Looking Back at Main Street Eastern Oregon Mark Highberger, 2005-05-01 The Bright Hours Phyllis Antonsen, 2010-07 From snippets of a nomadic childhood through thrilling alpine adventures two careers and fateful turns in her life to profound love in her later years the author chronicles the highlights of her life THE BRIGHT HOURS is a light hearted book that takes a look at the quirky side of events The Unreal and the Real Ursula K. Le Guin, 2017-11-07 Includes a reading group guide and general questions for discussion Ethel Marie Kelly Nicholson, 2025-07-15 In this book a long time academician recalls his life and the shaping influence of his mother a woman of plain origins who gave him insight by her example into the timeless wisdom of the world s great spiritual traditions This story in part is a memoir of Kelly Nicholson s youth and subsequent adventures Beneath its surface lies the enduring question of how we might decide amid all we see and hear what life means and where we are ultimately headed Its thesis is that we gain insight not merely from analytical scholarship but from our daily flesh and blood encounters with those around us Home Away From Home Jeronima Echeverria, 1999-11-01 In this meticulously researched study of Basque boardinghouses in the United States Jeronima Echeverria offers a compelling history of the institution that most deeply shaped Basque immigrant life and served as the center of Basque communities throughout the West She weaves into her narrative the stories of the boarding house owners and operators and the ways they made their establishments a home away from home for their fellow compatriots as well as the stories of the young Basques who left the security of their beloved homeland to find work in the United States

History of the Pacific Northwest: Oregon and Washington , 1889 The Pacific Reporter , 1909 The Railway Maintenance of Way Employes Journal , 1921 Fodor's Pacific Northwest Fodor's, 2006 Detailed and timely information on accommodations restaurants and local attractions highlight these updated travel guides which feature all new covers a two color interior design symbols to indicate budget options must see ratings multi day itineraries Smart Travel Tips helpful bulleted maps tips on transportation guidelines for shopping excursions and other valuable features Original

Collier's Once a Week , 1924 Collier's , 1924 The Missionary Review of the World , 1924 The Missionary Review , 1924 Wyoming Don Pitcher, 2006-06-02 Each guide contains not only detailed information on the best transportation accommodation restaurant and sightseeing options but also custom maps and fascinating sidebars all the tools travelers need to make their own choices and create a travel strategy that is theirs alone The Best of Two Lives Doris R. Ayyoub, 2016-09-12 The Best of Two Lives is a love story as well as family history It is shaped as a journey beginning with the cultural foundations of Jordan and the United States Weaving threads of family stories Doris introduces us to compelling characters and describes ways of life that might be forgotten if not for projects such as this Ibrahim s early years are detailed as he lived in a mixed Muslim Christian community in Jordan and Doris tells of growing up as a small town conservative Christian in Oregon One of the fundamental messages is that despite superficial differences at the root Arab lives and concerns in the Middle East are relatable just as those of Americans in the United States Doris never shrinks from showing negative attributes that she couldn't be blamed for wanting to hide and that differentiates her book from a purely family history There's something here to help us see our own families more clearly and honestly and to understand them with compassion

Men, Masculinities and Disaster Elaine Enarson, Bob Pease, 2016-06-17 In the examination of gender as a driving force in disasters too little attention has been paid to how women's or men's disaster experiences relate to the wider context of gender inequality or how gender just practice can help prevent disasters or address climate change at a structural level With a foreword from Kenneth Hewitt an afterword from Raewyn Connell and contributions from renowned international experts this book helps address the gap It explores disasters in diverse environmental hazard political and cultural contexts through original research and theoretical reflection building on the underutilized orientation of critical men's studies This body of thought not previously applied in disaster contexts explores how men gain maintain and use power to assert control over women Contributing authors examine the gender terrain of disasters through men's eyes considering how diverse forms of masculinities shape men's efforts to respond to and recover from disasters and other climate challenges The book highlights both the high costs paid by many men in disasters and the consequences of dominant masculinity practices for women and marginalized men It concludes by examining how disaster risk can be reduced through men's diverse efforts to challenge hierarchies around gender sexuality disability age and culture
