Invention of the American Art Museum Kathleen Curran,2016-07-01 American art museums share a mission and format that differ from those of their European counterparts which often have origins in aristocratic collections This groundbreaking work recounts the fascinating story of the invention of the modern American art museum starting with its roots in the 1870s in the craft museum type which was based on London s South Kensington now the Victoria and Albert Museum At the turn of the twentieth century American planners grew enthusiastic about a new type of museum and presentation that was developed in Northern Europe particularly in Germany Switzerland and Scandinavia Called Kulturgeschichte cultural history museums they were evocative displays of regional history American trustees museum directors and curators found that the Kulturgeschichte approach offered a variety of transformational options in planning museums classifying and displaying objects and broadening collecting categories including American art and the decorative arts Leading institutions including the Museum of Fine Arts Boston and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York adopted and developed crucial aspects of the Kulturgeschichte model By the 1930s such museum plans and exhibition techniques had become standard practice at museums across the country Museum Mile: Philadelphia's Parkway Museums Richard Carreño, 2011-10-13 Museum Mile takes a behind the scenes look at the arts and cultural treasures that line Philadelphia's Benjamin Franklin Parkway The Parkway hosts more than a dozen major cultural institutions including two the Barnes Foundation and the Philadelphia Museum of Art that are without peer Others like the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and the Rodin Museum and Garden a PMA subsidiary have a much heralded presence in the nation's arts world New Approaches to Naples c.1500-c.1800 Helen Hills, 2016-04-22 Early modern Naples has been characterized as a marginal wild and exotic place on the fringes of the European world and as such an appropriate target of attempts by Catholic missionaries and others to civilize the city Historiographically bypassed in favour of Venice Florence and Rome Naples is frequently seen as emblematic of the cultural and political decline in the Italian peninsula and as epitomizing the problems of southern Italy Yet as this volume makes plain such views blind us to some of its most extraordinary qualities and limit our understanding not only of one of the world's great capital cities but also of the wider social cultural and political dynamics of early modern Europe As the centre of Spanish colonial power within Europe during the vicerealty and with a population second only to Paris in early modern Europe Naples is a city that deserves serious study Further as a Habsburg dominion it offers vital points of comparison with non European sites which were subject to European colonialism While European colonization outside Europe has received intense scholarly attention its cultural impact and representation within Europe remain under explored Too much has been taken for granted Too few questions have been posed In the sphere of the visual arts investigation reveals that Neapolitan urbanism architecture painting and sculpture were of the highest quality during this period while differing significantly from those of other Italian cities For long ignored or treated as the subaltern sister of Rome this urban treasure house is only now receiving the attention from scholars that it has so long deserved This volume addresses the central paradoxes operating in early modern Italian scholarship It seeks to illuminate both the historiographical pressures that have marginalized Naples and to showcase important new developments in Neapolitan cultural history and art history Those developments showcased here include bot Islamic Art Collections Karin Ådahl, Mikael Ahlund, 2000 An annotated index and general orientation of Islamic art collections in museums libraries other institutions and on private hands Includes a short description of each collection its main characteristics documentation publications and exhibitions Annual Report National Endowment for the Arts, 1982 Reports for 1980-19 also include the Annual report of the National Council on the Arts The Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 Elizabeth A. Pergam, 2011 An overdue study of a groundbreaking event this is the first book length examination of the Manchester Art Treasures Exhibition of 1857 The book examines aesthetic social and economic issues of the day and follows the Exhibition's reverberations in the development of art history and museum practices to the present day A complete list of the exhibited works that are now in public collections throughout the world is also included
