Seasons of Grief and Grace Susan Ford Wiltshire, 1994-10 Susan Ford Wiltshire and John Ford grew up in the Texas Panhandle taking the long view of things where there was lots to think about because there was nothing to see except the horizon twenty five miles away The four Ford children were taught the value of learning and hard work by their father a cowboy with a serious love of poetry and their mother a Texas woman whose rural roots did not prevent her from mastering Latin or reading all of Shakespeare Susan became a noted classics scholar while John's work in Republican politics led to his appointment as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Agriculture in the Reagan Administration from which he resigned in frustration to become active in the American Farm Movement Just two weeks before his death he was given the Heroes of American Agriculture Award When disaster struck and John was diagnosed with AIDS Susan began writing a work reminiscent of May Sarton's journals Madeleine L. Engle's Two Part Invention and Jessamyn West's The Woman Said Yes Drawing on the force of family bonds and her humanistic training in classical studies for comfort and guidance she shows us two siblings sharing an agonizing but special journey finding opportunities rather than resignation commitment rather than withdrawal and strength instead of defeat This is in short a good and inspiring story one that will help point the way for the millions of others those who are HIV positive as well as their friends and families who bear the emotional wounds this disease is inflicting on ever increasing numbers of us

The Richest Season Maryann McFadden, 2008-06-10

Sometimes you have to leave your life to find yourself again. After more than a dozen moves in twenty-five years of marriage, Joanna Harrison is lonely and tired of being a corporate wife. Her children are grown and gone; her husband is more married to his job than to her, and now they're about to pack up once more. Panicked at the thought of having to start all over again, Joanna commits the first irresponsible act of her life. She runs away to Pawleys Island, South Carolina, a place she's been to just once. She finds a job as a live-in companion to Grace Finelli, a widow who has come to the island to fulfill a girlhood dream. Together, the two women embark on the most difficult journey of their lives. Joanna, struggling for independence, roots, and a future of her own, as her family tugs at her from afar, and Grace, choosing to live the remainder of her life for herself alone, knowing she may never see her children again. Entwined is Paul Harrison's story as he loses his wife, his job, and everything that defines him as a man. He takes off on his own journey out west, searching for the answers to all that has gone wrong in his life. One thing remains constant: He wants his wife back. Joanna, however, is moving farther away from her old life as she joins a group dedicated to rescuing endangered loggerhead turtles, led by a charismatic fisherman unlike anyone she's ever met.

The Richest Season is a stunning debut about three very different people, each changing their lives when such transformations are usually long over. It will resonate with any woman who's ever fantasized about leaving home to find herself.
