Set on a quiet Dublin street, it follows three people: Opaline, Martha, and Henry, each quietly yearning for something more, each stuck in the margins of their own existence. Their paths converge through the mysterious appearance of a bookshop that seems to exist beyond the ordinary, a place that vanishes as suddenly as it appears and holds within its walls the power to change destinies. Opaline is a woman haunted by the past, driven by a secret that binds her to books and the lives they contain. Martha, trapped in a world that keeps trying to silence her, discovers in the shop the courage to reclaim her story. And Henry, a scholar searching for truth in the remnants of forgotten literature, finds that the answers he seeks may lie not in the pages of history but in the people standing beside him.
