

IV. Outcome of the Peace Settlements

- New nations with self-determination: Poland, Austria, Hungary, Czechoslovakia.

A.) Mandate system:

- Europe's colonies wanted independence, but instead became mandates- territories ruled by European nations.
- Middle East, Africa, and Asia remained under French and British control.

Search For Peace Settlements:

The Search for Peace Settlements Brookings Institution. International Studies Group, Redvers Opie, 1951 In Search of a Peace Settlement M. Gat, 2012-06-28 This is the first examination of the Israeli and Egyptian peace process between 1967-1973 which highlights the rise and fall of Soviet influence after the Six Day War and explores how the increasing importance of America's political leadership affected the region International Law and Peace Settlements Marc Weller, Mark Retter, Andrea Varga, 2021-02-04 International Law and Peace Settlements provides a systematic and comprehensive assessment of the relationship between international law and peace settlement practice across core settlement issues e.g. transitional justice, human rights, refugees, self-determination, power sharing and wealth sharing. The contributions address key cross-cutting questions on the legal status of peace agreements, the potential for developing international law and the role of key actors such as non-state armed groups, third state witnesses and guarantors and the UN Security Council in the legalisation and internationalisation of settlement commitments. In recent years significant scholarly work has examined facets of the relationship between international law and peace settlements through concepts such as jus post bellum and lex pacificatoria. International Law and Peace Settlements drives forward the debate on the legalisation and internationalisation of peace agreements with diverse contributions from leading academics and practitioners in international law and conflict resolution The Search for Peace Settlements Redvers Opie, 1931 The Search for Negotiated Peace David S. Patterson, 2012-09-10 The First World War was an epic event of huge proportions that lasted over four years and involved the armies of more than twenty nations resulting in 30 million casualties including more than 8 million killed. Set against the backdrop of this massive carnage, The Search for Negotiated Peace is the gripping story of the events that moved high profile American and European citizens, particularly women, into the international peace movement. This small transatlantic network put forth proposals for changing the international system of negotiation. They supported non-annexationist war aims and attempted to discredit nations' secret diplomacy, militarism and narrowly nationalistic practices. Instead, they wanted to develop a new diplomacy. David Patterson skillfully develops the interactions of many of the notable leaders of the movement, including Jane Addams, Aletta Jacobs and Rosika Schwimmer, into an absorbing narrative that brings together the various strands of women's history, international diplomatic history and peace history for the first time. The Search for Negotiated Peace is an essential read for anyone interested in the social history of World War I and the foundations of citizen activism today Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace Laura Zittrain Eisenberg, Neil Caplan, 2025-04-22 Fifteen years since the publication of its second edition, this foundational text in the history of Arab-Israeli peacemaking endeavors has been updated to include developments from the past twenty-five years. Thoroughly revised and expanded, the third edition of Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace examines the history of recurrent efforts to resolve the Arab-Israeli conflict since the 1970s and identifies a pattern of negative negotiating behaviors that repeatedly derail peacemaking efforts. In addition to updating all of the book's existing chapters with post 2010 sources and developments authors Eisenberg and Caplan have added new chapters on the Arab Peace Initiative the Annapolis Conference the Kerry mission and the Abraham Accords as well as a conclusion that questions several core notions regarding the nature of the conflict the possibility of its resolution Arab Israeli normalization and the viability of the two state solution An epilogue extends the book's framework into present day crises in the region specifically Hamas's 7 October 2023 attack on Israel and Israel's war against Hamas in Gaza A companion website comprises nine appendices among them 145 primary source documents expanded notes links to websites for maps data and analysis peace activities and additional visual and documentary sources Also online is a robust instructor's guide offering supplementary resources and ideas for assignments research and classroom exercises all of which draw upon and complement the themes running throughout the text By measuring contemporary diplomatic episodes against the historical pattern of counterproductive negotiating habits Negotiating Arab Israeli Peace makes possible a coherent comparison of some eighty years of Arab Israeli negotiations and offers readers a framework with which to assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of peace making attempts past present and future

