Philomena's Revenge Rita Ann Higgins, 1993      Is Rita Ann Higgins's Collection Philomena's Revenge Poetry ? Maxime Galopin, 2010      Modern Irish Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez, 1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940 the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature some of whom are counted among the world's greatest authors The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland's literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Friel Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers including Samuel Beckett William Trevor Patrick Kavanagh Medbh McGuckian Sean O'Casey J M Synge and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author's career a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume      A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson, Alice Entwistle, 2005-05-19 Publisher Description      The Cambridge Companion to Contemporary Irish Poetry Matthew Campbell, 2003-08-28 In the last fifty years Irish poets have produced some of the most exciting poetry in contemporary literature writing about love and sexuality violence and history country and city This book first published in 2003 provides an introduction to major figures such as Seamus Heaney and also introduces the reader to significant precursors like Louis MacNeice or Patrick Kavanagh and vital contemporaries and successors among others Thomas Kinsella Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill and Paul Muldoon Readers will find discussions of Irish poetry from the traditional to the modernist written in Irish as well as English from both North and South This Companion provides cultural and historical background to contemporary Irish poetry in the contexts of modern Ireland but also in the broad currents of modern world literature It includes a chronology and guide to further reading and will prove invaluable to students and teachers alike      Irish Women Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez, 2005-11-30 Irish women writers have a large following and their works are attracting large amounts of scholarly and critical attention Through roughly 75 alphabetically arranged entries written by more than 35 expert contributors this reference overviews the lives and works of Irish women writers active in a range of genres and periods Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer's critical reception and a list of works by and about the author The volume closes with a selected general bibliography Ireland has an especially lively literary tradition and works by Irish writers have long been recognized as interesting and influential While male writers have received the bulk of the critical attention given to Irish literature contemporary women writers are among the most widely read Irish authors This reference overviews the lives and works of Irish women writers active in a range of periods and genres Included are roughly 75 alphabetically arranged entries written by more than 35 expert contributors Among the writers discussed are Elizabeth Bowen Mary Dorsey Lady Isabella Augusta Gregory Anne Hartigan Norah Hoult Paula Meehan Iris Murdoch Edna O'Brien Katharine Tynan Sheila Wingfield And many more Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes a review of the writer's critical reception and a list of works by and about the writer The volume closes with a selected general bibliography

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty-five years This is an opportunity for stock-taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post-colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women's writing

International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world-wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well-known poets talented up-and-coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes

The Wake Forest Book of Irish Women's Poetry, 1967-2000 Peggy O'Brien, 1999 With poetry by nine of Ireland's finest poets Eilís Ní Chuiléain Eavan Boland Medbh McGuckian Kerry Hardie Nuala O'Donoghue Mary O'Malley Rita Ann Higgins Paula Meehan Moya Cannon

Medbh McGuckian Borbála Faragó, 2014-03-27 This book offers a wide-ranging analysis of the entire corpus of Medbh McGuckian's published work Its objective is to provide both a readable synthesis of existing criticism in a fashion which will be generally useful to academics and students and also to offer an original contribution to the field of contemporary Irish literary studies on the basis of new research The book investigates a variety of previously neglected themes in particular McGuckian's exploration of ideas of creativity and performativity in her poetry Over the past two decades McGuckian has been recognized by both her fellow poets and by literary critics as one of the most original daring and important poetic voices in contemporary Ireland Since 1982 she has published fifteen volumes of poetry extraordinary not merely for its sustained quality and linguistic and technical virtuosity but also for its constant evolution and reinvention This book provides an original perspective on her work both thematically and methodologically From a thematic perspective the process of artistic creation is a key preoccupation of McGuckian s poetry which recurs in every volume of her oeuvre but has previously escaped critical attention By adapting and refining theories of singularity and creativity the book allows for a coherent analysis of this central aspect of McGuckian s work Methodologically it differs from previous studies in the scope of its approach Uniquely it pursues its investigation across the entire breadth of the poet s published output and emphasizes the thematic unity of individual volumes in the light of the poet s constant change and development Throughout the book the reading of McGuckian s work concentrates on poems in their entirety an approach which has not figured to any notable degree in the existing secondary literature on the poet not least because of the perceived difficulty of her writing A critical investigation however which respects both the integrity of the individual poems and the internal coherence of her various volumes allows for a far deeper understanding both of the poet s thematic preoccupations and of the evolution of her distinctive poetic voice

Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce,2000 With five Nobel Prize winners seven Pulitzer Prize winners and two Booker Prize winning novelists modern Irish writing has contributed something special and permanent to our understanding of the twentieth century Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century provides a useful comprehensive and pleasurable introduction to modern Irish literature in a single volume Organized chronologically by decade this anthology provides the reader with a unique sense of the development and richness of Irish writing and of the society it reflected It embraces all forms of writing not only the major forms of drama fiction and verse but such material as travel writing personal memoirs journalism interviews and radio plays to offer the reader a complete and wonderfully varied sense of Ireland s contribution our literary heritage David Pierce has selected major literary figures as well as neglected ones and includes many writers from the Irish diaspora The range of material is enormous and ensures that work that is inaccessible or out of print is now easily available The book is a delightful compilation including many well known pieces and captivating discoveries which anyone interested in literature will long enjoy browsing and dipping into

Wee Girls Lizz Murphy,1996 This is a selection of writings by women from Ireland Australia England Canada and other countries compiled and edited by Irish Australian poet Lizz Murphy A moving and often amusing collection of fiction poetry and autobiography by top selling and award winning writers There is a wildness and daring in these voices They call up the legions out of the sea and set fires alight They hang out over garden fences move restlessly are beaming weeping powerful

Arguments of Heart and Mind Jan Montefiore,2002 Amitav Ghosh is an authoritative critical introduction to the fictional and non fictional writings of one of the most celebrated and significant literary voices to have emerged from India in recent decades It is the first full length study of Amitav Ghosh's work to be available outside India Encompassing all of Ghosh's fictional and non-fictional writings to date this book takes a thematic approach which enables in depth analysis of the cluster of themes ideas and issues that Ghosh has steadily built up into a substantial intellectual project This project overlaps significantly with many of the key debates in postcolonial studies and so this book is both an introduction to Ghosh's writing and a contribution to the development of ideas on the postcolonial in particular its relation to postmodernism Amitav Ghosh is for students and teachers of postcolonial literatures in English at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels

From the Valley of Bronze Camels Jane Miller, 2022-07-26 Jane Miller loves poetry In these provocative and deeply insightful essays she unpacks the work of giants like Adrienne Rich Paul Celan Marina Tsvetaeva Osip Mandelstam and Federico García Lorca alongside painters such as Caravaggio and Paul Klee as well as ancient Chinese music and techniques of the contemporary poem Miller explores the use of the question mark in the history of poetry and its function as a revelation of poetic voice She considers the positive and negative aspects of surrealism on the contemporary poem its anti feminist origins in France its contemporary usage and the benefits of super real images Miller examines how identity politics might affect the imagination She describes ancient Chinese musical instruments to show how their sounds resonate off in American poems and on the aural integrity of the lyric poem She interrogates the political implications of language and the degeneration and regeneration of words Finally in an essay about what she dares not say about poetry she comes out against forms of surrealism narrative jargon rhetoric irony and appropriation This masterful work can be read as advice to a young writer but it also invites us into the mind of a writer who has developed her craft through the course of a lifetime of writing reading and exploring the world showing not only the ideas that influenced her feminist lesbian and international works but also how Miller has in turn influenced ideas

Gender, Poetry, and the Form of Thought in Later Medieval Literature Jennifer Jahner, Ingrid Nelson, 2022-02-09 Over the course of her career Elizabeth Robertson has pursued innovative scholarship that investigates the overlapping domains of medieval philosophy literature and gender studies This collection of essays dedicated to her work examines gender as a construct of language a mode of embodiment and a critical framework for thinking about the past Its eleven contributors approach the figure of the gendered body in medieval English writing along several axes poetic philosophical material textual and historical The volume focuses on the ways that the medieval body becomes a site of inquiry and agency whether in the form of the idealized feminine body of secular and religious lyric the sexually permissive and permeable body of fabliau or the intercessory body of religious devotional writing The essays span a broad range of medieval literary works from the lais of Marie de France to Pearl to Piers Plowman and the poetry of Geoffrey Chaucer and a broad range of methodological approaches from philosophy to affect and manuscript studies Taken together they celebrate the scholarly career of Elizabeth Robertson while also presenting a coherent and multifaceted investigation of the intersections of gender and medieval literary practice

Poems Cristoforo Landino, 2008 Cristoforo Landino 1424-1498 one of the great scholar poets of the Renaissance is best known today for his Platonizing commentaries on Dante and Vergil His most substantial work of poetry was his Three Books on Xandra written while still a young man They consist primarily of love poetry in Latin directed to his lady love Alessandra but they also chronicle his life friendships literary studies and the patronage of his work by Piero de Medici Inspired equally by the ancient Roman love elegy and by Petrarch's Canzoniere the poems illustrate the mingling of classical and vernacular traditions characteristic of the age of Lorenzo de Medici Also included in this volume is the Carmina Varia a collection whose centerpiece is a group of elegies directed to the Venetian humanist Bernardo Bembo These bring to life the Platonic passion Bembo conceived for Ginevra de Benci later the subject of a famous painting by Leonardo da Vinci This edition contains the first translation of both works into English
