Philosophical Horizon Of Composition In The Twentieth Century:

Philosophical Horizons Yang Guorong, 2019-01-28 Professor Yang Guorong is one of the foremost living philosophers in China and is widely known for the development of his concrete metaphysics. In Philosophical Horizons Yang offers penetrating discussions of some of the most important issues in modern philosophy especially those topics related to comparative and Chinese philosophy. Drawing freely and adroitly on Confucian, Daoist and Buddhist texts while staging a dialogue with Western thinkers such as from Kant and Hegel to Marx, Heidegger and Wittgenstein, Yang shows how contemporary Chinese philosophy has adopted, localized and critically developed Western ideas alongside traditional Chinese concepts.

The Oxford Handbook of Critical Concepts in Music Theory Alexander Rehding, Steven Rings, 2019 Music Theory operates with a number of fundamental terms that are rarely explored in detail. This book offers in depth reflections on key concepts from a range of philosophical and critical approaches that reflect the diversity of the contemporary music theory landscape.

Music and Narrative Since 1900 Michael L. Klein, Nicholas W. Reyland, 2013 This comprehensive volume offers a wide ranging perspective on the stories that art music has told since the start of the 20th century. Contributors challenge the broadly held opinion that the loss of tonality in some music after 1900 also meant the loss of narrative in that music. To the contrary, the editors and essayists in this book demonstrate how experiments in approaching narrative in other media such as fiction and cinema suggested fresh possibilities for musical narrative which composers were quick to exploit. The new conceptions of time, narrative, voice, plot and character that accompanied these experiments also had a significant impact on contemporary music. The repertoire explored in the collection ranges across a wide variety of genres and includes composers from Charles Ives and the Pet Shop Boys to Thomas Adès and Dmitri Shostakovich.

The Cambridge Companion to Serialism Martin Iddon, 2023-02-16 An authoritative guide to the multifaceted compositional approach that underpinned twentieth century art music from Schoenberg to Babbitt and beyond.

The Battle of Chronos and Orpheus Jean-Jacques Nattiez, 2004 In this collection of previously unpublished essays Jean Jacques Nattiez applies his theoretical foundations of musical semiotics to theorists such as Lévi Strauss, Hanslick and Brailoiu, novelists such as Proust and poets such as Baudelaire. The author treats problems which musicologists and music lovers alike need to address: the artistic product in music, oral tradition, the nature of musical facts and questions of fidelity and authenticity in performance practice. Nattiez tackles these perennial issues with an originality born out of his focus on the status of time in the works considered. This approach allows him to take sides, sometimes in a provocative manner, in the ongoing debates which pit adherents of modernity against apologists of postmodernism.

A History of Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Christian Delacampagne, 2001-11-05 In A History of Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Christian Delacampagne reviews the discipline's divergent and dramatic course and shows that its greatest figures, even the most unworldly among them, were deeply affected by events of their time. From Ludwig Wittgenstein whose famous Tractatus was actually composed in the trenches during World War I to Edmund Husserl and Martin Heidegger one who found himself barred from public life with Hitler's coming to power the other a member of the Nazi party who later refused to repudiate German war crimes From Bertrand Russell whose lifelong pacifism led him to turn from logic and mathematics to social and moral questions and Jean Paul Sartre who made philosophy an occasion for direct and personal political engagement to Rudolf Carnap a committed socialist and Karl Popper a resolute opponent of Communism From the Vienna Circle and the Frankfurt School to the contemporary work of philosophers as variously minded as Jacques Derrida Jürgen Habermas and Hilary Putnam The thinking of these philosophers and scores of others cannot be understood without being placed in the context of the times in which they lived

Tetsugaku Companion to Phenomenology and Japanese Philosophy Shigeru TAGUCHI, Andrea ALTOBRANDO, 2020-01-29 This volume addresses the impact of the introduction of phenomenology in Japan and its interaction with Japanese philosophy It is well known that phenomenology was introduced at a very early stage in Japan Furthermore phenomenology still constitutes one of the main currents of thought in Japan However the specific way in which phenomenology has interacted with the indigenous Japanese tradition of thought and Japanese culture has until now not been addressed in great detail This volume fills that gap It discusses in detail the encounter and the interaction between Japanese thought and phenomenological reflection with special regards to the topics of awareness and the self the experience of otherness ethics and metaphysical issues The book shows how phenomenology has served and still serves Japan to re-comprehend its own tradition and its specific forms of culture At the same time it offers an example of how different cultures and traditions can be both preserved and developed in their reciprocal action More in general it advances the philosophical debate beyond cultural enclosures and beyond mere scholasticism The phenomenological tradition has always been open to new and alien ideas An encounter with Japanese philosophy can offer a new challenge to actual phenomenological thinking

The Concept of Time in Early Twentieth-Century Philosophy Flavia Santoianni, 2015-11-26 This book presents a collection of authoritative contributions on the concept of time in early twentieth century philosophy It is structured in the form of a thematic atlas each section is accompanied by relevant elementary logic maps that reproduce in a spatial form the directionalities arguments and or discourses reported on in the text The book is divided into three main sections the first of which covers phenomenology and the perception of time by analyzing the works of Bergson Husserl Sartre Merleau Ponty Deleuze Guattari and Derrida The second section focuses on the language and conceptualization of time examining the works of Cassirer Wittgenstein Heidegger Lacan Ricoeur and Foucault while the last section addresses the science and logic of time as they appear in the works of Guillaume Einstein Reichenbach Prigogine and Barbour The purpose of the book is threefold to provide readers with a comprehensive overview of the concept of time in early twentieth century philosophy to show how