The Search for Peace in the Middle East Samuel Merlin, 1969 International Studies Group Brookings Institution, 1951 War and Peace in the Caucasus Vicken Cheterian, 2011-03-12 After the collapse of the Soviet Union the Caucasus was wracked by ethnic and separatist violence as the peoples of the region struggled for self determination Vicken Cheterian who spent many years as a reporter and analyst covering the region's conflicts asks why nationalism emerged as a dominant political current and why of the many nationalist movements that emerged some led to violence while others did not He explains also why minority rebellions were victorious against larger armies in mountainous Karabakh Abkhazia and in the first war of Chechnya and discusses the ongoing instability and armed resistance in the North Caucasus He concludes his book by examining chapters the great power competition between Russia the US and the EU over the oil and gas resources of the Caspian region

Sri Lanka, Search for Peace M. Idsa Throne and Mandarins: China's Search for a Policy During the Sino-French Controversy, 1880-1885 Lloyd E. Eastman, 1967 This study of the policy making process in China during the Sino French controversy of 1880 1885 illuminates China's response to the West in the 19th century The threat of French efforts to extend control into northern Vietnam was the catalyst in Chinese policy decisions Eastman traces the process by which the problem was eventually resolved The First World War Peace Settlements, 1919-1925 Erik Goldstein, 2013-10-11 The First World War changed the face of Europe two empires the Austro Hungarian Empire and the Ottoman Empire collapsed in its wake and as a result many of the boundaries of Europe were redrawn and new states were created The origins of many of the international crises in the late twentieth century can be traced back to decisions taken in these critical years Yugoslavia being the most obvious example An understanding of the peace settlements is thus crucial for any student studying international history international relations which is what this book offers This book provides an accessible and concise introduction to this most important period of history The Department of State Bulletin, 2010 The Laws of the Straits Settlements 1835-1900 Straits Settlements, 1920 Justice of the Peace and Local Government Review, 1852 Official Documents Looking Toward Peace American Association for International Conciliation, 1920 Christian - Muslim Relations in Sudan Gabriel Gai Riam, 2022-05-23 This book examines relationship between Sudanese Churches either as denominations or as ecumenical bodies and the successive central government in Khartoum Sudan In this context and for the purpose of this book church state relations therefore focus on constitutional political and social aspect of Christian Muslims relations The author used the term theologically with reference to the challenges that face Sudanese religious communities to find theological resources in their respective traditions The book advances four main arguments firstly both Christianity and Islam in Sudan have allowed themselves to become polarized by political ethnic and cultural factors secondly the policy of successive governments and military regimes since independence has been to deploy Arabisation and Islamization as means of national unity thirdly both Christianity and Islam have ethical and theological resources that can contribute to national reconciliation and lastly that the African traditionalist have theological resources that can contribute to consolidate peace building mechanisms among the Sudanese communities The objective of the book is to contribute to an understanding of the complexity of the factors that have strained religious communities to enable them draw lessons that can contribute to the challenge of reconciliation and peace building within Sudan as a nation The book is recommended as essential reading for everyone seeking to understand these complexities of the historical and theological resources of the Sudanese religious communities involved around the subject The Islamic World Since the Peace Settlement Arnold Toynbee, 1927 Peace Versus Justice I. William Zartman, Victor Kremenyuk, 2005-04-28 This book examines the costs and benefits of ending the fighting in a range of conflicts and probes the reasons why negotiators provide or fail to provide resolutions that go beyond just stopping the shooting A wide range of case studies is marshaled to explore relevant peacemaking situations from the end of the Thirty Years War and the Napoleonic Wars to more recent settlements of the late 20th and early 21st centuries including large scale conflicts like the end of WWII and smaller scale sometimes internal conflicts like those in Cyprus Armenia and Azerbaijan and Mozambique Cases on Bosnia and the Middle East add extra interest Justice of the Peace, 1852
