Phases Of Conflict In Africa:

Phases of Conflict in Africa Rose M. Kadende-Kaiser, 2003 Phases of Conflict in Africa Rose Marie Kadende, Paul J. Kaiser, 2005 This book is based on a workshop on War and Peace in Contemporary Africa organized and hosted by the African Studies Center at the University of Pennsylvania on January 31 2003 At this workshop were panels dedicated to conflict in central west and the horn of Africa along with a keynote address on Africa in the War on Terrorism which stimulated substantial and contentious debate The contributions included in this collection revolve around the central and west African regional conflict zones discussed at the workshop along with two essays that provide divergent perspectives on Africa's role in the war on terrorism emanating from the September 11 attacks The articles are organized chronologically according to the phases of conflict They provide valuable insight into the complexities of the processes of conflict which often follow similar trajectories but vary in time and space Undergraduate and graduate students researchers and teachers will benefit from the analytical roadmap which serves to situate different cases in a common context while providing the conceptual space for divergent methodological approaches and ideological assumptions This roadmap reinforces the notion that conflicts are complex processes that need to be understood and resolved based on their scope and content The Roots of African Conflicts Alfred G. Nhema, Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, 2008 This work along with The Resolution of African Conflicts clearly demonstrates the efforts by a wide range of African scholars to explain the roots routes regimes and resolution of African conflicts and how to re build post conflict societies Managing Conflicts in Africa's Democratic Transitions Akanmu G. and winding down of these conflicts through a systematic comparison of recent and contemporary PCs International Statebuilding in West Africa Abu Bakarr Bah, Nikolas Emmanuel, 2024 At the turn of the twenty first century manipulation of the democratic process coupled with preexisting political and economic grievances led to years long civil wars in Sierra Leone Liberia and Cote d'Ivoire During and after these conflicts international peacekeeping efforts and humanitarian intervention became the dominant paths for restoring stability by rebuilding the state Using these three countries as case studies this manuscript sheds light on internationally driven state building in war torn West African nations the problematic nature of the postcolonial state and the difficulties of securing its people's wellbeing Connecting peace and conflict democracy and international development studies Bah and Emmanuel argue that there is a clear nexus between the concepts and practices of peace building and statebuilding that peace building and statebuilding are not domestic matters alone but also matters of global intervention and that civil wars can be viewed as opportunities for state building through creative postwar partnerships and organization This study goes beyond the familiar concepts of failed states R2P peacekeeping and peace mediation and introduces and enhances the concepts of state decay new humanitarianism people centered liberalism and institutional design In doing so it provides critical lessons that local and international actors can draw on as they try to figure out practical solutions to the political economic and social problems that impede the development of peaceful and democratic multiethnic postcolonial states in Africa and beyond Applying comparative historical methods and theory to archival materials and expert interviews International Statebuilding in West Africa seeks to shift the discourse on civil wars from their causes and implications to the opportunities they provide to rework failed states and to shift the discourse on African states from their colonial and neocolonial legacies to their shared moral and security interests with the rest of the world
