BIBLE STUDIES

"I thank my God every time I remember you . . ."
(Philippians 1:3)

"I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you in the grace of Christ . . ."

Philippians and Galatians

The letters to the Philippian and Galatian congregations illustrate well the passion and intensity of the writing of the apostle Paul. Philippians is perhaps Paul's warmest letter, affirming the already close relationship between the Philippians and Paul with the language of partnership, joy, and humility. Galatians, on the other hand, reveals frustration and anger and lacks the expression of thanksgiving typically found near the beginning of Paul's letters. Although Paul presumes a relationship of trust and respect with the Philippians, the tone of Galatians suggests that he thinks he may already have lost this community to an erroneous vision of the gospel—a perspective that was not really the gospel at all.

Philippians and Galatians Stanley P. Saunders, 2001-09-01 The letters to the Philippian and Galatian congregations illustrate well the passion and intensity of Paul's writing Together these letters provide a compelling portrait of a complex original thinker who probably was the most significant missionary of his day a theologian and social critic of rare power and insight whose legacy continues today to spark heated debate Yet if we can catch even a little of Paul's vision we are likely to be transformed We may find ourselves called like Paul himself to a fresh vision of what God is doing in the world and to participation in the crucified body of Christ Interpretation Bible Studies IBS offers solid biblical content in a creative study format Forged in the tradition of the celebrated Interpretation commentary series IBS makes the same depth of biblical insight available in a dynamic flexible and user friendly resource Designed for adults and older youth IBS can be used in small groups in church school classes in large group presentations or in personal study Philippians and Galatians Stanley P.
