The Sea of Becoming Mary S. Vasquez, 1991 The present volume responds to a perceived need for a unified body of serious critical work from a variety of perspectives on the literary production of this dynamic and original writer It includes ten essays interviews and an annotated bibliography the first ever available on Tusquets Post-totalitarian Spanish Fiction Robert C. Spires, 1996 This study records an epistemic shift away from logocentric and totalizing approaches to reality by analyzing the links between the novelistic strategies used by Spanish writers from 1975 to 1989 and recent international events and theoretical trends in science mathematics communication studies and art Cultural Representations of Queer Aging in Spain Heather Jerónimo, Raquel Medina, 2025-06-02 This collection examines representations of Spanish queer aging through investigations of literary and cinematic representations of this demographic offering a showcase for research on communities often made invisible due to age and sexual identity in Spanish culture with wider implications for queer aging studies research The volume builds on theoretical foundations established by queer aging studies scholars and the ways in which queer aging differs from heterosexual aging examining negative topics that arise in literature and film such as the AIDS crisis the silencing of queer aging individuals and social stigmas against this group in addition to positive topics like the creation of communities and spaces for queer aging characters Chapters are structured in conversation with one another about key themes in depictions of queer aging in Spanish culture Several chapters examine such topics as the aging body stereotypes and discrimination old age tropes and queer invisibility while others highlight positive representations in exploring the importance of the connection to home family and community spaces for queer communities The collection represents a critical step in future work on queer aging to take future research beyond the Spanish context to extend to new geographic and disciplinary borders This book will be of interest to scholars in aging studies gerontology studies queer theory health humanities and Spanish literature and culture Literary Labyrinths in Franco-Era Barcelona Colleen P. Culleton, 2016-07-22 Bringing together works by Salvador Espriu Juan Goytisolo Merc Rodoreda Esther Tusquets and Juan Marsa that portray memory as a disorienting narrative enterprise Colleen Culleton argues that the source of this disorientation is the material reality of life in Barcelona in the immediate post Civil War years Barcelona was the object of harsh persecution in the first years of the Franco regime that included the erasure of marks of Catalan identity and cultural history from the urban landscape and made Barcelona a moving target for memory The literature and film she examines show characters struggling to produce narratives of the remembered past that immediately conflict with the dominant version of Spain's historical narrative formulated to legitimize the Civil War Culleton suggests the trope of the laberinto used as an image or device in all five of the works she considers and translated into English as both maze and labyrinth opens up a space that enables readers to take vulnerability to outside interference into account as an inseparable part of remembrance While the narratives all have maze like qualities involving a high level of reader participation and choice the exigencies of the labyrinth with its unicursal demands for patience perseverance and faith always prevail Thus do the Francoist narrative and social structure in the end resurface and reassert themselves over the narrating character's perspective

Schumm, 1999-07 The codes of conduct imposed on females by Spain's dictator Francisco Franco after the Spanish Civil War 1936-39 created a stifling environment for women until his death in 1975 Beginning with Carmen Laforet's 1944 Nadal Prize winning novel Nada novels by women many of which explore female identity began to proliferate in Spain The works examined in this study Nada Primera memoria 1960 by Ana Maria Matute La placa del Diamant 1962 by Merce Rodoreda Julia 1969 by Ana Maria Moix El cuarto de atrás 1978 by Carmen Martin Gaité El amor es un juego solitario 1979 by Esther Tusquets and Questio d amor propi 1987 by Carme Riera feature female protagonists struggling for self realization and by extension for change in a restrictive Spanish society Schumm's analysis of the seven novels demonstrates how examination of metaphoric tropes and mirror images provides insight into the protagonists' development Female Exiles in Twentieth and Twenty-first Century Europe M. subsequent generations as more than breeders of male heirs Each woman's story relates how a dynamic woman was able to swim against the strong currents of patriarchy To make explicit the relevancy of this study the brief biographies are related to such current feminist issues as surrogate parenting gender stereotyping and civil disobedience over unequal treatment by governments Narrating Motherhood(s), Breaking the Silence Silvia Caporale-Bizzini, 2006 Feminist theory on motherhood has successfully transformed mothers into subjects of their own discourse recognized the historical heterogeneous and socially constructed origins of their life experience while at the same time widening our understanding of the notion of mothering This collection combines a literary and a wider cultural perspective from which to look at the topic of the representation of other or forgotten motherhoods Mothers who have been forced to live exiled and away from their children women who after trying to conceive get pregnant but discover they cannot bear to become mothers or even literary characters based on an autobiographical experience of a sexually abusive mother The essays critically point out how writing becomes a tool to think and write about the many aspects of motherhood such as an idealized maternal experience versus the real one or the accepted stereotypes of the good mother and the bad mother Spanish Culture and Society Barry Jordan, 2017-09-25 This glossary offers an exciting introduction to the diversity and richness of Spanish culture and society and a route map to further study Designed specifically with undergraduates in mind it contains around 450 concise alphabetically arranged and accessible explanations of the key words events figures and concepts in Spain since 1939
