, migration and place. Since it was founded in 1894 amidst Johannesburg's transformation from a mining town into the largest city in southern Africa, Hillbrow has been a community of migrants. As the city of gold accumulated wealth on the backs of migrant laborers from southern Africa, Jewish Eastern Europeans who had fled pogroms joined other Europeans and white South Africans in this emerging suburb. After World War II, Hillbrow became a landscape of high rises that lured western and southern Europeans seeking prosperity in South Africa's booming economy. By the 1980s, Hillbrow housed some of the most vibrant and visible queer spaces on the continent while also attracting thousands of Indian and Black South Africans who defied apartheid laws to live near the city center. Filling the void for a book about migration within the Global South, The Roads to Hillbrow explores how one South African neighborhood transformed from a white suburb under apartheid into a grey zone during the 1970s and 1980s to become a port of entry for people from at least twenty-five African countries. The Roads to Hillbrow explores the diverse experiences of domestic and transnational migrants who have made their way to this South African community following war, economic dislocation and the social trauma of apartheid. Authors Ron Nerio and Jean Halley weave sociology, history, memoir and queer studies with stories drawn from more than 100 interviews. Topics cover the search for employment, options for housing, support for unaccompanied minors, possibilities for queer expression, the creation of safe parks for children and the challenges of living without documents. Current residents of Hillbrow also discuss how they cope with inequality, xenophobia, high levels of crime and the harsh economic impacts of COVID-19. Many of the book's interviewees arrived in Hillbrow seeking not only to gain better futures for themselves but also to support family members in rural parts of South Africa or in their countries of origin Some immerse themselves in justice work while others develop LGBTQ support networks join religious and community groups or engage in artistic expression By emphasizing the disparate voices of migrants and people who work with migrants this book shows how the people of Hillbrow form connections and adapt to adversity A Social History of the University Presses in Apartheid South Africa Elizabeth Le Roux,2015-10-14 In A History of the University Presses in Apartheid South Africa Elizabeth le Roux examines scholarly publishing history academic freedom and knowledge production during the apartheid era Using archival materials comprehensive bibliographies and political sociology theory this work analyses the origins publishing lists and philosophies of the university presses The university presses are often associated with anti apartheid publishing and the promotion of academic freedom but this work reveals both greater complicity and complexity Elizabeth le Roux demonstrates that the university presses cannot be considered oppositional because they did not resist censorship and because they operated within the constraints of the higher education system but their publishing strategies became more liberal over time

A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood,2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka s Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood s study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world Gordian Knot Ryan M. Irwin,2012-09-07 Gordian Knot explores how African decolonization remade the international order of the mid twentieth century In looking closely at the apartheid debate the book shows the way South Africa s policies shaped the global conversation about rights and race and eroded Washington s influence at the United Nations

The Affordable Insider's Guide to Johannesburg John Ostrowick,2017-01-03 Johannesburg is severely underrated as a tourist destination This could be because it has no beaches no snow capped mountains and no ancient buildings But Johannesburg has something else it is a cultural and industrial centre with an enormous array of entertainment events running day and night Johannesburg is also the scene of the fall of the abominable Apartheid system So Johannesburg is not only a cultural centre but it is also politically one of the most significant cities in Africa and the most economically powerful Furthermore the human race evolved in the Johannesburg area So there are many reasons to visit This book gives an introduction to South Africa and Johannesburg in particular It covers all the things to see and visit in Johannesburg and its surrounds It provides addresses phone numbers and GPS coordinates of each tourist attraction so that you can find them easily This edition contains a black and white interior to make the book affordable      National Directory of Drug Abuse and Alcoholism Treatment and Prevention Programs ,1995

