Onorato,Museum of Contemporary Art, San Diego,1997 Far from being the latest movement or a new development in contemporary art installation art one could argue is only the most recent manifestation of the oldest tradition in art going as far back as the prehistoric paintings on cave walls at Lascaux Fundamental to this work are its habitation and incorporation of a physical site a connection to real conditions be they visual historical or social and often a bridging of traditional art boundaries The aesthetic power of installation art does not reside in the singular commodified object but rather in the artwork s ability to become not merely represent the continuum of real experience Blurring the Boundaries examines the subject of installation art through the permanent collection and exhibition record of the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego an institution with a unique heritage in support of such art dating back to the 1960s Art Now Gallery Guide ,1994-03 Alumni Newsletter University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Contemporary Art San Diego has applied to building its collection Curatorially independent striking a balance between the regional and the global the emerging artist and the established figure the MCA has always worked to represent important developments in mainstream art while also identifying significant developments that fall outside of conventional categories The museum s efforts to illuminate a new axis mapping the contemporary art world one running north and south through North Central and South America instead of east and west through the United States and Europe Featuring the work in virtually all media of more than 65 artists including Matthew Barney Jose Bedia Vanessa Beecroft John Currin David Hammons Gary Hill Gabriel Orozco Edward Ruscha Cindy Sherman and Lisa Yuskavage On Exhibit, 1994 On Exhibit Fine Art Publications,Patti Sowalsky,1993
