full length features of the 1920s Silent Movies captures the greatest directors and actors and their immortal films Silent Movies also looks at the technology of early film the use of color photography and the restoration work being spearheaded by some of Hollywood's most important directors such as Martin Scorsese and Francis Ford Coppola Richly illustrated from the Library of Congress's extensive collection of posters paper prints film stills and memorabilia most of which have never been in print Silent Movies is an important work of history that will also be a sought after gift book for all lovers of film

Performance and the Middle English Romance Linda Marie Zaerr, 2012 An examination of if and how medieval romance was performed uniquely uniting the perspective of a scholar and practitioner Although English medieval minstrels performed gestes a genre closely related to romance often playing the harp or the fiddle the question of if and how Middle English romance was performed has been hotly debated Here the performance tradition is explored by combining textual historical and musicological scholarship with practical experience from a noted musician Using previously unrecognised evidence the author reconstructs a realistic model of minstrel performance showing how a simple melody can interact with the text and vice versa She argues that elements in Middle English romance which may seem simplistic or repetitive may in fact be incomplete as missing an integral musical dimension metrical irregularities for example may be relics of sophisticated rhythmic variation that make sense only with music Overall the study offers both a more accurate comprehension of minstrel performance and a deeper appreciation of the romances themselves Linda Marie Zaerr is Professor of Medieval Studies at Boise State University
