Rafting On The Mississip:

A-rafting on the Mississip' Charles Edward Russell, 1928 During the nineteenth century pine logs were lashed together to form floating rafts that traveled from Minnesota and Wisconsin down the Mississippi River to build the farms and towns of the virtually treeless lower Midwest These huge log rafts were steered down the river by steamboat pilots whose skill and intimate knowledge of the river's many hazards were legendary Charles Edward Russell a Pulitzer Prize winning author chronicles the history and river lore of seventy years of lumber rafting BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Mississippi by Raft Richard Ankony, 2013-04-25 The first thing you will learn about the Mississippi River if you travel the length of it is that Tug Boats Rule These monsters that are pushing their massive loads in barges both rule the day and the night and take no prisoners For if someone tells you that they traveled the river and do not inform you of this then they have done you a grave disservice For either they hugged the shoreline the whole way so as to keep themselves out of harm's way or they didn't go at all If you intend to travel this majestic and mighty river by raft canoe or kayak then you must know this critical fact otherwise your life will be in imminent danger For those of us who went the distance in the sea lane or center of the channel learned quickly that tugboats are to the Mississippi River as great white sharks are to the oceans You must give them a wide berth and pay homage to them or you will pay the ultimate price The second thing you must be told about the Mississippi River is that the river is alive a living being but not Old Man River Yes she is a living being a woman a mother and a teacher who will embrace you with her love tenderness and beauty But as a teacher and a mother you must pay attention and listen to her advice for your survival depends on it or you will die The third thing you must be told is that the American people who live along the riverbanks of this great river have to be the kindest and sweetest people you will ever meet For from them they restored my faith renewed my dreams and from their simple humanity I was born again That said come join three Detroit city white boys who bought a 50 00 rubber raft and a small trolling outboard engine with a broken propeller to take on the mighty Mississippi We were clueless about waterways and rivers but a gentleman's bet pushed us to the limits and outside the envelope of what most people can only dream about During our journey we gained the respect of the rivermen and the twenty nine lockmasters that monitored us throughout our near 30 day adventure Come follow our true story as three young men with 150 00 each and a 50 00 rubber raft navigate the mighty Mississippi with all its dangers at eye level Follow us as we and four other teams of young men from across the nation who met a different fate than ours challenged the mighty Mississippi by canoe and small rafts Join us as we travel through the heartland of America with just gas station maps and a 10 dollar compass to point the way in this heart warming venture Experience the dangers that we encountered as we face broken dams breached levees flooding conditions snakes raging whirlpools and the dreaded four stackers that took the lives of our friends See how an old black man in the bayous saved our lives as if an angel like in the movie It's a Wonderful Life The Hollywood movie
