Philharmonic Jubilee 1932 1982:

Philharmonic Jubilee, 1932-1982 Jerrold Northrop Moore, 1982 This book celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of the London Philharmonic Orchestra Drawing on the Orchestra's archives and on the private collections of past and present players it is a vivid evocation of the rise and often turbulent progress of one of Britain's great cultural institutions The LPO was founded by Sir Thomas Beecham in 1932 and throughout its history has been richly documented in pictures Rare photographs from the 1930s show the elegant world of Beecham's patronage in an Edwardian afterglow a world which was shattered by the Second World War Ralph Vaughan Williams and Adrian Boult Nigel Simeone, 2022 The first detailed study of the working relationship and productive friendship between Ralph Vaughan Williams 1872 1958 and Adrian Boult 1889 1983 From 1918 onwards Boult became one of Vaughan Williams's most important interpreters giving the world premieres of the Pastoral Fourth and Sixth Symphonies performing almost all his major works not only at home but with some of the world's greatest orchestras and working in close collaboration with the composer on major projects including the first complete recording of Vaughan Williams's symphonies Boult continued to be the most devoted advocate of Vaughan Williams's music to the end of his long career As this book shows Boult's scores include numerous annotations derived from conversations and correspondence with Vaughan Williams and these provide important evidence of the composer's wishes including adjustments to orchestration comments on interpretation dynamics phrasing and revisions to Vaughan Williams's notoriously unreliable metronome marks The evidence of these scores is considered alongside the extensive correspondence between Vaughan Williams and Boult Boult's private diaries and other relevant documents including contemporary press reports The book includes three substantial supplements a detailed description of Boult's marked scores a comprehensive list of Boult's Vaughan Williams performances and a discography including surviving recordings of unpublished broadcasts It will be indispensable reading for scholars and students of Vaughan Williams and historical conducting Vaughan Williams enthusiasts and those interested in the history of recorded music The evidence of these scores is considered alongside the extensive correspondence between Vaughan Williams and Boult Boult's private diaries and other relevant documents including contemporary press reports The book includes three substantial supplements a detailed description of Boult's marked scores a comprehensive list of Boult's Vaughan Williams performances and a discography including surviving recordings of unpublished broadcasts It will be indispensable reading for scholars and
