Cartography analyses the works of Rudolf Laban Lawrence Halprin Anne Bogart Adolphe Appia Cedric Price Joan Littlewood and H lio Oiticica They are practitioners who have worked on different areas of enquiry from the existing relations between body and space through movement events or actions but whose work has never been presented from this perspective or in this context The work and methodologies set up by these practitioners enable us to develop a practice based exploration Some of the experiments in the book Micro actions I and II explore the presence of the body in the space In Kinetography I and II Laban s dance notation system kinetography is used to create these dynamic cartographies Kinetography III proposes the analysis of an urban public space through the transcription of the body movement contained on it The series Dynamic Cartographies I II and III analyses movement in geometrically controlled spaces through the Viewpoints techniques by Anne understand urban and architectural space Special Bibliography Series ,1957 Eleven Nineteenth Century American Authors D. D. Zink,1959 Teaching Music Theory Jennifer Snodgrass,2020-04-01 In recent years music theory educators around the country have developed new and innovative teaching approaches reintroducing a sense of purpose into their classrooms In this book author and veteran music theory educator Jennifer Snodgrass visits several of these teachers observing them in their music theory classrooms and providing lesson plans that build upon their approaches Based on three years of field study spanning seventeen states coupled with reflections on her own teaching strategies Teaching Music Theory New Voices and Approaches highlights real life teaching approaches from effective and sometimes award winning instructors from a wide range of institutions high schools community colleges liberal arts colleges and conservatories Throughout the book Snodgrass focuses on topics like classroom environment collaborative learning undergraduate research and professional development and curriculum reform She also emphasizes the importance of a diverse progressive and inclusive teaching environment throughout from encouraging student involvement in curriculum planning to designing lesson plans and assessments so that pedagogical concepts can easily be transferred to the applied studio performance ensemble
