

Dreams

Hold fast to dreams

For if dreams die

Life is a broken-winged bird

That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams

For when dreams go

Life is a barren field

Frozen with snow.

Rare High Meadow of Which I Might Dream Connie Voisine,2010-02-15 The Bird is Her Reason There are some bodies that emerge into desire as a god rises from the sea emotion and memory hang like dripping clothes this want is like entering that heated red on the mouth of a Delacroix lion stalwart always that red which makes my teeth ache and my skin feel a hand that has never touched me the tree groaning outside becomes a man who knocks on my bedroom window edge of red on gold fur the horse the wild flip of its head the rake of claws across its back the unfocussed swallowed eye Rare High Meadow of Which I Might Dream is a book haunted by the afterlife of medieval theology and literature yet grounded in distinctly modern quandaries of desire Connie Voisine's female speakers reverberate with notes of Marie de France's tragic heroines but whereas Marie's poems are places where women's longings quickly bloom and die in captivity in towers and dungeons Voisine uses narrative to suspend the movement of storytelling For Voisine poems are occasions for philosophical wanderings extended lyrics that revolve around the binding and unbinding of desire with lonely speakers struggling with the impetus of wanting as well as the necessity of a love affair's end With fluency intelligence and deeply felt emotional acuity

Rare High Meadow of Which I Might Dream navigates the heady intersection of obsessive love and searing loss Praise for Cathedral of the North Voisine s poetry is wholly unsentimental tactile and filled with unexpected beauty She is political in the best sense A dazzling brave and surprising first book Denise Duhamel Ploughshares Writing and Workshopping

Chamber Shanghai Library, Browning's Lyrics Eleanor Cook, 1974-12-15 Browning s lyrics are favourite choices for anthologies but are rarely examined closely This is the first full length study of the lyrics and includes detailed analyses of such well known poems as Love Among the Ruins Two in the Campagna A Serenade at the Villa A Toccata of Galuppi s By the Fireside and James Lee s Wife Eleanor Cook explores Browning s use of repeated images and themes in the lyrics examines these patterns in other poems and in his letters and analyses their growth and change in all his work She demonstrates how the lyrics may be linked with Browning s other work and shows something of his essential artistic unity His imaginary is found to be more consistent and complex than is usually assumed Students of Browning will find this work stimulating and instructive while lovers of Browning will read it with pure pleasure The reader will return to many of the poems with a richer sense of their continuing vitality In an earlier form this study was awarded the first A S P Woodhouse Prize by the University of Toronto Ladies' Home Journal , 1922 The ^A Life of Langston Hughes Arnold Rampersad, 2002-01-10 February 1
