Looking At Paris:

A Con Artist in Paris Franklin W. Dixon, 2017-09-05 Brother detectives Frank and Joe follow a crooked trail of artistic deception in the fifteenth book in the thrilling Hardy Boys Adventures series The Hardy Boys are visiting Paris Joe is excited to check out all the street art he's heard about And Frank can't wait to go to all the museums he's researched On their very first day in the city the brothers are woken up early in the morning by fireworks But these are no ordinary fireworks They are a part of elaborate cover for the heist of a priceless artifact What's worse the theft seems to have been orchestrated by Joe's favorite street artist an unidentified outlaw and activist that goes only by the name Le Stylo Everyone seems sure that it's him but the Hardys are suspicious From everything they know about Le Stylo the crime is out of character Sure he makes a habit of provoking the authorities but he's an activist not a thief Could the artist known for his mystique have been framed Frank and Joe are determined to find out A race to find the real thief has Frank and Joe following clues that lead them all over Paris where they hobnob with rich art patrons travel in a car that can only be described as a small Batmobile and explore the extensive Catacombs under the city Deep in the world of artistic deception the boys have to wonder are they in over their heads Paris Street Tales, 2016-08-17 Paris Street Tales is the third volume of a trilogy of translated stories set in Paris The previous two are Paris Tales in which each story is associated with one of the twenty arrondissements and Paris Metro Tales in which the twenty-two stories are related to a trip round the Paris Metro This new volume contains eighteen newly translated stories related to particular streets in Paris and one newly written tale of the city The stories range from the nineteenth century to the present day and include tales by well-known writers such as Colette Maupassant Didier Daeninckx and Simenon and less familiar names such as Francis Carco Aur lie Filipetti and Arnaud Baignot They present a vivid picture of Paris streets in a variety of literary styles and tones Simenon's Maigret is called upon to solve a mystery on the Boulevard Beaumarchais a fl neur learns some French history through second-hand objects retrieved from the Seine a nineteenth-century affair in the Rue de Miromesnil goes badly wrong a body is discovered on the steps of the smallest street in Paris Through these stories we see how the city has changed over the last two centuries and what has survived All the tales in the book are translated apart from the last a new story by David Constantine based on the last days of the poet G rard de Nerval

The Judgement of Paris Martin Harrison, 2007-02 CHILDREN ARE NOT TOYS Robert knows this now but he didn't when his aunt played with him He's an intelligent and successful man now but something is missing and he needs to know what and why As a boy he felt like an outsider It was cold outside lonely and hard to find someone who understood a boy who said When I grow up I want to be a woman But he found someone She was his best friend when she died so it was cold outside again Robert now has more money than he knows what to do with and enough time to look for the answer to his prayers Only she needed a Dragon Slayer so it was time to become a new man whether he liked it or not Time to go Robert You can always wear your shining armour over your tutu In Paris with You Clémentine Beauvais, 2025-06-25 For fans of
