German Reformation R. W. Scribner,2017-03-14 Over the past twenty years new approaches to the history of the Reformation of the Church have radically altered our understanding of that event within its broadest social and cultural context In this classic study R W Scribner provided a synthesis of the main research with a special emphasis on the German Reformation and presented his own interpretation of the period Paying particular attention to the social history of the broader religious movements of the German Reformation Scribner examined those elements of popular culture and belief which are now seen to have played a central role in shaping the development and outcome of the movements for reform in the sixteenth century Scribner concluded that the Reformation as it came to be known was only one of a wide range of responses to the problem of religious reform and revival and suggested that the movement as a whole was less successful than previously claimed In the second edition of this invaluable text C Scott Dixon s new Introduction supplementary chapter and bibliography continue Scribner s original lines of inquiry and provide additional commentary on developments within German Reformation scholarship over the sixteen years since its first publication

Luther and German Humanism Lewis W. Spitz,2024-10-28 The particular interest of Professor Spitz has been the close relationship and synergy between humanism and religious reform in the transformation of European culture in the 16th century Within the general cultural and intellectual context of the Renaissance and Reformation movements the present volume focuses on Luther and German humanism a subsequent collection looks more particularly at the place of education and history in the thought of the time The articles here discuss Luther s imposing knowledge of the classics his attitudes towards learning the religious and patriotic interests of the humanists and the role of a younger generation of humanists in the Reformation Also included is a far reaching appraisal of the impact of humanism and the Reformation on Western history Luther and the German Reformation Thomas Martin Lindsay,1900 Lucas Cranach the Elder Bonnie Noble,2009-03-16 Lucas Cranach the Elder 1472 1553 is the most influential painter of the German Reformation In collaboration with Martin Luther 1483 1546 Cranach produced innovative paintings which made the complex ideas of Lutheran Christianity understandable to a wide range of viewers and inspired later generations of artists Despite Cranach s crucial role as an interpreter of Lutheran ideas his Reformation paintings remain unfamiliar to many American scholars Lucas Cranach the Elder Art and Devotion of the German Reformation presents Cranach s Reformation painting to a broader audience and explains the pictorial strategies Cranach devised to clarify and interpret Lutheran thought For specialists in Reformation history this study offers an interpretation of Cranach s art as an agent of religious change For historians and students of Renaissance art this study explores the defining work of a major sixteenth century artist The broad implications of the Reformation and Cranach s role in transforming religious art make this study suitable for readers with a general interest in history religion or art history

Ecumenism, Memory, and German Nationalism, 1817-1917 Stan M. Landry,2014-02-11 Explores the relationship among the German confessional divide collective memories of religion and the construction of German national identity and difference It argues that nineteenth century proponents of church unity used and abused memories of Martin Luther and the Protestant Reformation to espouse German religious unity which would then serve as a catalyst for German national unification Supplementary Catalogue of the Public Library of New South Wales, Sydney, Reference Department Public Library of New South Wales. Reference Dept,1902 Essentials in Medieval and Modern History Samuel Bannister Harding,1905 Look, a Negro! Robert Gooding-Williams,2013-11-26 In Look a Negro political theorist Robert Gooding Williams imaginatively and impressively unpacks fundamental questions around race and racism Inspired by Frantz Fanon s famous description of the profound effect of being singled out by a white child with the words Look a Negro his book is an insightful rich and unusually wide ranging work of social criticism These essays engage themes that have dominated debates on race and racial identity in recent years the workings of racial ideology including the interplay of gender and sexuality in the articulation of racial ideology the viability of social constructionist theories of race the significance of Afrocentrism and multiculturalism for democracy the place of black identity in the imagination and articulation of America s inheritance of philosophy and the conceptualization of African American politics in post segregation America Look a Negro will be of interest to philosophers political theorists critical race theorists students of cultural studies and film and readers concerned with the continuing importance of race consciousness to democratic culture in the United States Short History of the

Reformation John Fletcher Hurst, 1884 Antifraternalism and Anticlericalism in the German Reformation Geoffrey Dipple, 2016-12-05 Many of the leading figures of the Reformation and many of their most able opponents came from among the ranks of the Franciscan Order This Order became the focus of attack in a pamphlet war waged against it in 1523 by converts to the Reformation These criticisms were based on arguments by Luther in his Judgement on Monastic Vows and the pamphlets provided an important channel for these views Luther's arguments were also reinforced by criticisms of the mendicant orders drawn from medieval polemical and satirical literature The campaign of 1523 brought together both Reformation and pre Reformation anticlerical themes In this book Geoffrey Dipple looks at the perception of the Franciscan order in the 15th and 16th centuries placing the attacks firmly in the context of late medieval inter clerical rivalries He looks particularly at the anticlerical polemics of one of the primary participants Johann Eberlin von G nzburg the most vocal of the Franciscan's critics History of the Church in the 18th & 19th centuries, tr. by J.F. Hurst Karl Rudolph Hagenbach, 1870 Contesting the Reformation C. Scott Dixon, 2012-03-09 Contesting the Reformation provides a comprehensive survey of the most influential works in the field of Reformation studies from a comparative cross national interdisciplinary perspective Represents the only English language single authored synthetic study of Reformation historiography Addresses both the English and the Continental debates on Reformation history Provides a thematic approach which takes in the main trends in modern Reformation history Draws on the most recent publications relating to Reformation studies Considers the social political cultural and intellectual implications of the Reformation and the associated literature

Annual Register University of Chicago, 1903 Luther's Revolution Nathan Montover, 2012-09-27 Till now history has neglected the utterly radical nature of Luther's thought In bringing together the political theological conceptual and cultural dimensions of Luther's work Montover brings his readers to an awareness of their truly radical nature Luther's understanding of the universal priesthood of believers was not simply another evangelical concept that dealt only with the office of ministry In serving as a means for reordering the concepts of temporal authority and the temporal order it challenged the cosmological foundations of the political structure of his day A compelling work that can only serve to revive the study of this monumental figure of theology Modern Christianity. The German Reformation Philip Schaff, 1910

Outlines of German literature John Adam Joerg, 1895 British Christians and the Third Reich Andrew Chandler, 2022-05-19 A new approach to the moral and intellectual debates provoked by Nazism in Germany the Holocaust and World War II
