Book Review Index Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2005-09 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year      Rhythmic Reflections S Scott Jr ,2025-06-01 This is a collections of songs and poems that I ve created during the first half of 2025 They have been inspired by public health classes Sunday School classes 12 step recovery principles family Union activism personal growth and health      Worlds Apart Benjamin Paloff,2025-04-29 A number of European authors who survived concentration camps ghettos and besieged cities in the middle of the twentieth century chose not to write straightforward memoirs or testimonials but instead to fictionalize their experiences By manipulating narrative time and point of view and altering biographical facts these writers produced literary texts that challenge common notions of what constitutes an appropriate representation of collective trauma How might such works provide a deeper understanding of historical truth than the facts alone What does the literature of the camps reveal about present day spaces of confinement Worlds Apart explores the ethics of representation by reading the works of writers who use the techniques of literary fiction to depict survival in these precarious spaces Benjamin Paloff traces the complex relationship between fact and truth in these texts disentangling writers individual experiences from fictional elements that universalize that experience and in so doing show the camp to be an institution of the present Touring the unusual genre conventions of these works he weighs crucial questions about what constitutes truth in historical representation literature and the popular imagination Reading across Czech French German Polish Russian and Yiddish including lesser known and untranslated works Paloff considers portrayals of the Shoah the Gulag the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising and the blockade of Leningrad Bold nuanced and rich in comparative insight Worlds Apart argues forcefully for the moral urgency of recognizing that the camp is not simply a historical artifact but a basic institution of contemporary society      Armenian and Jewish Experience between Expulsion and Destruction Sarah M. Ross,Regina Randhofer,2021-11-22 Jews and Armenians are often perceived as peoples with similar tragic historical experiences Not only were both groups forced into statelessness and a life outside their homelands for centuries in the 20th century in the shadow of war they were threatened with collective annihilation Thus far academic approaches to these two classical diasporas have been quite different Moreover Armenian and

Jewish questions posed during the 19th and 20th centuries have usually been treated separately The conference We Will Live After Babylon that took place in Hanover in February 2019 addressed this gap in research and was one of the first initiatives to deal directly with Jewish and Armenian historical experiences between expulsion exile and annihilation in a comparative framework The contributions in this volume take on multidisciplinary approaches relating to the conference s central themes diaspora minority issues and genocide

Holocaust, War and Transnational Memory Stijn Vervaet, 2017-11-23 Until now there has been little scholarly attention given to the ways in which Eastern European Holocaust fiction can contribute to current debates about transnational and transgenerational memory Yugoslav and post Yugoslav literary narratives about the Holocaust offer a particularly interesting case because time and again Holocaust memory is represented as intersecting with other stories of extreme violence with the suffering of the non Jewish South Slav population during the Second World War with the fate of victims of Stalinist terror and with the victims of ethnic cleansing in the Yugoslav wars of the 1990s This book examines the emergence and transformations of Holocaust memory in the socialist Yugoslav and post Yugoslav eras It discusses literary texts about the Holocaust by Yugoslav and post Yugoslav writers situating their oeuvre in the historical and discursive context in which it emerged and paying attention to its reception at the time The book shows how in the writing of different generational groups the survivor generation the 1 5 and the second and third generations the Holocaust is a motif for understanding the nature of extreme violence locally and globally The book offers comparative studies of several authors as well as readings of the work of individual writers It uncovers forgotten authors and discusses internationally well known and translated authors such as Danilo Ki and David Albahari By focusing on work by Jewish and non Jewish authors of three generations it sheds light on the ethical and aesthetical aspects of the transgenerational transmission of Holocaust memory in the Yugoslav context As such this book will appeal to both students and scholars of Holocaust studies cultural memory studies literary studies cultural history cultural sociology Balkan studies and Eastern European politics
