Roland Barthes at the Collège de France Lucy O'Meara, 2012-01-01 Roland Barthes at the Collège de France studies the four lecture courses given by Roland Barthes in Paris between 1977 and 1980 placing Barthes's teaching within institutional intellectual and personal contexts Theoretically wide ranging Lucy O'Meara's account focuses on Barthes's pedagogical style and the insights they provide into his written works including his focus on essayism and fragmentation and the negotiation between singularity and universality Linking Barthes's strategies to broad intellectual influences from Kant and Adorno to Zen and Taoist philosophies O'Meara reassesses Barthes's critical and ethical priorities in the decade before his death highlighting the vitality of his late thought Bulletin Institut national genevois, 1853 Diaries Real and Fictional in Twentieth-Century French Writing Sam Ferguson, 2018-03-16 This volume is the first study of the diary in French writing across the twentieth century as a genre which includes both fictional and non-fictional works From the 1880s it became apparent to writers in France that their diaries a supposedly private form of writing would probably come to be published strongly affecting the way their readers viewed their other published works and their very persona as an author More than any other André Gide embraced the literary potential of the diary the first part of this book follows his experimentation with the diary in the fictional works Les Cahiers d'André Walter 1891 and Paludes 1895 in his diary of the composition of his great novel Le Journal des faux monnayeurs 1926 and in his monumental Journal 1889 1939 1939 The second part follows developments in diary writing after the Second World War inflected by radical changes in attitudes towards the writing subject Raymond Queneau's works published under the pseudonym of Sally Mara 1947 1962 used the diary playfully at a time when the writing subject was condemned by the literary avant-garde Roland Barthes's experiments with the diary 1977 1979 took it to the extremes of its formal possibilities at the point of a return of the writing subject Annie Ernaux's published diaries 1993 2011 demonstrate the role of the diary in the modern field of life writing Throughout the century the diary has repeatedly been used to construct an oeuvre and author but also to call these fundamental literary concepts into question French Readings from Roman History Charles Colbeck, 1886 Зборник радова Византолошког института, 1966 The Cambridge History of the Novel in French Adam Watt, 2021-02-25 This History is the first in a century to trace the development and impact of the novel in French from its beginnings to the present Leading specialists explore how novelists writing in French have responded to the diverse personal economic socio-political cultural artistic and environmental factors that shaped their worlds From the novel's medieval precursors to the impact of the internet the History provides fresh accounts of canonical and lesser-known authors offering a global perspective beyond the national borders of the Hexagon to explore France's colonial past and its legacies Accessible chapters range widely including the French novel in Sub-Saharan Africa data analysis of the novel system in the seventeenth century social critique in women's writing Sade's banned works and more Highlighting continuities and divergence between and within different

Discourses of Mourning in Dante, Petrarch, and Proust Jennifer Rushworth, 2016 This book brings together in a novel and exciting combination three authors who have written movingly about mourning two medieval Italian poets Dante Alighieri and Francesco Petrarca and one early twentieth century French novelist Marcel Proust Each of these authors through their respective narratives of bereavement grapples with the challenge of how to write adequately about the deeply personal and painful experience of grief In Jennifer Rushworth s analysis discourses of mourning emerge as caught between the twin conflicting demands of a comforting readable shared generality and a silent solitary respect for the uniqueness of any and every experience of loss Rushworth explores a variety of major questions in the book including what type of language is appropriate to mourning What effect does mourning have on language Why and how has the Orpheus myth been so influential on discourses of mourning across different time periods and languages Might the form of mourning described in a text and the form of closure achieved by that same text be mutually formative and sustaining In this way discussion of the literary representation of mourning extends to embrace topics such as the medieval sin of acedia the proper name memory literary epiphanies the image of the book and the concept of writing as promise In addition to the three primary authors Rushworth draws extensively on the writings of Sigmund Freud Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Roland Barthes These rich and diverse psychoanalytical and French theoretical traditions provide terminological nuance and frameworks for comparison particularly in relation to the complex term melancholia Foundations of Power and Conflicts of Authority in Late-antique Monasticism Alberto Camplani, Giovanni Filoramo, 2007 The volume offers the acts of a meeting held at the University of Turin on the foundations of power and the conflicts of authority as documented by the monastic sources of East and West in Late Antiquity with special reference to Max Weber's analysis of these notions The issue is here examined from a variety of perspectives the different meanings of power and authority in ancient monastic sources the criteria by which authority is established within the monastic organizations the kind of power and authority exercised towards outsiders the relationship between monks and other authorities especially the Church the monks and their economic activity the strategies for the solution of conflicts The wide range of historical and cultural problems raised by these questions is what the present volume tries to illuminate through individual studies of a number of specific phenomena events and figures from Shenute to John Cassian from Abraham of Kashkar to Maxim the Confessor paying particular attention to monasticism in Egypt Palestine Africa and Persia Frontiers in the Roman World Impact of Empire (Organization). Workshop, 2011-05-10 This volume presents the proceedings of the ninth workshop of the international network Impact of Empire which concentrates on the history of the Roman Empire It focuses on different ways in which Rome created changed and influenced perceptions of frontiers The Military and Colonial Destruction of the Roman Landscape of North Africa, 1830-1900 Michael Greenhalgh, 2014-05-08 The French invaded Algeria in 1830 and found a landscape rich in Roman remains which they proceeded to re use to support the constructions such as fortresses barracks and hospitals needed to fight the natives who continued to object to their presence and to house the various colonisation projects with which they intended to solidify their hold on the country and to make it both modern and profitable Arabs and Berbers had occasionally made use of the ruins but it was still a Roman and Early Christian landscape when the French arrived In the space of two generations this was destroyed just as were many ancient remains in France in part because real architecture was Greek not Roman Colonial Geopolitics and Local Cultures in the Hellenistic and Roman East (3rd century BC - 3rd century AD) Hadrien Bru, Adrian George Dumitru, Nicholas Sekunda, 2021-12-23 What changes in the material culture can we observe when a state is overwhelming a local population with soldiers katoikoi and civil officials or merchants What were the mutual influences between native and colonial cultures This collection addresses these questions and many more focusing on the Hellenistic and Roman East Fonts & Encodings Yannis Haralambous, 2007-09-26 The era of ASCII characters on green screens is long gone Industry leaders such as Apple HP IBM Microsoft and Oracle have adopted the Unicode Worldwide Character Standard This book explains information on fonts and typography that software and web developers need to know to get typography and fonts to work properly The British and Foreign Medico-chirurgical Review, Or, Quarterly Journal of Practical Medicine and Surgery, 1858 The Dead Sea Scrolls Rappaport, Devorah Dimant, 2018-11-26 A fortieth anniversary is an occasion to be marked under any circumstances especially when it concerns a discovery as significant as that of the Dead Sea Scrolls The proper way to mark this occasion was to organize a symposium that would be as comprehensive as possible both in content and in variety of approaches and which would be held in the land of the Scrolls
