The Book of Genesis Craig A. Evans, Joel N. Lohr, David L. Petersen, 2012-03-20 Written by leading experts in the field The Book of Genesis Composition Reception and Interpretation offers a wide ranging treatment of the main aspects of Genesis study Its twenty nine essays fall under four main sections The first section contains studies of a more general nature including the history of Genesis in critical study Genesis in literary and historical study as well as the function of Genesis in the Pentateuch

In the second portion scholars present commentary on or interpretation of specific passages or sections of Genesis as well as essays on its formation genres and themes The third part includes essays on the textual history and reception of Genesis in Judaism Christianity and Islam The final section explores the theologies of the book of Genesis including essays on Genesis and ecology and Genesis in the context of Jewish thought Theodotion's Greek Text of Daniel Daniel Olariu,2023-03-27 This study advances our knowledge regarding the character of the version of Daniel attributed to Theodotion within the larger framework of the Theodotionic problem in Septuagint research This is achieved in two ways In addition to demonstrating the recensional character of Theodotion Daniel and describing its revising techniques it also breaks new ground on Theodotion's Hebrew Aramaic source The findings compellingly argue for the theory that Theodotion Daniel is a systematic revision of the Old Greek in conformity with a Semitic text form which often preserved original readings against the Masoretic Text and the Qumran scrolls Ad Fontes Thomas J. Kraus,2007 After a general introduction Thomas J Kraus points out the value of assessing original manuscripts for a profound knowledge of early Christianity This is done with the help of seventeen of his essays previously published in diverse journals or books now translated into English enlarged by the current status quo of research and set in a logical sequence Sacred Texts and Disparate Interpretations: Qumran Manuscripts Seventy Years Later ,2020-07-13 The essays in Sacred Texts and Disparate Interpretations cover an array of core themes from various areas of Qumran studies including textual criticism of the Hebrew Bible Second Temple history philology paleography Wisdom and religious poetry Contributors to this volume generally consider these themes from a historical perspective trying to find new solutions to old questions and entering in constructive dialogue with the opinions of other scholars Paleographic investigations textual criticism as well as literary and philological approaches make this volume a valuable contribution to the variegated and often highly specialized directions of inquiry into the contents and historical background of the Dead Sea Scrolls Language and Interpretation in the Syriac Text of Ben Sira Willem Th. van Peursen,2007-12-31 This book is the result of an innovative linguistic study of the Syriac translation of Ben Sira It contains both a traditional philological analysis incorporating matters of text historical interest and translation technique and also the results of a computational linguistic analysis of phrases clauses and texts It arrives at new linguistic insights including a proposal for a corpus based description of phrase structure based on a so called maximum matrix The book also addresses the fundamentally different way in which a text is approached in a computer assisted analysis compared with the way in which this is done in traditional philological approaches It demonstrates how the computer assisted analysis can fruitfully shed light on or supplement traditional philological research Material Aspects of Reading in Ancient and Medieval Cultures Anna Krauß,Jonas Leipziger,Friederike Schücking-Jungblut,2020-05-05 This publication seeks to endeavour the relationship between material artefacts and reading practices in ancient and medieval cultures While the acts of reception of written artefacts in former times are irretrievably lost some of the involved artefacts are preserved and might comprise hints to the ancient reading practices In form of case studies the contributions to this volume examine various forms of written artefacts as to their implications on modes of reading Analyzing different Qumran scrolls codices Tefillin Mezuzot magical texts tablets bricks and statues as well as meta textual and iconographic aspects the articles inquire the possibilities of how to correlate material aspects to assumed modes of reception and practices of reading The contributions stem from Egyptology Papyrology Qumran Studies Biblical Studies Jewish Studies Ancient Christianity and Islamic Studies In total this volume contributes to the research on practices of reception in times past and demonstrates the potential hidden in text bearing artefacts
