Sean The Story Of A Childs Life And Death:

Sean Julie Maude Miller,1999-10-01 Many families have lost a child to cancer including Miller whose 14 year old son died of the disease This year long journal offers a unique insight into a parent s grief The Child Sex Scandal and Modern Irish Literature Joseph Valente,Margot Gayle Backus,2020 Even though the Irish child sex abuse scandals in the Catholic Church have appeared steadily in the media many children remain in peril In The Child Sex Scandal and Modern Irish Literature Joseph Valente and Margot Gayle Backus examine modern cultural responses to child sex abuse in Ireland Using descriptions of these scandals found in newspapers historiographical analysis and 20th and 21st century literature Valente and Backus expose a public sphere ardently committed to Irish children s souls and piously oblivious to their physical welfare They offer historically contextualized and psychoanalytically informed readings of scandal narratives by nine notable modern Irish authors who actively pointedly and persistently question Ireland s responsibilities regarding its children Through close critical readings a more nuanced and troubling account emerges of how Ireland s postcolonial heritage has served to enable such abuse The Child Sex Scandal and Modern Irish Literature refines the debates on why so many Irish children were lost by offering insight into the lived experience of both the children and those who failed them Shadows of Death Jason N. Wilson,2009-03-30 Sean Washington was born with a gift He has the ability to see when someone is going to die His visions allow him to see people in a frightening gray hue On July 17th 1990 Sean was a high school junior on a class trip to New York City with his classmates when a terrorist left a bomb on the train killing six hundred and ninety seven people Sean was only able to save one of his classmates his best friend Reginald Kane Now Sean is a homicide detective searching for an elusive crafty and violent serial killer that leaves his victims handcuffed making escape for the killers victims all but impossible While the detective is on the case the killer discovers that Sean is after him The killer gives a terrifying ultimatum Step down from the case or the ones closest to you will die one by one Will Sean find the killer or will he succumb to his shadows of death

The Distant Mirror Joanne Brown,Nancy St. Clair,2005-12-08 Young adult historical fiction brings the past alive through stories of adventure suspense and mystery The genre is both complex and controversial encompassing novels that range from romance and fantasy to stark historical realism The book examines the various approaches to young adult historical fiction and explores the issues that it has engendered Part One focuses on the broader issues spawned by the genre itself including its various subgenres the line between fiction and fact to what degree must an author adhere to historical accuracy time boundaries the diary format the protagonist as the outsider who is entitled to write what and literary concerns such as the relationship between accuracy and readability Part Two explores issues of contemporary interest such as race class gender the immigrant experience religion war and nationalism Thought provoking discussions of how these elements are treated in historical novels with emphasis on how current cultural values have shaped the fiction are presented Finally the question of whether novels in this genre are bound by anything other than their respective period setting is posed and it is contended that there are features common to YA historical novels that not only set the genre apart from other YA fiction but also contribute something unique to the larger genre The genesis for much classroom debate suggestions for class discussions and writing assignments as well as sample written responses of these debates from the authors classes are included Teachers librarians instructors of young adult literature courses and teen readers will find this an insightful analysis of YA historical fiction
