Search For Community In A Withering Tradition:

Walking the Tightrope of Faith, 2023-12-28 This book expands upon the dialogue between the atheist philosopher Kai Nielsen and the Christian philosopher Hendrik Hart in the book Search for Community in A Withering Tradition Collected here for the first time are the responses of several prominent Canadian philosophers to Nielsen's outspoken work in the philosophy of religion including their responses to Hart's criticisms of Nielsen New replies by Hart and Nielsen to these added voices are also included This volume is of interest for students in the philosophy of religion who wish to examine the encounter between religious faith and secular humanism at the close of the twentieth century an increasingly postmodern time in which the appeal to an a historical standard of rationality is no longer sought or even thought possible This book tackles tough topics like the appropriate role of reason in the intellectual criticism and defense of faith the limits of the rational justification of human knowledge the role of pre reflective commitments in human intellectual life the nature of truth and the possibility for peace in a world consisting of a plural and often violent collection of cultural and religious groups

Herman Dooyeweerd Jonathan Chaplin, 2016-02-15 The twentieth century Dutch philosopher Herman Dooyeweerd 1894 1977 left behind an impressive canon of philosophical works and has continued to influence a scholarly community in Europe and North America which has extended critiqued and applied his thought in many academic fields Jonathan Chaplin introduces Dooyeweerd for the first time to many English readers by critically expounding Dooyeweerd's social and political thought and by exhibiting its pertinence to contemporary civil society debates Chaplin begins by contextualizing Dooyeweerd's thought first in relation to present day debates and then in relation to the work of the Dutch philosopher Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 Chaplin outlines the distinctive theory of historical and cultural development that serves as an essential backdrop to Dooyeweerd's substantive social philosophy examines Dooyeweerd's notion of societal structural principles and sets forth his complex classification of particular types of social structure and their various interrelationships Chaplin provides a detailed examination of Dooyeweerd's theory of the state its definitive nature and its proper role vis vis other elements of society Dooyeweerd's contributions Chaplin concludes assist us in mapping the ways in which state and civil society should be related to achieve justice and the public good

Shook, 2016-02-11 For scholars working on almost any aspect of American thought The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America presents an indispensable reference work Selecting over 700 figures from the Dictionary of Early American Philosophers and the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers this condensed edition includes key contributors to philosophical thought From 1600 to the present day entries cover psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology and political science before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy Clear and accessible each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading Featuring a new preface by the editor and a comprehensive introduction The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America includes 30 new entries on twenty first century thinkers including Martha Nussbaum and Patricia Churchland With in depth overviews of Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Noah Porter Frederick Rauch Benjamin Franklin Thomas Paine and Thomas Jefferson this is an invaluable one stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history

Starting With Foucault C. G. Prado, 2018-03-05 Michel Foucault had a great influence upon a wide range of disciplines and his work has been widely interpreted and is frequently referred to but it is often difficult for beginners to find their way into the complexities of his thought This is especially true for readers whose background is Anglo American or analytic philosophy C

G Prado argues in this updated introduction that the time is overdue for Anglo American philosophers to avail themselves of what Foucault offers In this clear and greatly revised second edition Prado focuses on Foucault s middle or genealogical work particularly Discipline and Punish and Volume One of The History of Sexuality in which Foucault most clearly comes to grips with the historicization of truth and knowledge and the formation of subjectivity Understanding Foucault s thought on these difficult subjects requires working through much complexity and ambiguity and Prado s direct and accessible introduction is the ideal place to start

Shattering Silos Lambert Zuidervart,2022-08-15 Questions first raised by Hannah Arendt in the 1960s take on new urgency in the post truth era as political leaders blithely reject facts in the public domain Is truth politically impotent Are politics inherently false Is the search for truth still relevant Shattering Silos a companion volume to Religion Truth and Social Transformation and Art Education and Cultural Renewal provides a path breaking response As in his two previous books Lambert Zuidervart challenges the boundaries philosophers set up between epistemology ethics and political philosophy Knowledge he argues takes different forms in various social domains and all are subject to political struggle A critique of contemporary society must draw on many social domains of knowledge including the arts and religion and should recast politics as a striving for truth in the broadest sense Proposing a new conception of truth one that emphasizes the unity of knowledge and truth as well as their diversity among different social domains Zuidervart asks what such holism and pluralism suggest about how we understand politics and society This book proposes a new understanding of large scale social change challenging how most people think about knowledge and truth Interweaving epistemology social criticism and political thought Shattering Silos aims to help redirect an allegedly post truth society

Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook,2005-01-01 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected. It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology, pedagogy, sociology, anthropology, education, theology, political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century. Each entry contains a short biography of the writer, an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas, a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading. While all the major post Civil War philosophers are represented, the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers. In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers. This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought.

Educating Christian Teachers for Responsive Discipleship Peter P. DeBoer, 1993. Five members of the Calvin College Center for Christian Scholarship 1991-1992 team present some creative and constructive proposals for changes that could occur in the teacher education programs of hundreds of church related colleges. Theoretically committed to a biblical vision of responsive discipleship, the authors sketch out 1. a curricular theory that encourages many sided encounters with created reality which stimulate varieties of student responses that should arise ultimately from a commitment of the heart, 2. a collaborative model of teacher education that urges congruent values to be held by the local school, school district and the teacher education college, and 3. a curriculum that arises in part out of the laboratory of the classroom through the interaction of teacher and student in a school organized to develop collegiality among teachers and students where through the use of evaluative portfolios student teachers learn to be reflective practitioners of the art and craft of teaching. Co published with the Institute for Christian Studies.

