Looking At Pictures In The Tate Gallery:

Looking at Pictures in the Tate Gallery Michael Compton, 1979-01-01 How to Look at Pictures Sir Robert Clermont Witt, 1905 Why We Look at Pictures Carl Hammond Philander Thurston, 1926 The Art of Looking at Pictures Carl Hammond Philander Thurston, 1916 Mark Rothko David Anfam, 1998-09-10 This is the first volume of the catalogue raisonne of the work of Mark Rothko the abstract artist It documents Rothko s entire output of paintings on canvas and panel reproducing all the works in colour An introductory text investigates the essential features of Rothko s art Learning to Look at Modern Art Mary Acton, 2004 This companion text to the author s Learning to Look at Paintings addresses some of the questions most commonly asked about modern art covering key movements of the modern and postmodern periods in a richly illustrated and engaging volume Learning to Look at Paintings Mary Acton, 1997 This accessible guide to the study and appraisal of paintings shows how you can learn to look at and understand an image by analysing how it works what its pictorial elements are and how they relate to each other The Bloomsbury Look Wendy Hitchmough, 2020-10-02 An in depth study of how the famed Bloomsbury Group expressed their liberal philosophies and collective identity in visual form Fascinating and wide ranging Will be enjoyed by both Bloomsbury aficionados and newcomers alike Lucinda Willan V A Magazine The Bloomsbury Group was a loose collective of forward thinking writers artists and intellectuals in London with Virginia Woolf John Maynard Keynes and E M Forster among its esteemed members The group s works and radical beliefs spanning literature economics politics and non normative relationships changed the course of 20th century culture and society Although its members resisted definition their art and dress imparted a coherent distinctive group identity Drawing on unpublished photographs and extensive new research The Bloomsbury Look is the first in depth analysis of how the Bloomsbury Group generated and broadcast its self fashioned aesthetic One chapter is dedicated to photography which was essential to the group s visual narrative from casual snapshots to amateur studio portraits to family albums Others examine the Omega Workshops as a design center and the evidence for its dress collections spreading the Bloomsbury aesthetic to the general public Finally the book considers the group s extensive participation in 20th century modernism as artists models curators critics and collectors Learning to Look Lesley Diana Clement, 2000 In Learning to Look Lesley Clement traces the evolution of Mavis Gallant s visually evocative style through five decades of her short fictional works Gallant explores the boundaries between visible and invisible worlds as the lines shapes and colours suggested by her allusions analogies and structures challenge us as readers The Aesthetics of Image and Cultural Form Yi Chen, 2024-04-24 Offering an alternative mode of visual cultural analysis to the prevalent discursive model this book proposes to situate analysis of Image within formal analyses of culture experience Specifically the discussion draws on theories of affective aesthetics with the view of addressing the sensual form of culture i e cultural form Therefore the volume puts forward a mode of formalist analysis in visual cultural research which takes purchase on the idea of cultural form A continuum of formalist attention between Image

analysis visual media industrial design and probing of cultural forms establishes the theoretical underpinning of the book These concepts are expounded through a case study which looks at formal experimentations and debates arising from 1960s avant garde artistic practices in London The Academy and Literature ,1903 Searching for Gaia Norbert Lynton,Guy Warren,John McDonald,2003 Offers an artist s view of life and art in Sydney during the better part of the 20th century His career began in pre war Sydney continued in war time Bougainville then in post war England and back in Sydney Documents the life and works of a Sydney artist who has witnessed the transition from modernism to post modernism Picture Titles Ruth Bernard Yeazell,2015-09-29 How the practice of titling paintings has shaped their reception throughout modern history A picture s title is often our first guide to understanding the image Yet paintings didn t always have titles and many canvases acquired their names from curators dealers and printmakers not the artists Taking an original historical look at how Western paintings were named Picture Titles shows how the practice developed in response to the conditions of the modern art world and how titles have shaped the reception of artwork from the time of Bruegel and Rembrandt to the present Ruth Bernard Yeazell begins the story with the decline of patronage and the rise of the art market in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries as the increasing circulation of pictures and the democratization of the viewing public generated the need for a shorthand by which to identify works at a far remove from their creation The spread of literacy both encouraged the practice of titling pictures and aroused new anxieties about relations between word and image including fears that reading was taking the place of looking Yeazell demonstrates that most titles composed before the nineteenth century were the work of middlemen and even today many artists rely on others to name their pictures A painter who wants a title to stick Yeazell argues must engage in an act of aggressive authorship She investigates prominent cases such as David s Oath of the Horatii and works by Turner Courbet Whistler Magritte and Jasper Johns Examining Western painting from the Renaissance to the present day Picture Titles sheds new light on the ways that we interpret and appreciate visual art Pleasure and the Arts ,2005-10-27 How do the arts give us pleasure Covering a very wide range of artistic works from Auden to David Lynch Rembrandt to Edward Weston and Richard Strauss to Keith Jarrett Pleasure and the Arts offers us an explanation of our enjoyable emotional engagements with literature music and painting The arts direct us to intimate and particularised relationships with the people represented in the works or with those we imagine produced them When we listen to music look at a purely abstract painting or drink a glass of wine can we enjoy the experience without verbalising our response Do our interpretative assumptions our awareness of technique and our attitudes to fantasy get in the way of our appreciation of art or enhance it Examining these questions and more we discover how curiosity drives us to enjoy narratives ordinary jokes metaphors and modernist epiphanies and how narrative in all the arts can order and provoke intense enjoyment Pleasurable in its own right Pleasure and the Arts presents a sparkling explanation of the enduring interest of artistic expression The Journal of Mental Science ,1917 Data Practices Evelyn Ruppert,Stephan Scheel,2021-11-02 How EU data practices establish and assign people to categories and how this matters in enacting making up Europe as a population and people What is Europe and who are Europeans Data Practices approaches this contemporary political and theoretical question by treating it as a practical problem of counting Only through the myriad data practices that make up methods such as censuses can EU member states know their national populations and this in turn is utilized by the EU to understand the population of Europe But this volume approaches data practices not simply as reflecting populations but as performative in two senses they simultaneously enact that is make up a European population and by so doing intentionally or otherwise also contribute to making up a European people The book develops a conception of data practices to analyze and interpret findings from collaborative ethnographic multisite fieldwork conducted by an interdisciplinary team of social science researchers as part of a five year project Peopling Europe How Data Make a People The book focuses on data practices that involve establishing and assigning people to categories and how this matters in enacting Europe as a population and people Five core chapters explore key categories of people usual residents refugees homeless people migrants and ethnic minorities and how they come into being through specific data practices such as defining estimating recalibrating and inferring Two additional chapters address two key subject positions that data practices produce and require the data subject and the statistician subject

