

PHENOMENAL WOMAN

MAYA ANGELOU

Pretty women wonder where my secret lies.
I'm not cute or built to suit a fashion model's size.
But when I start to tell them,
They think I'm telling lies.
I say,
It's in the reach of my arms,
The span of my hips,
The stride of my step,
The curl of my lips.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally.
Phenomenal woman,
That's me.

I walk into a room
Just as cool as you please,
And to a man,
The fellows stand or
Fall down on their knees.
Then they swarm around me,
A hive of honey bees.
I say,
It's the fire in my eyes,
And the flash of my teeth,
The swing in my waist,
And the joy in my feet.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally.

Phenomenal woman,
That's me.

Men themselves have wondered
What they see in me.
They try so much
But they can't touch
My inner mystery.
When I try to show them,
They say they still can't see.
I say,
It's in the arch of my back,
The sun of my smile,
The ride of my breasts,
The grace of my style.
I'm a woman
Phenomenally.
Phenomenal woman,
That's me.

Now you understand
Just why my head's not bowed.
I don't shout or jump about
Or have to talk real loud.
When you see me passing,
It ought to make you proud.
I say,
It's in the click of my heels,
The bend of my hair,
the palm of my hand,
The need for my care.
'Cause I'm a woman
Phenomenally.

Phenomenal woman,
That's me.

Phenomenal Woman Feminist Transitions And Metaphysical Traditions:

The Phenomenal Woman Christine Battersby, 2013-09-05 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Key Concepts in Feminist Theory and Research Christina Hughes, 2002-10-08 Explores the core concepts in feminist theory Feminist Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson, Beverley Clack, 2004 Feminist Philosophy of Religion Critical Readings brings together key new writings in this growing field Partial Truths and the Politics of Community Robin L. Teske, Mary Ann Tétreault, 2003 Partial Truths and the Politics of Community considers what happens after feminists succeed in achieving social change or in founding organizations dedicated to accomplishing their personal and social goals This collection of eighteen essays by scholars from the fields of international relations and feminist studies explores the theoretical dilemmas and practical politics of living with raised consciousnesses in worlds of our own making The contributors explore feminisms as dreams of human rights as a cluster of ideologies and as a bounty of social practices set within frameworks for tackling problems in nation building and global governance In essays that illustrate the impact of feminist concerns with the quality of education the contributors offer studies of homeschooling of the education of impoverished girls in rural Mexico of sororities and their relation to female autonomy and of the teaching of prisoners by volunteers in county jails Other contributors call for a greater attention to the ecology of social life viewing society as a complex of individuals bound to one another through webs of transactions and obligations These contributors recount examples from Northern Ireland Poland and the United States in which such webs sometimes support and sometimes strangle efforts to achieve human dignity and autonomy Evaluating progress made in the legal realm other contributors chart the opportunities and limitations of international and domestic law as tools to advance and protect human rights They consider gender discrimination in universities and colleges the United Nations and its mixed record on women s issues and the effects of adding rape to the list of prosecutable war crimes The volume concludes with two works on how feminism supports democratic constructions of science and religion with results that destabilize dominant institutions in both realms

Like Mother, Like Daughter? Armstrong, Jill, 2019-03-06 Women are encouraged to believe that they can occupy top jobs in society by the example of other women thriving in their careers Who better to be a role model for career success than your mother Paradoxically this book shows that having a mother as a role model even for graduates of top universities does not predict daughters progressing in their own careers It finds that mothers with careers whilst highly influential in their daughters choice of career path rarely mentor their daughters as they progress This is partly explained by quiet ambition the tendency of women to be modest about their achievements Bigger issues are the twin pressures from contemporary motherhood and workplace culture that ironically lead career women s daughters to believe that being a good mother means working part time This stalls career progress Based on a large cross generational qualitative sample this book offers a timely and original perspective on the debate about gender equality in leadership positions Imagination and the Contemporary Novel John J. Su, 2011-05-26 Imagination and the Contemporary Novel examines the global preoccupation with the imagination among literary authors with ties to former colonies of the British Empire since the 1960s John Su draws on a wide range of authors including Peter Ackroyd Monica Ali Julian Barnes Andr Brink J M Coetzee John Fowles Amitav Ghosh Nadine Gordimer Hanif Kureishi Salman Rushdie and Zadie Smith This study rehabilitates the category of imagination in order to understand a broad range of contemporary Anglophone literature The responses of such literature to shifts in global capitalism have often been misunderstood by the dominant categories of literary studies the postmodern and the postcolonial As both an insightful critique into the themes that drive a range of today's best novelists and a bold restatement of what the imagination is and what it means for contemporary culture this book breaks new ground in the study of twenty first century literature

