Pets I've Met:

Dogs I've Met Jessie Bailey Crook, 2009-08-25 Dogs I've Met relates Jessie Bailey Crook's many casual meetings with a wide variety of dogs and what their owners said about them. For several years while enjoying her own three she met other dogs during her international and domestic travels. In Japan, Greece, Spain, Peru, Kenya, and Italy, and from Ohio to Wyoming and Florida, Jessie regularly encountered dogs. From conversations with their owners, she learned about the dogs' origins, idiosyncrasies, names, and sometimes much more. Dogs I've Met is a compilation from her journals of those many humorous, interesting, and insightful encounters. The reader will meet Cameron, Simba, and Trixster, the author's three dogs, and learn about the painful loss of Simba, pictured on the cover, from cancer. Writing this book was therapy for that loss. Reading it will give dog lovers everywhere an opportunity to enjoy, as did the author, encounters from Angel to Zane with many memorable dogs such as Biff, Cuervo, Ditka, and Ellie. This book is a delightful treat for even those who don't love dogs. All Pets Go To Heaven Sylvia Browne, 2009-01-06 Pets have a special place in our hearts and homes, but do they share our destiny after death? World-famous psychic, spiritual teacher, and New York Times bestselling author Sylvia Browne exercises her astonishing insight to illustrate the very special purpose our pets have on Earth and what animals experience after death. Cats, dogs, horses, and other creatures not only inhabit our homes but also our hearts. With their never-ending loyalty, heroic deeds, comic behavior, and vibrant personalities, pets are companions but can also be our closest friends and dearest confidants. The death of a pet is always heart-wrenching and tragic. Legendary psychic Sylvia Browne provides comfort for those grieving over the loss of a beloved animal by showing how pets continue to be with us even after their deaths. Sylvia uses forty years of research and decades worth of true stories culled from readings and her own experiences to show how our pets have unique personalities, quirks, and habits that make up their spirit and soul. Sharing heartwarming stories from pets on both sides of life, Sylvia Browne examines how our animals live in the afterlife, whether we will see them on the Other Side, how their presence affects us daily, and where animals fit into the whole of Creation. In All Pets Go to Heaven, Sylvia Browne explains how pets like humans have a spirit that travels to the Other Side. Objective PET Student's Book with Answers with CD-ROM Louise Hashemi, Barbara Thomas, 2010-01-14 SECOND EDITION of the best-selling course first published in 2003. Canine Confidential Marc Bekoff, 2018-04-13 Get to know your best friend better. Everyone who owns a dog, breeds, or trains dogs, or works with dogs should read this informative book. Library Journal. Just think about the different behaviors you see at a dog park. We have a good understanding of what it means when dogs wag their tails, but what about when they sniff and roll on a stinky spot? Why do they play tug-of-war with one dog while showing their bellies to another? Why are some dogs shy while others are bold? What goes on in dogs' heads and hearts, and how much can we know and understand? Written by award-winning scientist and lifelong dog lover Marc Bekoff, Canine Confidential not only brilliantly opens up the world of dog behavior but also helps us understand how we can make our dogs' lives better. Rooted in the most up-to-date science on cognition and emotion, fields that have exploded in recent years, Canine Confidential is a wonderfully accessible treasure trove of new information and myth-busting. Peeing, we learn, isn't always marking; grass eating isn't always an attempt to trigger vomiting; it's okay to hug a dog on their terms, and so much more. There's still much we don't know, but at the core of the book is the certainty that dogs do have deep emotional lives, and that as their companions and trainers, we must recognize them as the unique, complex individuals they are so we can keep them as happy and healthy as possible. Bekoff shares his own studies and others' research along with real-life stories in a winning tone. Booklist in a last desperate act to fulfill Hitler's maniacal dream. Calmly waiting in his machine gun nest is the teenager from Colorado. His eyes are focused on the tree line and his frostbitten fingers touch the trigger. Archangelo, known as Johnny, is about to meet the devil and he's about to spit in his eye. Johnny, the last of Nick and Angelina's seven children, stands his ground that Christmas night as he has throughout his service in the elite corps of the 101st Airborne Division. He returns home a humble, reluctant hero, searching not for acclaim but for peace, to shed his nightmares of death, to find comfort with his family and make his way with Carlo, the brother he adores. But the devil returns, defiant and dangerous as ever. Johnny's own kind people, of his Sicilian heritage, present the ultimatum: Join us in our corrupt, diabolical world, or you will be destroyed, and everything you fought for in your first war will be lost. In this second war against his neighbors, does he defy the devil once again? The Dogs Who Found Me Ken Foster, 2016-08-01. Now regarded as a classic in dog literature, Ken Foster's memoir chronicles his journey from first-time dog owner to rescuer and all the lessons and mistakes he made along the way. Bookended by the tragedies of 9/11 and Katrina, Foster finds that dogs open his eyes to the benefits of compassion, selflessness, and the chaotic beauty of living each day in the moment. But more than Foster's own story, readers remember the dogs. Among them are Duque, a Costa Rican stray; Brando, Foster's first adopted dog and a supposed pit bull mix who outgrew his Manhattan studio apartment; Rocco, a clownish red pit bull whose owner mistakenly gives him away to the wrong person; Zephyr, a cheerful Rottweiler mix who awakens Foster by sitting on his chest when his heart stops working; and Sula, the tiny lost pit bull who showed up at Foster's door one day and stayed. Whether bearing witness to national tragedy, grieving the death of a friend, or dealing with his own mortality, Foster finds strength in his dogs and in the reciprocal nature of rescue. More Iditarod Classics Lew Freedman, 2004. Picking up where the best-selling Iditarod Classics left off, this new collection of insightful and hair-raising stories introduces readers to more of the men and women who brave the annual 1,100-mile Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race from Anchorage to Nome. Champions Doug Swingley, Martin Buser, Jeff King, and others tell how they came to love the race, how they train their dogs and themselves, and how they challenge the elements. The Last Great Race For Alaskan heroes such as DeeDee Jonrowe, Emmitt Peters, and Ramo Brooks: the Iditarod is always punishing but not punishing enough to deter them from trying again next year. fascinating stories and helpful tips Pet That Dog makes a perfect gift for dog curious kids and dog lovers of