Looking For The Aliens A Psychological Imaginative And Scientific Investigation:

Looking for the Aliens Peter A. Hough, Jenny Randles, 1997 Centering the Margins of Anthropology's History Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Gleach, 2021-05 The series Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline's history within a global context with a goal of increasing the awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 14 Centering the Margins of Anthropology's History focuses on the conscious recognition of margins and suggests it is time to bring the margins to the center both in terms of a changing theoretical openness and a supporting body of scholarship if not to problematize the very dichotomy of center and margins itself The essays explore two major themes of anthropology's margins First anthropologists and historians have long sought out marginalized and forgotten ancestors arguing for their present day relevance and offering explanations for the lack of attention to their contributions to theory analysis methods and findings Second anthropologists and their historians have explored a range of genres to present their results in provocative and open ended formats This volume closes with an experimental essay that offers a dynamic multifaceted perspective that captures one of the dominant if sometimes marginalized voices in history of anthropology Steven O Murray's career developed at the institutional margins of several academic disciplines and activist discourses but his distinctive voice has been and will remain at the center of our history
