Ethics of Data and Analytics Kirsten Martin, 2022-05-12 The ethics of data and analytics in many ways is no different than any endeavor to find the right answer When a business chooses a supplier funds a new product or hires an employee managers are making decisions with moral implications The decisions in business like all decisions have a moral component in that people can benefit or be harmed rules are followed or broken people are treated fairly or not and rights are enabled or diminished However data analytics introduces wrinkles or moral hurdles in how to think about ethics Questions of accountability privacy surveillance bias and power stretch standard tools to examine whether a decision is good ethical or just Dealing with these questions requires different frameworks to understand what is wrong and what could be better Ethics of Data and Analytics Concepts and Cases does not search for a new different answer or to ban all technology in favor of human decision making The text takes a more skeptical ironic approach to current answers and concepts while identifying and having solidarity with others Applying this to the endeavor to understand the ethics of data and analytics the text emphasizes finding multiple ethical approaches as ways to engage with current problems to find better solutions rather than prioritizing one set of concepts or theories The book works through cases to understand those marginalized by data analytics programs as well as those empowered by them Three themes run throughout the book First data analytics programs are value laden in that technologies create moral consequences reinforce or undercut ethical principles and enable or diminish rights and dignity This places an additional focus on the role of developers in their incorporation of values in the design of data analytics programs Second design is critical In the majority of the cases examined the purpose is to improve the design and development of data analytics programs Third data analytics artificial intelligence and machine learning are about power The discussion of power who has it who gets to keep it and who is marginalized weaves throughout the chapters theories and cases In discussing ethical frameworks the text focuses on critical theories that question power structures and default assumptions and seek to emancipate the marginalized Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). The Compact Edition of the Oxford English Dictionary Sir James Augustus Henry Murray,1971 Micrographic reproduction of the 13 volume Oxford English dictionary published in 1933 Ortega as Phenomenologist Philip Silver,1978-01-01 Studies in Phenomenological and Classical Realism Giovanni Reale,1987 Transformations of Urban and Suburban Landscapes Gary Backhaus,John Murungi,2002-01-01 The study of landscape and place has become an increasingly fertile realm of inquiry in the humanities and social sciences In this new book of essays selected from presentations at the first annual meeting of the Society for Philosophy and Geography scholars investigate the experiences and meanings that inscribe urban and suburban landscapes Gary Backhaus and John Murungi bring philosophy and geography into a dialogue with a host of other disciplines to explore a fundamental dialectic while our collective and personal activity modifies the landscape in turn the landscape modifies human identities and social and environmental relations Whether proposing a peripatetic politics conducting a sociological analysis of building security systems or critically examining the formation of New York City s municipal parks each essay sheds distinctive light on this fascinating and engaging aspect of contemporary environmental studies Persons: Theories and Perceptions Désirée Park,1973-07-15 This volume grew out of a dissatisfaction with some issues that seem to be rooted in the Empiricist tradition At least since Locke that which is perceived has enjoyed a major share in any systematic account of what we claim to know A main purpose of this study therefore is first to distinguish and subsequently to relate what can be perceived and what can be understood To this end the account of persons and personal identity begins with a description of selected types of sense perceptions While writing a good part of the discussion on vision I had the advantage of questioning Dr P B Loder about the properties of light She not only clarified some issues but prevented several errors from creeping into the text a result for which I am very grateful I should like also to express my appreciation to Mrs G K Stamm Okkinga who provided hospitality and a friendly interest from the beginning of this study Finally I wish to thank Miss I Ris and Mr W de Regt for their careful and resourceful preparation of the typescript

REALISM AND THE BACKGROUND OF PHENOMENOLOGY ,1960 The Phenomenology of Henry James Paul B. Armstrong, Ten Years of Viewing from Within Claire Petitmengin,2009

Petitmengin has organized a collection of essays that examine and refine the research program on first person methods defined in The View from Within first published in 1999 with contributions based on empirical research Jean Toomer and the Prison-house of Thought Robert B. Jones,1993 Offering a critique of the subjective idealism that lies at the centre of Toomer s oeuvre through the lens of Lukac s theory of reification Robert B Jones frames his analysis in terms of Kierkegaard s stages of development the aesthetic the ethical and the religious The Theory of Difference Douglas L. Donkel,2001-03-29 Unlike other anthologies in continental thought this book focuses on a specific issue the theory of difference as the most effective way to generate interest and understanding not only of the specific issue in question but also of the deeper philosophical connections which constitute the historical fabric of a tradition Presented here are key texts some of which were previously out of print from Martin Heidegger Maurice Merleau Ponty Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida and Luce Irigaray that have been selected to highlight each thinker s understanding of difference as well as suggesting its implications for a range of issues as ostensibly diverse as the question of Being the meaning of justice the problem of translation the status of theological language sexual difference and the nature of the postmodern
