Wiley, Barbara Barnett, 2009-05-27 As a former nurse and someone who now teaches Women's Studies I have long been interested in the politics of health care Today most Americans would agree that our health care system is broken We pay more for health care than any nation in the world yet in 2007 the World Health Organization ranked us as 37th in quality of health care Forty six million Americans are now without health insurance What is happening here And just where are all these dollars going In Women Wellness and the Media thirteen scholars from a wide range of disciplines examine the relationship between media stereotypes and women's health They look at several images of women the perfect mom the straight bikini clad sixteen year old blond who has been air brushed to perfection the wild black Jezebel who struts her stuff and the shriveled up menopausal crone The writers point out that these images are making millions of dollars for all sorts of businesses ranging from the pharmaceutical industry to women s magazines Scholars have long noted that stereotypes disempower women in Women Wellness and the Media we see how these stereotypes actually harm women s health while turning millions in corporate profits Master The Nursing School and Allied Health Entrance Exams Marion F.

Male and Female Made in God's Image Frances O'Dair,2019-04-04 In this era of distorted ideas about our inherent roles identities and purposes as men and women it has never been as important that we seek reconciliation in marriage and families so there can be a more rational approach to the real problems the whole world suffers We must disseminate God s truth and extinguish the lies and myths that Satan has embedded into the hearts and minds of many people Building on these ideas in Male and Female Made in God s Image author Frances O Dair offers her perspective on dating marriage and family which she believes reflects the experiences of most married couples before the sexual revolution of the 1960s She encourages men and women to reflect on the wise or self serving natures of their past dating and mating choices If we can stop the reckless self gratifying use of human sexuality with our children our loving direction and understanding of God s truth can set them free from the temptations that have been passed down to recent generations We must be ready to admit that sexual freedom is a myth and isn't intended for the well being of men women children and the unborn This faith inspired treatise explores the true source of happiness meaning and fulfilment that God has planned for everyone within the sacrament of marriage and the family circle

People-Centered Social Innovation Swati Banerjee, Stephen Carney, Lars Hulgard, 2019-07-10 Social Innovation is emerging as an alternate interdisciplinary development pathway of knowledge and practice that aims to understand and address contemporary complexities and multi dimensional social realities BEPA 2011 defines social innovation as innovations that are social in both their ends and means However though Social Innovation is a widely used term its conceptual understanding and the specific relation to social change remains under explored People Centered Social Innovation Global perspectives on an Emerging Paradigm attempts to revisit and extend the existing understanding of Social Innovation in practice by focusing upon the lived realities of marginalized groups and communities The emerging field of people centered development is placed in dialogue with theory and concepts from the more established field of social innovation to create a new approach one that adopts a global perspective engaging with very different experiences of marginality across the global north and south Theoretically People Centered Social Innovation Global Perspectives on an Emerging Paradigm draws upon northern understandings of change and improvement as well as southern theory concerns for epistemological diversity and meaning making The result is an experiment aimed at reimagining research and practice that seriously needs to center the actor in processes of social transformation

Women, Global Protest Movements, and Political Agency Sarah Colvin, Katharina Karcher, 2018-07-11 This volume analyses and historicises the memory of 1968 understood as a marker of an emerging will for social change around the turn of that decade rather than as a particular calendar year focusing on cultural memory of the powerful signifier 68 and women's experience of revolutionary agency After an opening interrogation of the historical and contemporary significance of 1968 why does it still matter how and why is it remembered in the contexts of gender and geopolitics and what implications does it have for broader feminist understandings of women and revolutionary agency the contributors explore women's historical involvement in 1968 in different parts of the world and the different ways in which women's experience as victims and perpetrators of violence are remembered and understood This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of protest and violence in the fields of history politics and international relations sociology cultural studies and women's studies Women's Writing In Latin America Sara

Education and the Female Superhero Andrew L. Grunzke,2019-12-17 Considering a variety of female superhero narratives including World War II era Wonder Woman comics the 1970s television programs The Secrets of Isis and The Bionic Woman and the more recent Buffy the Vampire Slayer Education and the Female Superhero Slayers Cyborgs Sorority Sisters and Schoolteachers argues that they share a vision of education as the path to female empowerment In his analysis Andrew L Grunzke examines female superheroes who are literally teachers or students exploring examples of female superheroes whose alter egos work as schoolteachers or attend school during the workday and fight evildoers when they are outside the classroom Taking a broader view of education Grunzke argues that the superheroine in popular media often sees and articulates her own role as being an educator In these narratives female superheroes often take it upon themselves to teach self defense tactics prevent victimization and encourage people especially female victims to pursue formal education Moreover Grunzke shows how superheroines tend to see their relationship with their adversaries as rehabilitative and educative trying to set them on the correct path rather than merely subdue or dominate them Women of Color and the Reproductive Rights Movement Jennifer Nelson, 2003-10 Uncovers the truth behind the ideas struggles and eventually success of Black and Puerto Rican Nationalists regarding key feminist issues of the 1960s 1970s and 1980s While most people believe that the movement to secure voluntary reproductive control for women centered solely on abortion rights for many women abortion was not the only or even primary focus Jennifer Nelson tells the story of the feminist struggle for legal abortion and reproductive rights in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s through the particular contributions of women of color She explores the relationship between second wave feminists who were concerned with a woman's right to choose Black and Puerto Rican Nationalists who were concerned that Black and Puerto Rican women have as many children as possible for the revolution and women of color themselves who negotiated between them Contrary to popular belief Nelson shows that women of color were able to successfully remake the mainstream women's liberation and abortion rights movements by appropriating select aspects of Black Nationalist politics including addressing sterilization abuse access to affordable childcare and healthcare and ways to raise children out of poverty for feminist discourse

Nigerian Film Culture and the Idea of the Nation Tsaaier, James Tar, Ugochukwu, Françoise, 2017-09-17 Collectively the essays brought together in this book represent a discursive confluence on Nollywood as a local film culture with a global character aspiration and reach The governing concern of the book is that texts including film texts are animated by a particular sociology and anthropology which gives them concrete existence and meaning The book argues that Nollywood the Nigerian video film text is deeply rooted in the sub soil of its social and cultural milieu Nollywood is therefore engaged in the relentless negotiation and re negotiation of the everyday lives of the people against the backdrop of their cultural traditions social contradictions and the politics of their ethnic national identity longing and belonging The essays weave an intricate and delicate argument about the critical role of Nollywood to the idea of nationhood and the logic of its narration with implications for language politics and culture in Africa The book is a valuable addition to the critical discourse on the important place of film and cinema studies in national engineering processes
