Manor Houses and Historic Homes of the Hudson Valley H. D. Eberlein,1924-01-01      The Manors and Historic Homes of the Hudson Valley Harold Donaldson Eberlein,2023-02-01 Harold Donaldson Eberlein s The Manors and Historic Homes of the Hudson Valley has been considered an essential and elegant resource ever since its first publication by J B Lippincott in 1924 Profusely illustrated with drawings classic prints and photographs many of the latter taken by the author himself the book not only discusses the architecture and beauty of more than thirty five historically relevant estates and homesteads but also contextualizes their varied histories amid key social and political disruptions ranging from the rise of the Dutch through to the American Revolution and the heyday of the patroonships overseen by such families as the Livingstons the Van Rensselaers and the Van Cortlandts Eberlein saw the old manors and historic homes of the Hudson Valley as vital signposts to that history of the region a history inseparably bound up with the old houses that stand upon both banks of the river and a history which without them would lose its dramatic force and become a dull dead abstraction This new edition features an introduction by historian Ed Renehan who sets the work in the context of its time and many new photographs This book is an indispensable resources for those interested in New York state history and the stories behind some of its best loved homes
