Politico-ideological Mobilisation and Violence in the Arab World Ahmed Ajil, 2022-09-06 This book presents a study of politico ideological mobilisation and violence by focusing on the life stories trajectories and narratives of individuals who mobilised for causes and conflicts in the Arab World It provides a greater understanding of the biographical sociological political and historic factors pertinent for their radicalisation processes What makes individuals identify with suffering and injustice often of others and elsewhere Why do individuals feel the need to stand up in the first place and how does violent action become a justifiable or necessary course of action Why and how do they disengage from violence This book based on interviews conducted in Lebanon Switzerland and Canada answers these questions It presents new theoretical insights about politico ideological mobilisation and violence By focusing on grievances and grounding analysis in the empirical reality as it is shared and narratively constructed by those who are at the heart of the phenomenon it moves beyond the moralistic and politicised debates that characterise the field Interviewees include non violent and violent engagement for causes and conflicts related to the Arab World such as sympathisers or members of groups and causes from a variety of ideological orientations including Shiite militias Salafi jihadist groups radical left wing groups Palestine specific Kurdish groups and others such as right wing or unspecified affiliations By choosing individuals with different forms of political engagement both non violent and violent and different ideological orientations it helps readers to get a better grasp of how similar grievances may lead to different outcomes In focusing on three markedly different geopolitical contexts the book also provides a crosscontextual understanding of mobilisation for political and violent action The interviewees also include experts and peripheral actors such as professionals researchers policymakers friends or family members Their perspectives complement and enrich some of the findings by providing external yet in depth expert knowledge Politico ideological Mobilisation and Violence in the Arab World will be of great interest to criminologists political scientists sociologists and other scholars interested in the study of terrorism radicalisation and extremism It will also appeal to journalists policymakers practitioners working in the field The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