all ages And for feline fans check out Pet That Cat A Handbook for Making Feline Friends     For Pet's Sake, Do Something! Book Three Dr. Monica Diedrich, 2008-10-01 What can I do to make my pet more comfortable when he or she has to cope with pain illness or a chronic condition How can I improve my pet's overall health I can't begin to tell you how many people have asked me these two questions during individual consultations and workshops At times their requests for information have compelled me to search for more effective answers than I was able to provide at the moment For that reason I'm very grateful to my clients and students since they've often piqued my curiosity to learn much more about topics I might never have researched any further on my own Because of their queries while I was writing my second book Pets Have Feelings Too ideas were already swirling around in my mind for a third book a how to book that would help as many pet parents as possible by answering those two questions and more My dream was to compile information all in a single book about as wide a variety of healing modalities as I possibly could However the single book quickly grew so large it soon developed into a series of three books They're all published under the umbrella title For Pet's Sake Do Something and they're each about how you can help your pets heal and enjoy optimum health every day I first discovered the importance of doing something myself when one of my own dogs seemed to be giving up on life At the tender age of two my Shih Tzu Chop Chop was in severe pain because of hip dysplasia and a pinched nerve He spent hours lying with his eyes fixed on the horizon as if his life had no more meaning for him I felt I'd most likely have to make a decision soon to give him the final respite he was looking for Meanwhile I was both desperate and discouraged because there didn't seem to be anything more I could do to help him He'd already been seen by two different veterinarians and each one had given him only a bleak prognosis Not only that but medications were no longer able to provide the hoped for relief It seemed he was very close to death and the next day I would probably have to make a final decision for him That night all I could do was to lie beside him on the floor crying buckets of tears but at least I was keeping him company and comforting him as best I could I'd known ever since I was eight years old about the special intuitive gift I had but at that moment my gift for being able to talk with animals was the farthest thing from my mind I was unable to think creatively or sense anything intuitively at all What happened next though as I lay on the floor beside my precious pet feeling utterly miserable and totally helpless would be one of the greatest lessons I would ever learn As clear as day I heard Chop Chop say to me You call yourself a healer so do something At first I had no idea what I could do to bring him any other relief In fact his words played over and over in my mind for awhile before their meaning even became clear to me Finally with a flash of insight I realized there was something more I could do I'd been using the technique of Cosmic Healing Energy to help people for some time but I'd never before thought about using it to help pets However now that Chop Chop was prompting me to be an active participant instead of a helpless bystander I set aside my sense of desperation and immediately began sending him healing light energy I not only sent him healing light myself but I also asked the angels saints sages and healers of all space times and dimensions to join me as well as guide and help me be an effective transmitter of Spirit's ever present healing light and love Even when I consciously thought I was finished with the treatment my hands intuitively kept moving as if they knew exactly where to touch press and pull When the flow of healing energy stopped I thanked everyone for their help and was filled with gratitude and reverence When I went to bed that night it was with the confidence of knowing I'd now been able to Do something positive for Chop Chop's highest good regardless of what the outcome might be What happened the next morning was nothing short of miraculous He stood up on all four legs and shook his mane He hadn't been able to do either of those things for quite some time because his hind quarters had been paralyzed Within a week of receiving regular healing treatments he was completely back to being his normal self Most of you won't ever be faced with quite such an extraordinary situation and it's important to realize that not every spiritual healing treatment brings about a physical cure as this one did but you will have many opportunities in everyday life when your pets need healing help in a variety of other ways too That's why it's been so important to me to write this series of books to empower you to be an active participant instead of a helpless bystander By implementing some of the healing techniques I've shared with you you may be able to help your pet maintain optimum health manage more comfortably through chronic illness or pain or even recover from a serious illness or injury This third book of the series is designed to provide you with guidelines for using alternative and complementary methods of healing Many of them have a long and successful history of use and many that at first may seem to be unconventional are actually scientifically supported Some you'll be able to use right away after reading about them while others will require study or further research on your part in order to use them correctly You'll also learn about various healing modalities a professional can provide for your pet The topics we'll cover in this third book of the series include Flower Essences for restoring spiritual balance to help relieve both physical and emotional symptoms Essential Oils that quickly and effectively transport oxygen and nutrients into every cell of the body for physical and emotional healing Homeopathy a healing system based on the principle that like heals like Magnetic Therapy Reflexology and Massage for pain relief relaxation reducing anxiety and promoting overall wellbeing Sound in its many different healing forms which serves as a bridge between body mind and spirit Color that can influence how a pet feels and behaves Crystals as an effective means for focusing healing energy Incense fragrances for healing emotional and behavioral imbalances Animal Communication and the importance of healing at every level spiritual mental and emotional to bring about lasting physical healing Acupuncture and Acupressure to eliminate blockages in the body's energy system Chiropractic to correct misalignments in a pet's body Hydrotherapy to promote healing in a weightless environment Another chapter you may find helpful shows you how to pre-test remedies before you buy or use them Using the techniques I've described may help you discover ahead of time whether or not a certain modality is the right one to use for your pet or this type of pre-testing may save you from spending money on something that wouldn't be beneficial for your pet It's also important to know how pets

