Ireland's Great Famine in Irish-American History Mary Kelly, 2013-11-18 Ireland's Great Famine in Irish American History Enshrining a Fateful Memory offers a new concise interpretation of the history of the Irish in America Author and distinguished professor Mary Kelly's book is the first synthesized volume to track Ireland's Great Famine within America's immigrant history and to consider the impact of the Famine on Irish ethnic identity between the mid 1800s and the end of the twentieth century Moving beyond traditional emphases on Irish American cornerstones such as church party and education the book maps the Famine's legacy over a century and a half of settlement and assimilation This is the first attempt to contextualize a painful memory that has endured fitfully and unquestionably throughout Irish American historical experience Deepening Literacy Learning Mary Ann Reilly, Jane M. Gangi, Rob Cohen, 2010-09-01 The History of Ellis Island and Immigration In America, 2018-01-19

INTRODUCTION From 1892 to 1924 Ellis Island was America's largest and most active immigration station where over 12 million immigrants were processed On average the inspection process took approximately 3 7 hours For the vast majority of immigrants Ellis Island truly was an Island of Hope the first stop on their way to new opportunities and experiences in America For the rest it became the Island of Tears a place where families were separated and individuals were denied entry into this country Famous Ellis Island Immigrants Among the 12 million immigrants who passed through Ellis Island a handful achieved lasting fame and sometimes infamy after their arrival in America You may be surprised who you meet here On a typical day at the Ellis Island Immigration Station immigrants came face to face with inspectors interpreters nurses doctors social workers and many others As a large federal facility employing approximately five hundred employees at a time Ellis Island was a well organized workforce The complex work of processing thousands of immigrants a year required a full complement of staff Some names are known others remain anonymous but all of them contributed to the primary function of the Immigration Station on Ellis Island to make sure that newcomers to the United States were legally and medically fit to enter the country

Many Peoples, One Land Alethea K. Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children s literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land Contemporary Irish Culture and Politics Seamus Deane, Kevin Whelan, 2004 This book is a special issue of Modern Language Quarterly Reading Power Adrienne Gear, 2013 Encountering Children's Literature Jane M. Gangi, 2004 In this text Jane M Gangi gives us a new perspective on how integrating the fine arts and literature fosters the active participation and in depth understanding that is as important for children as it is for teachers The heart of the book is a comprehensive treatment of children s literature with a strong emphasis on multicultural and international literature

Jaquette Famine Pots LeAnne Howe, Padraig Kirwan, 2020-10-01 The remarkable story of the money sent by the Choctaw to the Irish in 1847 is one that is often told and remembered by people in both nations This gift was sent to the Irish from the Choctaw at the height of the potato famine in Ireland just sixteen years after the Choctaw began their march on the Trail of Tears toward the areas west of the Mississippi River Famine Pots honors that extraordinary gift and provides further context about and consideration of this powerful symbol of cross cultural synergy through a collection of essays and poems that speak volumes of the empathy and connectivity between the two communities As well as signaling patterns of movement and exchange this study of the gift exchange invites reflection on processes of cultural formation within Choctaw and Irish society alike and sheds light on longtime concerns surrounding spiritual and social identities This volume aims to facilitate a fuller understanding of the historical complexities that surrounded migration and movement in the colonial world which in turn will help lead to a more constructive consideration of the ways in which Irish and Native American Studies might be drawn together today Ireland and the Americas James Patrick Byrne, Philip Coleman, Jason Francis King, 2008 This work is a unique multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the cultural political economic musical and literary impact that Ireland and the nations of the Americas have had on one another since the time of Brendan the Navigator Nearly 200 000 Irish immigrants and Irish Americans fought in the American Civil War Today the American Ireland Fund a nonpolitical and nonsectarian fund has raised more than 200 million dollars for over 1 000 projects in Ireland On a proportional basis no other ethnic group has proven more inclined to emigrate or appears more widely scattered across the American continents than the Irish Ireland and the Americas Culture Politics and History aims to broaden the traditional notion of Irish American beyond Boston New York and Chicago In addition to full coverage of Irish culture in those settings it reveals the pervasive Irish influence in everything from the settling of the American West to the spread of Christianity throughout the hemisphere to Irish involvement in revolutionary movements from the American colonies to Mexico to South America In addition the encyclopedia shows the profound impact of Irish Americans on their homeland in everything from art and literature informed by the emigrant experience to efforts by Irish Americans to influence Irish politics Ranging from colonial times to the present and informed by the surge of academic interest in the past 30 years Ireland and the Americas is the definitive resource on the

profound ties that bind the cultures of Ireland the United States Canada and Latin America SULTAN'S COMPASSION
Ahmet Sait Kutgul, Few years ago while the President of Ireland was visiting Turkey she brought a gift to the Turkish President as a remembrance of the Ottoman aids sent by Ottoman s by ships Then I decided to study and research this topic However the archival sources showed me that the documents about Ireland were not limited with the Ottoman aid There are great number of archival documents available on Ireland This work includes the following subtitles A Brief Look to the History of Ireland a Political Survey of the Ottoman Empire In the Nineteenth Century the Triangle Ireland England and the Ottoman Empire Irish Question In the Ottoman Archives The Long March Marie-Louise Fitzpatrick,1998 In 1847 an impoverished group of Choctaw Indians donated 170 for famine relief in Ireland This book draws together the story of the Choctaw Indians and their Long March and the lives of Irish people suffering in the Great Hunger The story is told through the eyes of 14 year old Choona Irish Children's Literature and Culture Keith O'Sullivan,Valerie Coghlan,2011-03-17 Irish Children s Literature and Culture looks critically at Irish writing for children from the 1980s to the present examining the work of many writers and illustrators and engaging with major genres forms and issues including the gothic the speculative picturebooks ethnicity and globalization It contextualizes modern Irish children s literature in relation to Irish mythology and earlier writings as well as in relation to Irish writing for adults thereby demonstrating the complexity of this fascinating area What constitutes a national literature is rarely straightforward and it is especially complex when discussing writing for young people in an Irish context Until recently there was only a slight body of work that could be classified as Irish children s literature in comparison with Ireland s contribution to adult literature in the twentieth century The contributors to the volume examine a range of texts in relation to contemporary literary and cultural theory and children s literature internationally raising provocative questions about the future of the topic Irish Children s Literature and Culture is essential reading for those interested in Irish literature culture sociology childhood and children s literature Valerie Coghlan Church of Ireland College of Education Dublin is a librarian and lecturer She is a former co editor of Bookbird An International Journal of Children s Literature She has published widely on Irish children s literature and co edited several books on the topic She is a former board member of the IRSCCL and a founder member of the Irish Society for the Study of Children s Literature Children s Books Ireland and IBBY Ireland Keith O Sullivan lectures in English at the Church of Ireland College of Education Dublin He is a founder member of the Irish Society for the Study of Children s Literature a former member of the board of directors of Children s Books Ireland and past chair of the Children s Books Ireland Bisto Book of the Year Awards He has published on the works of Philip Pullman and Emily Bront
