Looking Into TV Joseph J. Coon,2013-12-17 In recent years the media landscape in the United States has followed a pattern similar to that of the physical landscape by becoming increasingly suburbanized Although it is a far cry from reality the fantasy of a perfect suburban life still exists in the collective imagination of millions of Americans This dream of suburban perfection is built around a variety of such ideologically conservative values and ideals as the importance of tradition the centrality of the nuclear family the desire for a community of like minded neighbors the need for clearly defined gender roles and the belief that with hard work and determination anyone can succeed Building on the relationships between suburban life and American identity Look Closer examines and interprets recent narratives that challenge the suburban ideal to reveal how directors and producers are mobilizing the spaces of suburbia to tell new kinds of stories about America David R Coon argues that the myth of suburban perfection popularized by postwar sitcoms and advertisements continues to symbolize a range of intensely debated issues related to tradition family gender race and citizenship Through close examinations of such films as American Beauty The Truman Show and Mr Mrs Smith as well as such television series as Desperate Housewives Weeds and Big Love the book demonstrates how suburbia is used to critique the ideologies that underpin the suburban American Dream Xerox Contemporary High School Library Program ,1970 The Cumulative Book Index ,1983 A world list of books in the English language Best Books for Children John Thomas Gillespie,Corinne J. Naden,1990 Making Aboriginal Men and Music in Central Australia Ase Ottosson,2020-05-31 This detailed ethnographic study explores the intercultural crafting of contemporary forms of Aboriginal manhood in the world of country rock and reggae music making in Central Australia Focusing on four different musical contexts an Aboriginal recording studio remote Aboriginal settlements small non indigenous towns and tours beyond the musicians homeland the author challenges existing scholarly political and popular understandings of Australian Aboriginal music men and related indigenous matters in terms of radical social cultural and racial difference Based on extensive anthropological field research among Aboriginal rock country and reggae musicians in small towns and remote desert settlements in Central Australia the book investigates how Aboriginal musicians experience and articulate various aspects of their male and indigenous sense of selves as they make music and engage with indigenous and non indigenous people practices places and sets of values Making Aboriginal Men and Music is a highly original intimate study which advances our understanding of contemporary indigenous and male identity formation within Aboriginal Australian society Providing new analytical insights for scholars and students in fields such as social and cultural anthropology cultural studies popular music and gender studies this engaging text makes a significant contribution to the study of indigenous identity formation in remote Australia and beyond Books for Leaders who Work with Children and Youth American Library Association,1963 Teachers Guides to Television ,1978 Junior High School Library Catalog ,1985 Top of the News ,1968 The Book Buyer's Guide ,1968 Vocational Education in Distributive Occupations United States.
