English Julian Hawthorne, 1915 Screening Shakespeare in the Twenty-First Century Mark Thornton Burnett, 2006-09-27

This bold new collection offers an innovative discussion of Shakespeare on screen after the millennium Cutting edge and fully up to date it surveys the rich field of Bardic film representations from Michael Almereyda's Hamlet to the BBC Shakespea Re

Told season from Michael Radford's The Merchant of Venice to Peter Babakitis' Henry V. In addition to offering in depth analyses of all the major productions, Screening Shakespeare in the Twenty First Century includes reflections upon the less well known filmic Shakespeares which encompass cinema advertisements, appropriations, post colonial reinventions and mass media citations and which move across and between genres and mediums. Arguing that Shakespeare is a magnet for negotiations about style, value and literary authority, the essays contend that screen reinterpretations of England's most famous dramatist simultaneously address concerns centred upon nationality and ethnicity, gender and romance and McDonaldisation and the political process, thereby constituting an important intervention in the debates of the new century. As a result, through consideration of such offerings as the Derry Film Initiative's Hamlet, the New Zealand Maori Merchant of Venice and the television documentary In Search of Shakespeare, this collection is able to assess as never before the continuing relevance of Shakespeare in his local and global screen incarnations. Features Only collection like it on the market bringing the subject up to date. Twenty first century focus and international coverage. Innovative discussion of a wide range of films and television. Accessibly written for students and general readers. *The Lock and Key Library: Modern English. Elephant Company Vicki Croke, 2015-04-14 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK
The remarkable story of James Howard Billy Williams whose uncanny rapport with the world's largest land animals transformed him from a carefree young man into the charismatic war hero known as Elephant Bill. In 1920 Billy Williams came to colonial Burma as a forest man for a British teak company. Mesmerized by the intelligence and character of the great animals who hauled logs through the jungle, he became a gifted elephant wallah. In Elephant Company, Vicki Constantine Croke chronicles Williams's growing love for elephants as the animals provide him lessons in courage, trust and gratitude. Elephant Company is also a tale of war and daring. When Japanese forces invaded Burma in 1942, Williams joined the elite British Force 136 and operated behind enemy lines. His war elephants carried supplies, helped build bridges and transported the sick and elderly over treacherous mountain terrain. As the occupying authorities put a price on his head, Williams and his elephants faced their most perilous test. Elephant Company, cornered by the enemy, attempted a desperate escape: a risky trek over the mountainous border to India with a bedraggled group of refugees in tow. Part biography, part war epic, Elephant Company is an inspirational narrative that illuminates a little known chapter in the annals of wartime heroism. Praise for Elephant Company: This book is about far more than just the war or even elephants. This is the story of friendship, loyalty and breathtaking bravery that transcends species. Elephant Company is nothing less than a sweeping tale masterfully written. Sara Gruen, The New York Times Book Review. Splendid. Blending biography, history and wildlife biology, Vicki Constantine Croke's story is an often moving account of Billy Williams who earned the sobriquet Elephant Bill and his unusual bond with the largest land mammals on earth. The Boston Globe. Some of the biggest heroes of World War II were even bigger than you.

thought You may never call the lion the king of the jungle again New York Post Vicki Constantine Croke delivers an exciting tale of this elephant whisperer cum war hero while beautifully reminding us of the enduring bonds between animals and humans Mitchell Zuckoff author of Lost in Shangri La and Frozen in Time
