Pictures & Sculpture by Eric Kennington, 1936 The Sculpture of Eric Kennington Jonathan Black, Eric Kennington, 2002 British artist Eric Kennington 1888 1960 was a highly regarded stone carver whose achievements were ranked in the 1920s and 1930s alongside those of his contemporaries Jacob Epstein Eric Gill and Frank Dobson His work has since fallen into neglect Jonathan Black attributes this unjust neglect to Kennington's position between sculptural traditionalists and avant garde artists in England Kennington was an Official War Artist in the First World War and carved a number of war memorials in the 1920s His later work is characterised by public architectural sculpture carved directly into the exterior surface of a building and his public commissions include five relief panels for the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre Stratford upon Avon 1930 2 models plans for the Pan American Columbus Memorial Lighthouse Santo Domingo 1930 4 and the stone relief for the Harold Cohen Memorial Library University of Liverpool 1937 8 During the last fifteen years of his life Kennington concentrated on producing works for the interiors of churches The Sculpture of Eric Kennington includes the first complete catalogue of the artist's sculpture and an essay which sets the work in the wider context of twentieth century British art BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Sculpture and Archaeology Andrew Jones, 2017-07-05 In recent years the intersections between art history and archaeology have become the focus of critical analysis by both disciplines Contemporary sculpture has played a key role in this dialogue The essays in this volume by art historians archaeologists and artists take the intersection between sculpture and archaeology as the prelude for analysis examining the metaphorical and conceptual role of archaeology as subject matter for sculptors and the significance of sculpture as a three dimensional medium for exploring historical attitudes to archaeology The Graphic Art of Eric Kennington University College, London. College Art Collections, Jonathan Black, Eric Kennington, 2001 Pictures & Sculpture by Eric Kennington Eric Kennington, Platt Hall (Manchester, England), Manchester City Art Gallery, 1936 Catalogue of the Exhibitions Ernest Brown & Phillips, 1929 Art, Propaganda and Aerial Warfare in Britain during the Second World War Rebecca Searle, 2020-07-23 The War Artists Advisory Committee WAAC were responsible for the production of some of the most iconic images of the Second World War Despite its rich historical value this collection has been poorly utilised by historians and hasn't been subjected to the levels of analysis afforded to other forms of wartime culture This innovative study addresses this gap by bringing official war art into dialogue with the social economic and military histories of the Second World War Rebecca Searle explores the tensions between the documentarist and propagandistic roles of the WAAC in their representation of aerial warfare in the battle for production the Battle of Britain the Blitz and the bombing of Germany Her analyses demonstrate that whilst there was a strong correlation between war art and propaganda the WAAC depicted many aspects of experience that were absent from wartime propaganda such as class divisions within the services gendered hierarchies within industries civilian death and the true nature of the bombing of

Germany In addition she shows that propagandistic constructions were not entirely separate from lived experience but reflected experience and shaped the way that individuals made sense of the war Accessibly written highly illustrated and packed with valuable examples of the use of war art as historical source this book will enhance our understanding of the social and cultural history of Britain during the Second World War
