

NATURE

Maybe humans are the failed A.I. of Nature.
Maybe Nature made something it thought would tend the garden.
Maybe Nature made something sexy, to watch
clean the pools with long butterfly nets
and a sunburn—the retainers of Nature.
Now, mirror of mercury and Hell, that hot-red bomb
in your mouth, that sweet battleground on your tongue—
it is the catastrophe of your mission.
The wealthy, with their outstanding educations
and custom shoes, and empty apartments
floating above like Glinda; the ballad of media,
the intellectuals, almost shepherding
evolution, falling asleep in their haunted paintings
and unattainable poetry—all the dimensions
of each person's being, punk, restless in a loop.

Sometimes I want to be taken into nothingness.
I want to be burned with the gypsy moths and bindweed.
Run to exhaustion with the wildebeest.
I don't want this phone, I want to kill God.
Maybe humans are the complex systems
of a natural order that must build and destroy itself in perpetuity.
Blue chicory on the road saying the end of summer
in a sandstorm of our passing—they gyrate and smile—
what of our little duties to the architect?
Our deep-red blood, our lush tech—
Archangels, limping in paradise.

Long Poems:

Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine A Long Essay on the Long Poem Rachel Blau DuPlessis, 2023-03-21 For decades Rachel Blau DuPlessis has shown readers how genres forms and the literal acts of writing and reception can be understood as sites of struggle In her own words writing is a praxis in which the author disappears into a process into a community into discontinuities and into a desire for discovery It is cause for celebration then that we have another work of warm incisive exploratory writing from DuPlessis in A Long Essay on the Long Poem The Great War, The Waste Land and the Modernist Long Poem Oliver Tearle, 2019-03-07 The Great War The Waste Land and the Modernist Long Poem explores how cultural responses to the trauma of the First World War found expression in the form of the modernist long poem Beginning with T S Eliot's The Waste Land Oliver Tearle reads that most famous example of the genre in comparison with lesser known long poems such as Hope Mirrlees's Paris A Poem Richard Aldington's A Fool in the Forest and Nancy Cunard's Parallax As well as presenting a new history of this neglected genre the book examines the ways in which the modernist long poem represented the seminal literary form for grappling with the crises of European modernity in the wake of World War I Reading the Modernist Long Poem Brendan C. Gillott, 2020-12-10 How do readers approach the enigmatic and unnavigable modernist long poem Taking as the form's exemplars the highly influential but critically contentious poetries of John Cage and Charles Olson this book considers indeterminacy the fundamental feature of the long poem by way of its analogues in musicology mycology cybernetics and philosophy It addresses features of these works that figure broadly in the long poem tradition such as listing typography archives mediation and mereology while articulating how both poets broke with the longform poetic traditions of the early 1900s Brendan C Gillott argues for Cage's and Olson's centrality to these traditions in developing critiquing and innovating on the longform poetics of the past their work revolutionized the longform poetry of the 20th and 21st centuries Cawdor, a Long Poem Robinson Jeffers, 1970 Here for a new generation of readers and students are two major poetic works of Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Complexities of Motion Steven P. Schneider, 1999 This volume gathers new essays on A R Ammons s long poems by many of the most influential critics of contemporary American poetry including Helen Vendler Marjorie Perloff and Willard Spiegelman It will serve for years to come as an important critical text on a vast body of work by one of the most prolific and innovative practitioners of the long poem in post World War II American poetry Complexities of Motion then is a collection of new critical articles on the entire range of Ammons s longer poems beginning with Tape for the Turn of the Year 1965 and culminating with Glare 1997 Wordsworth's Poems of Travel 1819-1842 J. Wyatt, 1999-06-03 There is a long held view that Wordsworth s inspiration dried up before the age of forty This book opposes that view by examining the substantial body of poetry written after his fiftieth year The argument is that in order to appreciate this work much of which was inspired by itineraries in Britain and in Europe we have to read the poems as they were first published By adopting the perspective of the contemporary reader Wordsworth s grand design can be appreciated The Sources of Scott's Eight Long Poems Rose Marie Grady, 1934 The Poems of Dylan Thomas Daniel Jones, 2003 The highlight of this complete edition of poems is a CD containing vintage recordings of Thomas reading eight of his works in his famous Welsh singing style Poems William Cullen Bryant, 1893 Long Walks in the Afternoon Margaret Gibson, 1982-11-01 With a quiet eloquence the poems in Long Walks in the Afternoon follow the deep imagination s long tap into the dark inward toward the still and radiant center of the self But Margaret Gibson s poetry is not self serving or isolationist She writes out of the firm conviction that our personal griefs held energies that can move is to reach beyond ourselves and join with others in common struggle Beginning with poems that struggle against illusion egotism and emptiness the collection progresses to poems that challenge violence social violence against women political violence in east Asia and Chilek and in Radiation the violence that still reverberates from the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki We made the scars and the radiant air We made people invisible as numbers We did this In a final section the desire to know and claim the self is transformed in a sequence of elegies into the passion to lose myself in work and in love and in the world to be no one The meditative mood of Gibson s poems becomes a movement against isolation a wrestle with our roots and common bonds and a way of challenging the self to be more openly aligned with creative forces and to speak out against dishonesty injustice chaos and war Poems Arthur Hugh Clough, 1883 Why are You So Long and Sweet? David McFadden, 2010 A companion volume to Why Are You So Sad David W McFadden s book of selected poems shortlisted for the Griffin Poetry Prize this book finally brings together in one place all of McFadden s masterful long poems For some poets the long poem is an occasion to stretch one s lyrical legs try on different stylistic hats or work out ideas too complex for shorter poems For David McFadden the long poem is much more here is McFadden s prodigious imagination in overdrive his language always
