Love Poems and New Beginnings John Terninko,1994-02-01 Oltre l'autunno. Antologia haiku Pietro Tartamella,2006 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,1998 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2000 Library of Congress Subject Headings: A-E Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division,1989 Books in Print ,1991 A-E Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy,1990 On Love and Barley Matsuo Basho,1985-08-29 Basho one of the greatest of Japanese poets and the master of haiku was also a Buddhist monk and a life long traveller His poems combine karumi or lightness of touch with the Zen ideal of oneness with creation Each poem evokes the natural world the cherry blossom the leaping frog the summer moon or the winter snow suggesting the smallness of human life in comparison to the vastness and drama of nature Basho himself enjoyed solitude and a life free from possessions and his haiku are the work of an observant eye and a meditative mind uncluttered by materialism and alive to the beauty of the world around him Cross-Cultural Computing: An Artist's Journey Naoko Tosa,2016-03-01 This exciting new book explores the relationship between cultural traditions and computers looking at how people from very different cultures and backgrounds communicate and how the use of information technologies can support and enhance these dialogues Historically we developed our understanding of other cultures through traditional means museums printed literature etc but the advent of information technologies has allowed us access to a plethora of material Tosa asks the question Can we understand other cultures using computers as media to supplement thinking and memorization Starting with a survey of art and technology moving into the area of culture and technology the book culminates with a vision of a new world based on an understanding of these relationships allowing cultural creators and viewers the opportunity to reach a better and more profound understanding of the role information technology will play going forward Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy,1990 The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun,2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemmingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto Modernism and prompts a reconsideration of its canonical texts and figures Contrary to many artists of Modernism who devised highly individualistic

aesthetic styles the artists of Pool strove towards a universal art of humanity that was rooted in all human nature and psychology Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1979 Sky Above, Great Wind Kazuaki Tanahashi,2012-10-09 The delightful and often funny poetry of Zen's quintessential free spirit Master Ryokan in a fresh translation by a beloved American Zen figure Ryokan Taigu 1758 1831 was a monk in the Soto lineage of Japanese Zen who spent a good part of his life as a hermit writing poetry playing with children and creating simple and exquisitely beautiful calligraphies sometimes using twigs as his instrument when he couldn't afford a brush He was never head of a monastery or temple and as an old man he fell in love with a young Zen nun who also became his student His affection for her colors the mature poems of his late period This loving tribute to the great legendary nonconformist includes more than 140 of his poems 13 examples of his art and a selection of laugh out loud funny anecdotes about his highly idiosyncratic teaching behavior The Poetry of Nature John T. Carpenter,Midori Oka,2018-02-26 With a shared reverence for the arts of Japan T Richard Fishbein and his wife Estelle P Bender assembled an outstanding and diverse collection of paintings of the Edo period 1615 1868 The Poetry of Nature offers an in depth look at more than forty works from their collection that together trace the development of the major schools and movements of the era Rinpa Nanga Zen Maruyama Shij and Ukiyo e from their roots in Heian court culture and the Kano and Tosa artistic lineages that preceded them Insightful essays by John T Carpenter and Midori Oka reveal a unifying theme the celebration of the natural world expressed in varied forms from the bold graphic manner of Rinpa to the muted sensitivity of Nanga Lavishly illustrated these works draw particular focus to the unique intertwinement of poetry and the pictorial arts that is fundamental to the Japanese tradition In addition to providing new readings and translations of Japanese and Chinese poems The Poetry of Nature sheds new light on the ways in which Edo artists used verse to transform their paintings into a hybrid literary and visual art p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 14 0px Verdana Crossing and Dwelling Thomas A. Tweed,2008-03-15 This book depicts religion in place and in movement dwelling and crossing Drawing on insights from the natural and social sciences Tweed's work is grounded in the particulars of distinctive religious practices even as it moves toward ideas about cross cultural patterns It offers a responsible way to think broadly about religion Inter-culturality and Philosophic Discourse Yolaine Escande,Chenyang Li,Vincent Shen,2014-07-24 Responding to a deep and universal need of philosophizing in the context of intensive intercultural interaction among all philosophical traditions in the process of globalization this timely book offers a unique collection of excellent papers on inter translatability art and ethics subjects which are most crucial for intercultural conversations today Instead of opting for a comparative philosophy that suggests the superiority of philosophy in comparison with other forms of thought this book explores inter translatability between East and West given that any dialogue between heterogeneous cultures and systems of thought has to start with translation which constitutes the first part of this book Art and ethics are the two areas that most obviously link philosophies of the past and the present and constitute a fundamental part of Chinese long living and practical philosophy

The value of art and aesthetic appreciation no less than ethics is at the core of Chinese culture and indeed promises a great deal for the future world Thus they are dealt with here in the second and third parts This book is also relevant to interculturalism in philosophy itself as the contributors firstly come from several different continents and secondly though most of them are philosophers all contributors are well versed in other disciplines such as anthropology literature religion aesthetics history of art sinology cognitive sciences and social sciences Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1980