The Female Body in the Looking-Glass Basia Sliwinska, 2016-06-29 In his theory of the mirror stage the psychoanalyst and psychiatrist Jacques Lacan argued that the female body is defined by its lack of male attributes Within this framework he described female sexuality primarily as an absence and assumed female subordination to the male gaze However what happens if one follows Jean Baudrillard's advice to swallow the mirror and go through the looking glass to explore the reflections and realities that we encounter in the cultural mirror which reflects the culture in question its norms ideals and values What if the beautiful is inverted and becomes ugly and the ugly is considered beautiful or shape shifts into something conventionally thought of as beautiful These are the fundamental questions that Basia Sliwinska poses in this important new enquiry into gender identity and the politics of vision in contemporary women's art Through an innovative discussion of the mirror as a metaphor Sliwinska reveals how the post 1989 practices of woman artists from both sides of the former Iron Curtain such as Joanna Rajkowska Marina Abramovic Boryana Rossa Natalia LL and Anetta Mona Chisa and Lucia Tkacova go beyond gender binaries and instead embrace otherness and difference by playing with visual tropes of femininity Their provocative works offer alternative representations of the female body to those seen in the cultural mirror Their art challenges and deconstructs patriarchal representations of the social and cultural other associated with visual tropes of femininity such as Alice in Wonderland Venus and Medusa The Female Body in the Looking Glass makes a refreshing radical intervention into art theory and cultural studies by offering new theoretical concepts such as the mirror and genderland inspired by Alice's adventures in Wonderland as critical tools with which we can analyse and explain recent developments in women's art

Scrase,Todd Joseph Miles Holden,Scott Baum,2003

Contemplating globalization from a sociological perspective it is without doubt that a major site for social political economic and cultural change in the new millennium lies in the Asian region The chapters in this book seek to describe and analyze a number of key aspects of social and cultural change wrought by globalization in the Asian region The underlying theme in the book is the multi dimensional way in which globalization in the form of ideas practices and technology have introduced social inequalities in specific contexts In particular the book examines how inequality has been reproduced challenged and theorized in Asia by the advent of globalizing culture Written by experienced and established scholars the study provides both theoretical explanation and discussion and analysis of empirical data from a range of social cultural and political economic perspectives and draws on studies from several countries in the region The Body Andrew Blaikie, Mike Hepworth, Mary Holmes,2003-08-28

This collection offers a uniquely comprehensive guide to the sociology of the body With a strong historical scope and conceptual framework it provides an indispensable reference for undergraduate and postgraduate students and a robust source for scholars working in the area The central focus is on understanding sociology through the body what is often described as re reading sociology in a more corporeal light This is an interdisciplinary process drawing on history feminism cultural history art history anthropology social psychology philosophy medical sociology and media and communications as well as sociology While this has been primarily a Western practice The Body seeks to broaden the perspective to include references that draw on alternative cultural assumptions beliefs and practices including Japan and South America Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Poetry, Politics and Culture

Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing Ben Ristow,2022-02-10 Craft lives inside the artist and it operates in the mind not in standards or techniques Creative writers navigate thresholds in consciousness as they develop their arts practice Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing explores what it is to be an artist as it traces radical feminist and culturally embedded traditions in craft The new term craft consciousness identifies the nexus from which writers explore making processes and practitioner knowledge Writers as with all artists create and reimagine themselves anew and it is in this perpetual state of becoming that they find ways to enlarge their sense of artistry through an exploration of forms processes and mediums beyond the written word For writers this book initiates a reexamination of the mission of creative writing through disrupting patriarchal racist colonialist ableist and capitalist associations with dominant craft Drawing from twenty five interviews with living artists outside of writing and in a host of fields from conceptual art to leatherwork and dance the book shines a light on how the processes associated with craft are embodied Craft is an internalized matrix it need not be commodified for the marketplace or codified in the standards necessitated by institutions of higher education By redesigning writing workshops and MFA PhD programs through craft consciousness new potentials and collaborations emerge and it becomes more conceivable to imagine dynamic inclusive relationships between writers scientists and other artists

International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 1998 Early Stevens Bobby Joe Leggett, 1992 In recent years Nietzsche has emerged as a presiding genius of our intellectual epoch Although scholars have noted the influence of Nietzsche's thought on Wallace Stevens the publication of Early Stevens establishes for the first time the extent to which Nietzsche pervades Steven's early work Concentrating on poems published between 1915 and 1935 but moving occasionally into later poems as well as letters and essays B J Leggett draws together texts of Stevens and Nietzsche to produce new and surprising readings of the poet's early work For instance Peter Quince at the Clavier is read in the light of Nietzsche's discussion of Apollonian and Dionysian art in The Birth of Tragedy Stevens early poems on religion including principally Sunday Morning are seen through the perspective of Nietzsche's doctrines of the transvaluation of values genealogy and the innocence of becoming Stevens notions of femininity virility and poetry are examined in relation to Nietzsche's texts on gender and creativity This intertextual critique reveals previously undisclosed ideologies operating at the margins of Stevens work enabling Leggett to read aspects of the poetry that have until now been unreadable Early Stevens also considers such issues as Stevens perspectivism his aphoristic style the Nietzschean epistemology of his poems of order and the implications of notions of art untruth fiction and interpretation in both Stevens and Nietzsche Though many critics have discussed the concept of intertextuality few have attempted a truly intertextual reading of a particular poet Early Stevens is an exemplary model of such a reading marking a significant advance in both the form and substance of our understanding of this quintessential modern poet