Articulate Images Richard Wendorf, 1983-10-01 Articulate Images was first published in 1983 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Twenty five years ago Jean Hagstrum published a pioneering study The Sister Arts showing how the visual arts influenced the imagination of seventeenth and eighteenth century English poets Hagstrum s book suggested the intimate and sometimes troubled relationship between poetry and painting and more than any other on the subject provided a basis for subsequent development and refinement within this field of comparative studies The nine original essays in Articulate Images address the central issues Hagstrum raised they serve as an introduction to current approaches to the sister arts Fully illustrated Articulate Images will be enjoyed by readers entering the field as well as by seasoned votaries of the sister arts Look At This If You Love Great Art Chloë Ashby, 2021-07-13 Look At This If You Love Great Art is a must read for anyone with a passion for exceptional art Featuring 100 of the best artworks ever produced inside is a collection of insightful summaries on just what it is that makes each one so vital Art writer Chlo Ashby talks you through the pieces that resonate with her revealing the fascinating stories behind them and offering her considered take on why each work should be regarded as a pinnacle of artistic endeavour With entries curated to offer a unique juxtaposition of styles mediums and schools of art expect a contemporary take on classic artworks where titans of art history cross paths with under appreciated examples from outside the traditional canon and where rebellious visionaries blaze trails that still influence today s cutting edge artists Covering all the most important genres of art Abstraction Pop Art Surrealism Renaissance art Impressionism and more this engaging summary only deals with artworks that really matter and the reasons why you have to see them Teaching Art and Design Roy Prentice, 2000-10-01 A thorough grounding in art and design is an essential part of a rounded education yet art and design education is not always given the prominence it deserves Roy Prentice redresses the balance with a carefully structured collection of chapters Each article has a different focus and tackles a contemporary issue in the field looking to exiting new directions for curriculum development Throughout the book demonstrates that the gulf between theory and practice between creative thought and action can be bridged in the committed teaching of the subject Teaching Art and Design will promote the professional development of specialist teachers of the subject It will be an invaluable resource for student teachers teacher tutors and tutors in higher education establishments Roy Prentice is Senior Lecturer and Chair of the Department of Art and Design at the Institute of Education University of London Images of the Art Museum Eva-Maria Troelenberg, Melania Savino, 2017-02-06 In recent years the emerging field of museum studies has seen rapid expansion in the critical study of museums and scholars started to question the institution and its functions To contribute differentiated viewpoints to the currently evolving meta discourse on the museum this volume aims to investigate how the institution of the museum has been visualized and translated into different kinds of images and how these images have affected our perception of these institutions In this interdisciplinary collection scholars from a variety of academic backgrounds including art history heritage museums studies and architectural history explore a broad range of case studies stretching across the globe The volume opens up debate about the epistemological and historiographical significance of a variety of different images and representations of the Art Museum including the transformation or adaptation of the image of the art museum across periods and cultures In this context this volume aims to develop a new theoretical framework while proposing new methodological tools and resources for the analysis of museological representations on a global scale
