Bāṇa,1896 Love in Contemporary British Drama Korbinian Stöckl,2021-01-18 Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love s compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned in the Great Sorrow William Poole Balforn,1882 The Mystery of Individuality Mark Perry,2012-07-13 The Mystery of Individuality explores the nature of human individuality through twelve chapter mirrors whose main focal points are spirituality psychology sociology and love and also the meaning of sacred art The issues of leadership and justice as well as of politics and even crime are also examined in depth along with the roles of sexuality and marriage Finally man and woman are defined in the context of both cosmology and society with a special emphasis on the divine nature of a human being and what this entails morally and socially Perry bases his assessments on the guiding image of archetypal man namely of a being created in the image of God At the same time he does not shy away from addressing what the distortion of this archetype entails He asserts that in creating man God lent him his own immortal personhood namely all that we find most lovable in another human creature in other words his personality But finally the question for each of us comes down to remembering our divine essence without forgetting our human nothingness Trifles in Verse John Marjoribanks,1784 Genesis R.
