have already inserted in the text His personality however was so vivid the impression he made on me was so deep that he always seemed to be with me even when the ocean separated us As I write these lines I could fancy that he stands beside me a sombrely joyous spectre I could believe that he bends over my shoulder or at any rate that presently I will hear a knock at the door and he will enter as he entered Martha Baker s studio on that afternoon in May so long ago The magic Florentine days marched to a close I say marched but the musical form was more exactly that of a gavotte a pavane or a stately Polish dance imagined by Frederic Chopin It was too perfect to last this life which appeared to assume the shape of conscious art One afternoon Peter and I motored to the old Villa Bombicci the design of which legend has attributed to the hand of Michael Angelo Now it had become a farmhouse and pigs and chickens a cock and a few hens straydogs and cats wandered about in the carious cortile We had come to bathe in the swimming pool a marble Peter Whiffle Carl Van Vechten,1922
