Looking For Mr Guevara A Journey Through South American Selva Trilogy:

Looking for Mr. Guevara Barbara Brodman, 2001 In 1997 Barbara Brodman became the first person and only woman to retrace Che Guevara's legendary 1952 journey through South America. Her online diaries of that journey allowed thousands to share her adventures and insights as they happened. This book expands upon those diaries with only two months' experience on a motorcycle. Brodman miraculously makes her way through Argentina over the Andes and to Santiago in mid-winter as an inexperienced rafter. She joins an extreme rafting expedition and bungles her way into breaking records on the treacherous Apurimac River. She abandons a sinking river boat on the Amazon and rows 600 km to Brazil in a dugout canoe. With wit and endurance Brodman strives to capture the essence of Guevara as he was in life, particularly as a young man and as he might have been had he survived the Cold War and evolved into a 21st-century revolutionary. On his journey Guevara discovered his destiny. Brodman does the same.

The Motorcycle Diaries Che Guevara, 1995 The diaries written by Che Guevara during his riotous motorcycle odyssey around South America at the age of twenty-three.

Latin America Diaries Ernesto Che Guevara, 2024-11-12 The sequel to The Motorcycle Diaries; this book is Ernesto Che Guevara's journal documenting the young Argentine's second trip through Latin America, revealing the emergence of a committed revolutionary. These letters, poetry, and journalism document young Ernesto Guevara's second Latin American journey following his graduation from medical school in 1953. Together, these writings reveal how the young Argentine is transformed into a militant revolutionary. After traveling through Bolivia, Peru, Ecuador, and Central America, Ernesto witnesses the 1954 US-inspired coup in Guatemala, which has a profound effect on his political awareness. He flees to Mexico where he encounters Fidel Castro, marking the beginning of a political partnership that profoundly changes the world and Che himself. Includes a foreword by Alberto Granado, Che's companion on his first adventures in Latin America on a vintage Norton motorcycle, and features poems written by young Ernesto inspired by his experiences, along with facsimiles of pages from his diary.