I've Already Met the Devil R.K. Price, 2009-09-08 A horde of battle-hardened Nazi panzers charge over the frozen landscape of Bastogne.

age what emergency kit supplies to have on hand and first aid procedures to use as well as how to provide for your pets when you're no longer there so I've included chapters about these topics also. If you're able to ease your pet's pain or provide a better quality of life by implementing any of the healing techniques described in this book or in any of the books of this series, the time and money you've spent will be well worth it. My teacher and beloved animal friend Chop Chop finally did pass on at almost fourteen years of age but what he asked me to do when he was only two years old touched not only our own lives but also the lives of many other pets and pet parents as well. Though he and I were both on the verge of giving up many years ago, he taught me that I didn't have to be a helpless bystander and that I could do something. I hope you'll do something for your precious pets too. Remember we can't always do great things in life but we can do small things with great love. This is exactly the lesson our animal friends teach us: whatever you do, do it with unconditional love. You can learn more about the contents of each book in the series by turning to the Epilogue at the end of this book. You can read Chop Chop's entire story in Chapter 1 of my first book What Animals Tell Me. You can also learn how to use Cosmic Healing yourself in Chapter 6 of Book 1 of the series For Pet's Sake: Do Something, How to Communicate With Your Pets and Help Them Heal. Sometimes my clients will ask if I still use Cosmic Healing to help people as well as pets. Many years ago I did but there are so many animals who need my help today that I now devote all of my time to working exclusively with them. Dr. Monica Diedrich

Road Dogs and Loners
Timothy D. Pippert, 2007-01-01 Using ethnographic interviews, an affiliation scale, and observational data from two soup kitchens of homeless men, Road Dogs and Loners investigates the various family types that homeless road dogs and loners rely on for support.

11 Big Lessons I've Learned as a Little Person
Monica M. Taddeo, 2023-03-13 Being born into a world where fitting in was not an option, triumphs and defeats are not uncommon in Monica Taddeo's life. Born with achondroplasia, a form of dwarfism, this New York Author chronicles her life from her youngest years to the present with the life-changing lessons she has learned along the way. As young as three, Monica underwent her first major surgery, followed up by, in her tween years, undergoing extended limb lengthening surgeries as well as other corrective surgeries into her later life. Over twenty surgeries and many lessons later, Monica continues the journey to find her true self through her determination, strength, and courage.