In the Phrygian Mode Robert Sweetman, 2007. This volume has emerged from a small scholarly conference on the relationship between Christianity and Greco Roman civilization, above all that civilization's characteristic patterns of philosophical thought. The field of investigation is the neo Calvinist current within Dutch protestantism and the elaboration in the 1920s and 1930s of Calvinistic philosophy as one of its most distinctive effects. This parish tale has more to recommend it than might appear at first blush. For there is a good argument to be made why such a thoroughly local study can benefit a much broader segment of contemporary Protestantism.

Towards an Ethics of Community James Olthuis, 2006-01-01. How do we deal with difference personally, interpersonally, nationally? Can we weave a cohesive social fabric in a religiously plural society without suppressing differences? This collection of significant essays suggests that to truly honour differences in matters of faith and religion we must publicly exercise and celebrate them. The secular, sacred, public, private divisions long considered sacred in the West need to be dismantled if Canada or any nation state is to develop a genuine mosaic that embraces fundamental differences instead of a melting pot that marginalizes. An ethics of difference starts with a recognition of difference not as deviance or deficit that threatens but as otherness to connect with, cherish and celebrate. The book begins with the suggestion that our inability to come to terms with social plurality is not fundamentally the fault of religious differences and that a public private split inadequately deals with matters of basic difference It then explores how encouraging people to live out their respective faiths may open new possibilities for respectful honourable and just negotiations of contemporary dilemmas arising out of the multicultural fabric of Canadian life Towards an Ethics of Community introduces readers to some of the most challenging and divisive dilemmas we face in this increasingly pluralistic postmodern world issues such as family and domestic violence Aboriginal rights homosexuality and public policy and female genital mutilation This is a book truly global in scope and significance In Search of a Withering Community ,2002

Contributed articles Religion, Truth, and Social Transformation Lambert Zuidervart,2016-04-01 Reformational philosophy rests on the ideas of nineteenth century educator church leader and politician Abraham Kuyper and it emerged in the early twentieth century among Reformed Protestant thinkers in the Netherlands Combining comprehensive criticisms of Western philosophy with robust proposals for a just society it calls on members of religious communities to transform harmful cultural practices social institutions and societal structures Well known for his work in aesthetics and critical theory Lambert Zuidervart is a leading figure in contemporary reformational philosophy In Religion Truth and Social Transformation the first of two volumes of original essays from the past thirty years he forges new interpretations of art politics rationality religion science and truth In dialogue with modern and contemporary philosophers among them Immanuel Kant G F H Hegel Martin Heidegger Theodor Adorno J rgen Habermas and reformational thinkers such as Herman Dooyeweerd Dirk Vollenhoven and Hendrik Hart Zuidervart explains and expands on reformational philosophy s central themes This interdisciplinary collection offers a normative critique of societal evil a holistic and pluralist conception of truth and a call for both religion and science to serve the common good Illustrating the connections between philosophy religion and culture and daring to think outside the box Religion Truth and Social Transformation gives a voice to hope in a climate of despair Naturalism and Religion Kai Nielsen,2011-04-29 This elucidation and defense of naturalism argues that an uncompromising secular orientation is the best framework for the search for meaning and interprets religion in purely naturalistic terms Part One seeks to demonstrate that religious symbols arise from facts about human beings and the societies in which they live specifically our needs fears and aspirations Part Two examines arguments for and against naturalism including the defenses of naturalism by Sidney Hook Ernest Nagel Antony Flew and critical reactions to their views The forceful and rigorously analytical case made by Jean Hampton against naturalism is also examined resulting in a clarification of the substantial and sound methodological grounds for naturalism and atheism Part Three considers the strongest intellectual challenge to secularism and naturalism namely that of Ludwig Wittgenstein and some of his followers Norman Malcolm D Z Phillips Hilary Putnam Rush Rhees and Peter Winch Nielsen concludes that none of these critiques diminish the cogency and viability of naturalism as the most reasonable basis for viewing our world today Abraham

Critical Faith Ronald A. Kuipers, 2021-11-15 Can religious faith be critical and remain recognizable as faith Or is the idea of a critical faith a contradiction in terms In this book an emerging new voice in the philosophy of religion argues in favor of critical faith Playing on a double meaning of the word critical the title of the book suggests that faith is not only a critical crucial component of human life but also a component that can and should develop in a critical intellectually vigilant way Taking John Locke's reflections on the relationship between faith and reason as his point of departure the author weaves his discussion around a wide array of intellectual figures and conversations In addition to addressing important elements in the work of such historical figures as Aquinas and Locke Kuipers also incorporates themes from recent discussions in the philosophy of science feminist epistemology philosophy of language liberal theology and critical theory The book ends with a discussion of elements in Jurgen Habermas's theory of communicative action and offers a critical assessment of the merit of Habermas's notion of critical rationality as a normative yardstick for the achievement of a critical faith
