Phenomenology and Existence Marvin Farber, 1967 Sociology, Ethnomethodology and Experience Mary F.

Rogers, 1983-11-25 In this volume first published in 1983 Professor Rogers examines the usefulness of a phenomenological approach to sociology Her broad purpose is to demonstrate the theoretical and methodological advantages phenomenological sociology holds Thus she offers a selective introductory exposition of phenomenology highlighting its relevance for social scientists and undercutting the notion of phenomenology as a non scientific subjective or esoteric method of study

Phenomenology and the Natural Sciences Joseph J. Kockelmans, Theodore J. Kisiel, 1970 Freedom and Existence

Matthew Aaron Tennant, 2023-08-07 Is theology a dead corpse or living organism For Uruguayan Jesuit Juan Luis Segundo

1925 1996 theology is dynamic Freedom and existence for central themes Segundo believed that theology should be transformative in human lives For a theology to be transformative there must be a connection to existence That is it must be existential Yet most scholars have overlooked this assumption in critical analyses of liberation theology This prima facie connection to existence is distinguishable from existentialism as a school of philosophy By showing the significant existential dimension to Segundo s theology assessing his work and contribution to twentieth century theology relates to freedom ecumenism the role of faith in society and the relationship between faith and ideologies Phenomenology and Existence M.

Farber, 1984-01 Advancing Phenomenology Thomas Nenon, Philip Blosser, 2010-09-08 Philip Blosser and Thomas Nenon The essays in the volume were assembled in honor of Lester Embree who celebrated his 70th birthday on January 9 2008 A preview of this volume was presented to Professor Embree at a reception sponsored by the Center for Advanced Research in Phenomenology that was held in his honor at the 2008 meeting of the Husserl Circle at Marquette University in Milwaukee Wisconsin The title Advancing Phenomenology is purposely ambiguous On the one hand these essays document the progress that phenomenology as an ongoing and vibrant movement has made in the period of over a century since its inception They illustrate the advance of phenomenology both in terms of the range of topics represented in this volume and in terms of the disciplinary and geographical diversity of the scholars who have contributed to it The topics range from scholarly appropriations of past achievements in phenomenology to concrete phenomenological investigations into ethics gender and environmental philosophy as well as phenomenological reflections on the foundations of disciplines outside philosophy such as psychology history the social sciences and archeology The contributors come both from philosophy departments and from a number of disciplines outside of philosophy such as sociology psychology and archeology and they come from all around the world from North America from Western and Eastern Europe from Latin America and from several different countries in Asia The New Encyclopedia of Unbelief Tom Flynn, 2007-04-30 Successor to the highly acclaimed Encyclopedia of Unbelief 1985 edited by the late Gordon Stein the New Encyclopedia of Unbelief is a comprehensive

Merleau-Ponty In Contemporary Perspectives P. Burke, J. van der Veken, 2012-12-06 Merleau Ponty in contemporary perspective this was the theme of the conference at the Institute of Philosophy Katholieke Universiteit Leuven K U L from 29 November to 1 December 1991 Thirty years after Merleau Ponty's untimely death it seemed appropriate to bring together scholars from Europe and from the United States of America to reappraise his philosophy In fact a significant body of scholarship has emerged which would seem to attest to the continuing importance of his thought for a variety of disciplines within the humanities the social sciences and the philosophy of nature In the present volume Gary Brent Madison addresses the issue whether Merleau Ponty can be considered to be a classical philosopher The fact that his work is one of the highlights of the phenomenological tradition and is of continuing inspiration for researchers in various domains seems to justify that claim Yet it is the feeling of many of the contributors to this volume that the so called second Merleau Ponty is still not really known The unfinished state of The Visible and the Invisible and the cryptic condition of many of the Working Notes may be responsible for that More research should be done to uncover the unsaid of Merleau Ponty

