Phenomenology Structuralism Semiology:

Phenomenology, Structuralism, Semiology Harry Raphael Garvin, 1976      Phenomenology, Structuralism, Semiology Patrick Brady, 1976 This issue of the Bucknell Review studies the achievements of phenomenology and structuralism and their role in philosophy and in preparing for the emergence of semiotics The articles in this volume reflect the preoccupations of the past decade It is hoped that these essays will suggest some practical critical analysis on this subject

Japanese and Western Phenomenology Philip Blosser, 1993-01-31 This volume has been developed from the first extensive meeting of Japanese and Western phenomenologists which was sponsored by the Center for Advanced Research in Phenomenology Inc and the Phenomenological Association of Japan and held in Santa City Chiefly philosophical and chiefly concerned with Husserl's thought it also shows links with several human sciences and such figures as Wilhelm Dilthey Eugen Fink Martin Heidegger Max Scheler Alfred Schutz and well as with Zen and the Japanese tradition in phenomenology which is second only to the German in age and has recently blossomed anew Further such meetings have occurred and are planning building upon this foundation

Embodiment in the Semiotic Matrix Isaac E. Catt, 2017-09-22 Communicology is widely accepted on the international scene as a new name for the study of human communication It replaces several equivocal disciplinary conceptions such as communication which may fail to distinguish the science of communication from its object of investigation or the message centered communication studies which often obfuscates information exchange with the experience of shared meaning in human encounters Communicology differs from the American mainstream social science of communication not only because it is grounded in communication theory rather than information theory but also because it advances a philosophically informed ecological perspective on human discourse This book is intended as a contribution to the philosophy of communication and the human science of communicology Semiotic phenomenology is thoroughly described as the synthetic logic that combines a philosophy of consciousness with a science of culture and conduct to explicate the lifeworld habitus Consciousness is viewed as cultural semiotic and experience as personal phenomenological This is a reciprocal reflexive relationship in which culture is conceived as consciousness of communication and communication the manifest experience of culture The book describes embodiment so conceived including the history of the matrix idea in

American pragmatism and European philosophy as they commingled in the United States to produce a unique discipline of communication the science of embodied discourse Important roots of this new discipline are described for the first time here in a unique synthesis of C S Peirce John Dewey Gregory Bateson and Pierre Bourdieu In addition the semiotic relativity hypothesis is argued to be an important implication of this new discipline Transcending the stale debate on language and thought the limited conception of linguistic relativity is considerably broadened and deepened The distinctive lifeworld of humans is argued to occur at the threshold of sign consciousness in the semiotic matrix of culture society person Semiotic phenomenology is not only a synthesis of two great European philosophical movements structuralism and phenomenology it is also the essence of American pragmatism This view culminates in the contemporary human science of communicology

Saussure's Philosophy of Language as Phenomenology Beata Stawarska, 2015-01-15 This book draws on recent developments in research on Ferdinand de Saussure's general linguistics to challenge the structuralist doctrine associated with the posthumous Course in General Linguistics 1916 and to develop a new philosophical interpretation of Saussure's conception of language based solely on authentic source materials This project follows two new editorial paradigms 1 a critical re-examination of the 1916 Course in light of the relevant sources and 2 a reclamation of the historically authentic materials from Saussure's Nachlass some of them recently discovered In Stawarska's book this editorial paradigm shift serves to expose the difficulties surrounding the official Saussurean doctrine with its sets of oppositional pairings the signifier and the signified la langue and la parole synchrony and diachrony The book therefore puts pressure not only on the validity of the posthumous editorial redaction of Saussure's course in general linguistics in the Course but also on its structuralist and post-structuralist legacy within the works of Levi Strauss Lacan and Derrida Its constructive contribution consists in reclaiming the writings from Saussure's Nachlass in the service of a linguistic phenomenology which intersects individual expression in the present with historically sedimented social conventions Stawarska develops such a conception of language by engaging Saussure's own reflections with relevant writings by Hegel Husserl Roman Jakobson and Merleau-Ponty Finally she enriches her philosophical critique with a detailed historical account of the material and institutional processes that led to the ghostwriting and legitimizing the Course as official Saussurean doctrine

Cultural Semiosis Hugh J. Silverman, 2014-04-23 Cultural Semiosis traces the theoretical itinerary of the signifier in the continental tradition Cultural semiosis provides links for cultural studies to the philosophical the literary the historical and the social Understood semiotically cultural signs and signifiers are inscribed in the fabric of cultural practices Cultural semiosis enters the spaces of everyday language visibility sexuality and symbolization These original essays interpret and provide tools for the understanding of cultural studies within a philosophical framework Contributors M Alison Arnett Debra Bergoffen Peter Carravetta Alessandro Carrera Julia Kristeva John Llewelyn Michael Naas Kelly Oliver Adi Ophir Francois Raffoul Mark Roberts Stephanie Sage Hugh J Silverman
