Rosalind Kent, 1974 Jewish Public Culture in the Late Russian Empire Jeffrey Veidlinger, 2009-04-14 In the midst of the violent revolutionary turmoil that accompanied the last decade of tsarist rule in the Russian Empire many Jews came to reject what they regarded as the apocalyptic and utopian prophecies of political dreamers and religious fanatics preferring instead to focus on the promotion of cultural development in the present Jewish Public Culture in the Late Russian Empire examines the cultural identities that Jews were creating and disseminating through voluntary associations such as libraries drama circles literary clubs historical societies and even fire brigades Jeffrey Veidlinger explores the venues in which prominent cultural figures including Sholem Aleichem Mendele Moykher Sforim and Simon Dubnov interacted with the general Jewish public encouraging Jewish expression within Russia's multicultural society By highlighting the cultural experiences shared by Jews of diverse social backgrounds from seamstresses to parliamentarians and in disparate geographic locales from Ukrainian shtetls to Polish metropolises the book revises traditional views of Jewish society in the late Russian Empire

The Death of Vazir-Mukhtar (Russian Library) Yury Tynyanov, 2021 The Death of Vazir Mukhtar a novel by Yury Tynyanov one of the leading figures of the Russian formalist school describes the final year in the life of Alexander Griboedov the author of the comedy Woe from Wit As ambassador to Persia Griboedov was murdered in 1829 by a Tehrani mob during the sacking of the Russian embassy One of the central texts of Russian formalist literary production the novel is a brilliant meditation on the nature of historical and poetic consciousness and of artistic creation It is a complex and fascinating work that explores the relationships among individual memory historical fact and the literary imagination The result is a hybrid text containing elements of various genres historical biographical existential and adventure novels and a deeply personal almost confessional testament to the writer's relationship to his generation and the state Completed in 1927 almost a century after the events it depicts The Death of Vazir Mukhtar marks the watershed between revolution and reaction At a time when the Soviet regime was becoming increasingly restrictive of freedom of expression and conscience Tynyanov grappled with the themes of disillusionment betrayal and unrealized potential Unabashedly intellectual yet filled with intrigue and suspense The Death of Vazir Mukhtar is a great historical novel of Russian modernism

Farmer,N. I. Gendina,Yuriko Nakamura,2012 In recent years interest in International Librarianship has grown rapidly and will continue to grow as globalization influences education and librarianship In countries around the world public and school libraries have unique roles and their staffs collaborate across types of libraries to varying degrees Library staff preparation training and ongoing learning and organization of youth serving librarians mirror each country s values and priorities The essays in Youth Serving Libraries in Japan Russia and the United States address the universal and culture specific aspects of library services to children and teens in these three countries This collection shows how libraries have developed in light of each country's political, educational and social history They examine how government and citizen roles in youth serving libraries also reflect culturally defined social structures The chapters highlight unique collections and services within each country and also show how librarians deal with the challenges they encounter both from within their culture as well as from outside including natural disasters Each country's authors discuss contemporary issues that face youth serving libraries such as information literacy reading in a multimedia world and the overarching influence of technology This book will be of interest to youth serving librarians around the world library educators and for those studying international and young adult librarianship
