Dialogues with Degas
Kathryn Brown, 2023-12-14 Dialogues with Degas demonstrates the ongoing relevance of Edgar Degas to 20th and 21st century ideas and art practices The first in depth examination of this major artist's impact on contemporary art this book explores how contemporary practitioners have used Degas's creativity as a springboard to engage imaginatively and critically with themes of colonialism gender race and class Individual chapters are devoted to dialogues between Degas's art and works produced by Frank Auerbach Cecily Brown Xinyi Cheng Ryan Gander Maggi Hambling Damien Hirst Howard Hodgkin Chantal Joffe Leon Kossoff R B Kitaj Juan Muñoz Paula Rego Jenny Saville Yinka Shonibare Cy Twombly and Rebecca Warren Through close analyses of selected paintings drawings prints and sculptures Kathryn Brown explores how Degas's technical and compositional experiments have been extended or challenged in innovative ways By experimenting with the materials and methods of existing works contemporary artists generate visual palimpsests that make new demands of the viewer and prompt a reconsideration of ideas that have informed histories of 19th century French art The book overturns familiar conceptions of influence by eschewing a genealogical approach and prioritizing instead the analysis of non linear encounters between artworks This encourages a new conception of the agency of visual artefacts and of the conversations they are capable of entertaining with each other While this study sheds new light on Degas's art and that of his interlocutors it also has methodological significance for the writing of art history Saul Steinberg's Literary Journeys Jessica R. Feldman, 2021-02-16 Saul Steinberg's inimitable drawings paintings and assemblages enriched the New Yorker gallery and museum shows and his own books for more than half a century Although the literary qualities of Steinberg's work have often been noted in passing critics and art historians have yet to fathom the specific ways in which Steinberg meant drawing not merely to resemble writing but to be itself a type of literary writing Jessica R Feldman's Saul Steinberg's Literary Journeys the first book length critical study of Steinberg's art and its relation to literature explores his complex literary roots particularly his affinities with modernist aesthetics and iconography The Steinberg who emerges is an artist of far greater depth than has been previously recognized Feldman begins her study with a consideration of Steinberg as a reader and writer including a survey of his personal library She explores the practice of modernist parody as the strongest affinity between Steinberg and the two authors he repeatedly claimed as his teachers Vladimir Nabokov and James Joyce Studying Steinberg's art in tandem with readings of selected works by Nabokov and Joyce Feldman explores fascinating bonds between Steinberg and these writers from their tastes for parody and popular culture to their status as mythmakers migrants and perpetual wanderers Further Feldman relates Steinberg's uniquely literary art to a host of other authors including Rimbaud Baudelaire Flaubert Gogol Tolstoy and Defoe Generously illustrated with the artist's work and drawing on invaluable archival material from the Saul Steinberg Foundation this innovative fusion of literary history and art history allows us to see anew Steinberg's art

International Relations and Heritage Rodrigo Christofolletti, Maria Leonor Botelho, 2021-08-30 Patchwork in times of plurality encompasses the multitude of actions as a revealing symbol of ethos actors organisms and manifestations of preservation and dialogue frontiers This plural metaphor almost like a patchwork aggregates and yet segregates conforms but disfigures and boosts the meanings which represent this new field that international relations have been recently crossing Just like the mirror metaphor that reflects everything to all and sometimes intervenes in distortions the patchwork analogy allowed the book to take responsibility for the disclosure of preservation actions on a global scale The book has a pioneering role insofar since it is the only publication with such characteristics concerns and coverage The work studies the interconnection between cultural properties and international relations by understanding them as a mosaic before the bridges that intertwine people and borders The main goal of this work is to illustrate in what way intergovernmental relations have been privileging heritage and culture as acting fields for its broader needs Therefore the book addresses topics related to the international agenda focusing on its less debated themes Two examples of these undervalued matters are the link between actors preservationist actions and the universe of world cultural heritage The book also pursues a critical dialogue between interdisciplinary fields that narrow heritage frontiers in search to contribute with a spectrum of academic perspectives and inter national study cases To serve distinct economic social or political purposes institutionalized heritage embodied by different values becomes instrumentalized in a top down direction In a development frame when we perceive culture as indispensable to human life the past is transformed into exchange currency Through the creation of alternative fields of action usually in a bottom up logic the present builds new heritage connections Digital heritage s preservation dissemination and appreciation have been representing these same nets Bridging the Gap: Disciplines, Times, and Spaces in Dialogue - Volume 1 Christian W.
