El-Hi Textbooks in Print ,1984 Let's Start with the Children Al Colella,2013-01-11 Make the journey from the slave trade of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the plight of African Americans in inner city America in the South Bronx Learn about the ravages and disadvantages of residence there and its lifelong impact upon an entire population Recognize that this continuing situation has a sad and shameful historical path shaped by societys blindness to humanity This malaise of blindness exacted an unfair immoral and immeasurable human cost upon generations a blindness which denied entry to the opportunities afforded others as a birthright The aggregated cost in the South Bronx is staggering beyond belief There is however a collateral cost to the reservoir of national resources caused by a failure to recognize and therefore unrealized and unavailable the creativity talents skills and potential of inner city residents Hear those voices that have addressed the inequities of this situation learn of individuals who believe in the humanity of every individual Despite these voices the deplorable inner city situation continues and even worsens Is anybody listening There are listeners who have taken up the cause albeit in the face of a lack of political humanitarian and spiritual wills Learn about those listeners in a New England church community that made the trek to the South Bronx for a decade One may perceive these two communities as radically different experience the merger of two communities into a single family via the grace of a spiritual ministry Think about how you can make a difference somewhere sometime somehow and discover the difference in your being Proceeds from book sales will be directed to an educational fund specifically for the children of St Anns community in the South Bronx

Collective Memory as Currency Tracy Adams, 2024-07-01 Why is the past so dominant in the present This book conceptualizes collective memory as currency a medium of exchange a system in common use and one that is traded between and within nations Bringing together contemporary case studies and multidisciplinary scholarship this volume shows how past events are used and perceived as a commodity and a substantially fungible marketable item produced to satisfy wants or needs their supply or demand being a part of one universal market This book provides readers with a broader understanding of the power of the past in the present Specific past events are incarnated into collective memories that can transform into iconic almost mythical stories that can be employed to help make sense of the present Through evoking constructing and reconstructing selectively highlighting certain aspects or perspectives of prominent past events these collective memories become a significant resource that actors and publics turn to in times of need As currency these memories provide a service As currency they can also relatively easily travel between collectives since it is commonly understood that the past has value in the present and that this value is similarly utilized in various countries around the world