Philosophy's Nature: Husserl's Phenomenology, Natural Science, and Metaphysics Emiliano Trizio, 2020-08-31 This book offers a systematic interpretation of the relation between natural science and metaphysics in Husserl's phenomenology It shows that Husserl's account of scientific knowledge is a radical alternative to established methods and frameworks in contemporary philosophy of science The author's interpretation of Husserl's philosophy offers a critical reconstruction of the historical context from which his phenomenological approach developed as well as new interpretations of key Husserlian concepts such as metaphysics idealization life world objectivism crisis of the sciences and historicity The development of Husserl's philosophical project is marked by the tension between natural science and transcendental phenomenology While natural science provides a paradigmatic case of the way in which transcendental phenomenology ontology empirical science and metaphysics can be articulated it has also been the object of philosophical misunderstandings that have determined the current cultural and philosophical crisis This book demonstrates the ways in which Husserl shows that our conceptions of philosophy and of nature are inseparable Philosophy's Nature will appeal to scholars and advanced students who are interested in Husserl and the relations between phenomenology natural science and metaphysics

Cambridge Companion to Merleau-Ponty Taylor Carman, Mark B. N. Hansen, Mark Boris Nicola Hansen, 2005 Publisher Description The Dilemma of Modernity Lawrence Cahoon, 1988-01-01 The development of modern culture along subjectivist lines has led to an analogue of psychological narcissism to philosophical narcissism in the culture The intrinsic value of human cultural activity has been lost and the intellectual foundation of the modern world view has been destroyed Cahoon carefully develops the idea of subjectivity and narcissism using psychological theory the dialectical theory of the Frankfurt school and historians The core of his interpretive argument is developed through careful analysis of Descartes and Kant as well as of Husserl and Heidegger Cahoon maintains a carefully controlled continuity between the analysis of philosophic positions and what they reveal about culture In the conclusion he moves toward a recreation of culture in non subjectivist naturalism Insights are drawn from Freud Fairbairn Winnicott Kohut Sennett Lasch Horkheimer Adorno Dewey Cassirer Kundera and Buchler Ethics, Morality, and Human Nature Hector Davidson, This is a bundle of the following existing bibliographies it was not possible to include publications in languages other than those mentioned. The bibliography has been constructed in the following way:

1. The list of Husserl's works and secondary literature by individual authors is preceded by a list of all edited volumes in which a text by or on Husserl is published. This list is ordered chronologically and runs from 1921 to 1997 inclusive. Edited volumes of the same year are classified according to language and this in the order mentioned above: German, English, French, etc. Edited volumes with a title in more than one language are classified according to the above order of languages; this of course concerns only the title of the edited volume, not the titles of the individual contributions. This order is maintained throughout the other parts of the bibliography.

Does the World Exist?
 Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06. Does the World exist? There would be no reason to resurrect this question of modernity from its historical oblivion were it not for the fact that recent evolution in science and technology impregnating culture makes us wonder about the nature of reality of the world we are living in and of our status as living beings within it. Thus great metaphysical subjacent queries are forcefully revived, calling for new investigations to proceed in the light of the innumerable novel insights of science. This collection presents a wealth of material toward an elaboration of a new metaphysical groundwork of the onto-poiesis phenomenology of life sought to effect such investigations. The classic postulates of the metaphysics of reality: those of necessity and certainty here find a new formulation. Away from sclerotized ontological and cognitive assumptions and congenial with the views of contemporary science, the understanding of reality of our world of life and of ourselves within it is to be sought in the existential onto-poietic ciphering of life. Tymieniecka.

Heaven, Earth, and In-Between in the Harmony of Life
 Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06. This volume marks a phase of accomplishment in the work of the World Phenomenology Institute in unfolding a dialogue between Occidental phenomenology and the Oriental Chinese classic philosophy. Going beyond the stage of reception, the Oriental scholars show in this collection of studies their perspicacity and philosophical skills in comparing the concepts, ideas, the vision of classic phenomenology and Chinese philosophy toward uncovering their common intuitions. This in-depth probing aims at reviving Occidental thinking reaching to its intuitive sources as well as providing Chinese thinking with a precise apparatus of expression toward its rejuvenation in a new significance. Studies by Korean and Chinese phenomenologists: Nam In Lee, Inhui Park, Benjamin I. Schwartz, Anna Teresa Tymieniecka, Sitansu Ray, Zhang Xian, Zhang Qingxiong, Tsung I. Dow, Ashok K. Gangadean, Yushiro Takei, Louise Sunderarajan, Gregory Tropea, James Sellmann, Tyong Bok Rhie, Sang Ki Kim, Daniel Zelinski, Qingjie Wang, Calvin O. Schrag, Jung Sun Han.