Apartheid Una D. Bruhns,2023-01-18 On Challenging Journeys We Find Out Who We Are Apartheid is a powerful memoir of Una s Personal and political struggles growing up in the peaceful community of Vrededorp Johannesburg South Africa By age nine the political arena in South Africa changed Una and her family are assessed segregated and uprooted from their home in Vrededorp by the Apartheid Authorities and moved to Coronationville a Johannesburg suburb Witnessing The Sharpville Massacre in March 1960 a sudden shift of lens brought a new focus on her young mind that forever changed how she viewed those in power After a failed marriage she is now a single mother and determined to find a better life for herself and her son She falls in love with a German immigrant With her fierce spirit she begins challenging the Immorality law and they fight for their love under the watchful eye and harassment of the local police Her poems bring raw vulnerability and frustration to the forefront of what it feels like to be held back and watch injustice continue      The Commercial & Financial Chronicle ,1901      The Road Taken Michael Buerk,2010-11-23 Dawn and as the sun breaks through the piercing chill of night on the plain outside Korem it lights up a biblical famine now in the Twentieth Century Those words opened Michael Buerk s first report on the Ethiopian famine for the 6 o clock news on October 24th 1984 His reports sent shock waves round the world The Live Aid concert a direct consequence of Bob Geldof watching that broadcast was watched by half the planet Michael Buerk has reported on some of the biggest stories in our lifetime the Flixborough chemical plant fire the Birmingham pub bombing Lockerbie He was in Buenos Aires at the start of the Falklands War he reported the death throes of apartheid in South Africa He was the face of the BBC flagship evening news for many years and has fronted everything from the popular BBC1 series 999 to the erudite Radio 4 programme The Moral Maze He has won every major award and is universally admired and respected for his intelligent and honest journalism Here he also reveals the private Michael Buerk his bigamist father his long and happy marriage to Christine and his delight at fatherhood      Classify, Exclude, Police Laurent Fourchard,2021-04-19 b CLASSIFY EXCLUDE POLICE Laurent Fourchard s deep first hand knowledge of the history and contemporary politics of Nigeria and South Africa forms the basis of an insightful and compelling analysis of how states produce invidious distinctions among their people and at the same time how political linkages are forged between state and society elites and subalterns bureaucratic structures and personal relations Frederick Cooper Professor of History New York University USA Violence control police and political order are essential dimensions of metropolis In this exceptional book Laurent Fourchard compares decentralised exercises of authority in providing vivid analysis of exclusion of youth and migrants policing and riots politics of Big men and fine grained blurring between bureaucracy and society A masterpiece of urban politics Patrick Le Gal s Dean of Urban School Sciences Po Paris France This book is a major contribution to rethinking urban politics from the experiences of African cities Based on detailed historical analysis of South Africa and Nigeria

Fourchard recalibrates the actors stakes and terms of urban politics around African centred concerns Jennifer Robinson Professor of Geography University College London UK The cities of South Africa and Nigeria are reputed to be dangerous teeming with slums and dominated by the informal economy but we know little about how people are divided up categorised and policed Colonial governments assigned rights and punishments banned categories considered problematic delinquents migrants single women street vendors and give non state organisations the power to police low income neighbourhoods Within this enduring legacy a tangle of petty arrangements has developed to circumvent exclusion to public places and government offices In this unpredictable urban reality which has eluded all planning individuals and social groups have changed areas of public action through exclusion violence and negotiation In combining historical and ethnographic methods Classify Exclude Police explores the effects and limits of public action and questions the possibility of comparison between cities often perceived as incommensurable Focusing on state formation urbanization and daily lives Laurent Fourchard addresses debates and controversies in comparative urban studies history political science and urban anthropology The book provides a systematic comparative approach to the practices processes arrangements used to create boundaries direct violence and produce social racial gender and generational differences

The ANC and the Liberation Struggle in South Africa Thula Simpson, 2018-10-03 The history of the ANC which is the oldest liberation movement on the African continent is one that has generated a great deal of interest amongst historians in recent years Gone are the days when the history of African nationalism could be relegated to the margins of the study of the South African past Instead with the ANC having ascended to the helm of political power a position it has maintained for over twenty years there can be no question that its history occupies an important and permanent place in the history of the nation This volume gathers together some of the most important contributions to the literature on the ANC s role in South Africa s struggle for liberation Besides important themes such as gender ethnicity and healthcare contributions from leading historians also address why the ANC decided to engage in armed struggle what role the South African Communist Party played in making this decision how the ANC External Mission contributed to the upsurge of mass protest in South Africa in the 1970s and 1980s and the ANC s contribution relative to the other components of the liberation struggle in ensuring the eventual demise of the old racial order The chapters in this book were originally published in the South African Historical Journal the Journal of Southern African Studies and African Studies
