Road Is Wider Than Long Getty:

The photobook world Paul Ernest Michael Edwards, 2023-02-28 This volume sets out to challenge and ultimately broaden the category of the photobook It critiques the popular art market definition of the photobook as simply a photographer's book proposing instead to show how books and photos come together as collective cultural productions Focusing on North American British and French photobooks from 1920 to the present the chapters revisit canonical works by Claudia Andujar and George Love Mohamed Bourouissa Walker Evans Susan Meiselas and Roland Penrose while also delving into institutional digital and unrealised projects illegal practices DIY communities and the poetic impulse They throw new light on the way that gendered racial or colonial assumptions are resisted Taken as a whole the volume provides a better understanding of how the meaning of a photobook is collectively produced both inside and outside the art market Photopoetry 1845-2015 Michael Nott, 2018-05-31 From amateur experiments in scrapbooks and stereographs to contemporary photobook collaborations between leading practitioners poets and photographers have created an art form that continues to evolve and deserves critical exploration Photopoetry 1845 2015 a Critical History represents the first account of this challenging and diverse body of work Nott traces the development of photopoetic collaboration from its roots in 19th century illustrative practices to the present day Focusing on work from the UK and US he examines how and why poets and photographers collaborate and explores the currents of exchange and engagement between poems and photographs on the page The book not only considers canonical figures but brings to light forgotten practitioners whose work questioned and shaped the relationship between word and image Photopoetry 1845 2015 a Critical History provides a new lens through which to explore poetry photography and the spaces between them The Publishers Weekly, 2003 Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World Megan Watkins, Greg Noble, 2021-10-07 Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World explores the challenges facing multicultural education in the 21st century It argues that the ideas fashioned in 1970s multiculturalism are no longer adequate for the culturally complex world in which we now live Much multicultural education celebrates superficial forms of difference and avoids difficult questions around culture in an age of transnational flows and hybrid identities Megan Watkins and Greg Noble explore the understandings of multiculturalism that exist amongst teachers parents and students They demonstrate that ideas around culture and identity don't match the complexities of the social contexts of schooling in migrant based nations such as Australia the UK the USA Canada and New Zealand Doing Diversity Differently in a Culturally Complex World draws on comprehensive research undertaken in Australian schools It examines how a diverse range of schools address the challenges that superdiversity poses considering how the strengths and limitations of each school's approach reflect wider logics of traditional multiculturalism In contrast the authors argue for a transformative multiculturalism involving a critically reflexive approach to understanding the processes relations and identities of the contemporary world With a Foreword by Fazal Rivzi Emeritus Professor University of Illinois at Urbana
